HARDING STARTS INVASION OF SOLID SOUTH

RUSSO-POLISH TREATY IS SIGNED

NEITHER VICTOR NOR VANQUISHED, ASSERTS COMMANDER OF REDS

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

RIGA, Oct. 12.—A preliminary peace treaty and armistice was signed by the Polish and Russian soviet peace delegates here at 7:10 o'clock tonight. The armistice actually becomes effective at midnight October 18.

The announcement that peace was to be signed brought great crowds to the square surrounding the Blackhead House. M. Joffe and the Bolshevik delegation entered the hall first and were followed by M. Dombski and the Polish delegation. About 200 persons, including the entire diplomatic body, crowded into the room.

Considerable delay ensued, which was due to the physical work necessary for the completion of the treaty for signature. Tired by more than five days and nights of almost constant work, M. Joffe looked extremely pale, but his voice showed no nervousness when he announced without rising that the treaty had been completed and began reading the Russian text.

M. JOFFE'S ADDRESS.

The head of the soviet delegation described the Riga peace as "a peace without victory and without vanquished" in a brief address before the signature of the treaty.

That describes the Riga agreement accurately as it appeared to disinterested onlookers. It was a peace of give and take, which those who have followed the course of events fear will not be very popular either with the Bolsheviki or the Poles.

But it is undoubtedly a triumph for the two chairmen who made it, and the spirit of conciliation with which they handled the explosive questions that disrupted the Minsk conference is likely to win for them the gratitude of a war-exhausted world.

BUT ONE OPERATION.

The Riga armistice will put the Bolsheviki at peace with all their Baltic neighbors within 144 hours

FRENCH OPEN BIG FIGHT ON HIGH PRICES.

Cabinet Adopts Program to Combat Rising Costs and Will Enforce Laws.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Oct. 12.—The Cabinet today adopted a program to reduce the high cost of living in France. Departmental councils of consumers are to be established with a central council in Paris.

Exportation of fish is to be encouraged and many fish markets will be established, while the exportation of dairy products and cheese will be forbidden.

Importation of frozen meats will be increased and the system of cold storage has been improved.

Stringent enforcement of food laws and suppression of profiteering is promised by the Cabinet and new measures will be drafted to control the slaughter and sale of beef in an effort to check the rapidly rising prices.

AFTER SOVIETS, WHAT?

Washington Concerned as to Successors of Trotzky, Lenine et Al.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Signs of the approaching collapse of Bolshevism in Russia are seen by State Department officials in the crumbling military authority on the Polish front and the rapidly augmenting strength of anti-Bolshevik forces in Southeastern Europe under Gen. Wrangel.

Already consideration is being given at the department, it was said today, to what may follow the end of soviet rule in Russia. The prospect of anarchy and chaos in the event of soviet dissolution is very real, according to officials, but the belief was expressed that the local Zemstvos have been so well organized as to maintain a semblance of order and some cohesion of economical life until a stable government capable of obtaining the adherence of the majority of the Russian population shall arise.

SITUATION IN PERSIA.

The situation in Persia, where for a time Bolshevism threatened to disrupt the country, recently has cleared satisfactorily, according to reports received by the department. The League of Bolshevism with the Turkish Nationalists also is regarded as having been weakened with the rout of Mustapha Kemal and his followers.

Most significant of the wane of soviet influence in Europe, according to officials, was the rejection of Bolshevik overtures by Switzerland, which is situated so as to be able to form an accurate opinion of the character and future of the soviet regime. It is now also known that, somewhat earlier, Rumania rejected overtures of the soviet government, it was said.

SOCIALISTS' JUDGMENT.

The judgment of Socialists on the soviet government was expected to be registered with particular emphasis at the meeting of the German Socialists at Halle, where the Right Wing of the German Socialist party is expected to withdraw from the convention on the issue of adherence to the Moscow Third Internationale. The Right Wing includes the great majority of Socialists in Germany and may be considered, in the opinion of officials, as indicative of the growing attitude of distrust of Socialists generally in Europe toward Bolshevism.

LUMINOUS CABLE APPROVED.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Oct. 12.—Tests of a luminous cable by which steamers may enter and leave port during heavy fogs have been attended by Admiral Fournier and the Minister of the Navy, who have reported them to have been entirely successful. It has been decided to install one of these cables in the principal French ports, and the Matin says the placing of one across the English Channel is being considered.

Admirals Are Complimented by Naval Secretary.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Secretary Daniels today wrote Admiral Rodman and Admiral Rodman, commanding officers of the Atlantic and Pacific fleets, respectively, complimenting them on the "marked increase in efficiency" of both fleets, as shown by an analysis of gunnery and engineering exercised during the last fiscal year.

Despite the high percentage of recruit personnel, the Secretary wrote, improvement in gunnery practice by the Atlantic Fleet had produced a "high state of battle efficiency."

The fleet, he said, showed "progressive improvement" in both gunnery and engineering performance.

AVIATOR BURNED TO DEATH IN PLANE FIRE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 12.—Sergt. Joseph D. Allen of Mason, Mich., was burned to death and Staff Sergt. Walter French, Battle Creek, Mich., was seriously injured today when an airplane piloted by French crashed a building at New Braunfels, Tex., and burst into flames.

Allen was being to the One Hundred and Forty-seventh Aero Squadron, Kelly Field, San Antonio, and were engaged in a training flight.

SIXTEEN PERSONS INJURED IN FALL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

JERSEY CITY (N. J.) Oct. 12.—Sixteen persons were injured, seven seriously, when an improvised grandstand collapsed during the closing events of the Carpentier-Levinsky fight tonight.

Physicians at the Jersey City Hospital reported that of the sixteen injured taken there for treatment all but seven were able to go to their homes.

STRONG WINE OR CIDER MAY BE MADE AT HOME, LIMIT TO BE 200 GALLONS AND NO TAX.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—Heads of families may manufacture in the home and for home use only 200 gallons of dry wine or cider, without regard to its alcoholic content and without payment of Federal tax, Justus S. Wardell, collector of internal revenue for the northern district of California, was advised today in a telegram from William M. Williams, Internal Revenue Commissioner at Washington.

Persons planning to manufacture dry wines for home use will be required to make a declaration of their intentions and furnish information concerning the quantity they intend to produce before starting operations, Wardell said. All such declarations are to be made to the collector of internal revenue at San Francisco.

NEW WAR PROCLAIMED.

Armenians Attack Turks and Tartars With Army of 34,000 Troops.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

ERIVAN (Armenia) Oct. 12.—Armenia has plunged into new warfare against hands of Turks and Tartars. Her army, commanded by Gen. Seboo, is estimated at 34,000 men who, for the most part, have been conscripted since last spring. All are able-bodied, their ages ranging from 17 to 45.

The reason for the fighting is the fact that the interests of the Armenians and the Moslems here cannot be reconciled. A Bolshevik mission has been here since the conference at Baku of representatives of nations in Caucasia and Transcaucasia, but the Armenians are afraid to go Bolshevik, fearing they may be subjected to similar disorders that took place at Baku recently.

The only concrete result of the Baku conference has been a decision by soviet agents to discontinue present attempts to forcibly communize Islamic countries. They are confining themselves to propaganda, which is principally anti-British.

Tartars and Persians have been attacking Armenia to establish a corridor from Baku to Angora, in Asia Minor. Armenia is in the same miserable condition of her neighbors. Her population is living from hand to mouth and has developed a sort of gypsy psychology. Thousands of refugees are always on the march, and prey upon starving bands of Tartars, who also prey upon each other.

REDS IN TROUBLE.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Oct. 12.—Conditions along the South Russian front have assumed a serious aspect for the Bolsheviki, according to advices received here.

Gen. Baron Wrangel's troops are continuing to advance north of Crimea and the Seat of Azov.

The Bolshevik communique of Tuesday shows that fighting is active on all fronts. Both sides are attacking with varying success.

WARSAW, Oct. 12.—The council of six established at Vilna plans to form a provisional government for Central Lithuania, pending the question of the self-determination of the inhabitants of the occupied district. It is understood that posters are displayed in Vilna advocating that MUCH LIQUOR IS CAPTURED IN BAY CITY.

Twelve Barrels of Whisky and Case Goods Are Seized from Saloon.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—Seizure of a liquor stock valued at between $10,000 and $15,000 from a Market-street saloon followed the issuance today of Federal search warrants which were sworn out, according to U. S. Attorney M. Silva, in connection with an alleged widespread liquor-selling conspiracy here. Further seizures and arrests may be expected, it was announced.

Twelve barrels of whisky and a quantity of case goods made up the seizure, which was said to be one of the biggest in recent months. D. E. Anglum, proprietor of the place, was taken into custody.

A promise that the members of the alleged conspiracy in California to obtain and sell bonded liquors illegally will be prosecuted with all possible dispatch and regardless of their standing, influence or position was made in a letter sent to Gov. Stephens by Mr. Silva. The letter was in reply to a message from the Governor commending Silva. Additional search warrants permitting Federal authorities to seize liquor stores were issued today and Silva indicated that they related to the supposed conspiracy.

IRISH RIOTING INCREASES.

Four Are Killed and Many Wounded in Clashes; Ulster Disorder Feared.

DUBLIN, Oct. 12.—While arrests were being made during the military raids in Drumcondra, suburb of Dublin, two officers were shot dead, one noncommissioned officer was wounded and one civilian was killed and another wounded, according to an official report made public today.

Unofficial reports stated the shootings occurred while the military was raiding the home of Prof. Carrollan of All-Hallowes College, in search of two young men who had been staying there. Prof. Carrollan is reported to have been seriously wounded. His wife was in the house during the fight. One of the officers killed, it is stated, was Maj. Smyth, believed to be a brother of Commissioner Smyth of the Royal Irish Carinthia Votes to Stay Under Austrian Rule.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

VIENNA, Oct. 12.—Dispatches to Vienna newspapers regarding the plebiscite in Carinthia declare that the returns indicate that two-thirds of the votes were cast in favor of Austrian possession of the territory affected by the voting.

Two thousand men, making up the entire clerical staff of the post-office saving bank, struck today, demanding more rapid promotion and better working conditions. The daily turnover of this bank approximates 1,000,000,000 crowns, and the strike is strongly resented by the public, which attempted to storm the building today.

STARVATION THREATENS

Irish Face Wrath of Government.

Stern Measures Undertaken to Force Railroad Men to Operate Lines.

Bankruptcy Threatens Roads; Cordons Thrown Around Cork and Ballinasloe.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DUBLIN, Oct. 12.—The sterner measures threatened by Premier Lloyd George already are being put in operation in Ireland. Military blockades have been established in a number of towns and all the people within these cordons are interrogated and searched by pickets, the apparent job being the discovery of arms and documents.

At Cork and Ballinasloe blockade cordons have been drawn around the towns, but the searchers have discovered nothing incriminating. At Ballinasloe Father O'Flanagan, vice-president of the Sinn Fein, was arrested while on his way to the meeting of the board of the local asylum, but was released.

The threatened blockade of the railways in Ireland is expected to be enforced immediately, the idea being to starve out the country towns. Sir Eric Geddes, British Minister of Transport, came to Ireland during the week and had a long consultation with Chief Secretary Sir Hamar Greenwood.

VISIT IS SECRET.

Sir Eric's visit was secret and unannounced, but it is known to have been in connection with measures for blockading the Irish railways.

The government proposes not only to demand the free use of trains for the transportation of troops and armaments, but is prepared to close down the railways on which the men refuse to work such trains. All men so refusing will be arrested and tried by court-martial.

BANKRUPTCY THREATENS.

If this policy does not succeed in intimidating railway men into working on troop trains, the lines will be closed down gradually and such trains as are necessary for military purposes will be run by military engineers. There is a further threat that the government will not pay the subsidy guaranteed to shareholders under government railway control legislation, on the ground that the government has not the use of the railways. This would mean the bankruptcy of the railways and the ruin of the small shareholders.

Night raids continue over a large area of Ireland, the military search for the men wanted being pursued from dark to dawn. At Kilkenny, Saint Kieran's College, an ecclesiastical seminary, was raided this morning and the president, a priest and the students were ordered out of bed, searched and interrogated. All the dormitories and private apartments were examined, including the priests' rooms, but no documents were discovered and no arrests were made.

WARDER KIDNAPED.

Warder Griffin, when leaving the Cork prison last evening, was kidnaped and taken by a party of armed men to some destination as yet unidentified. Another warder, who accompanied Griffin, was escorted to his home by some of the kidnapers.

Cadet John Anderson of the Black and Tan police was shot through the heart in Dublin barracks today. Anderson was ordered to hold up his hands. Failing to do so, he was shot dead with a revolver. Nobody has made any explanation as to the cause of the tragedy.

Thomas O'Shea, a prominent local Sinn Feiner, was found in the river near Carrick, Tipperary, today with two bullets in his brain. There is no clew to the murderers.

Threats of Bomb Explosion Are Made in Chicago

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Threats of a bomb explosion were made in an anonymous letter received today by A. H. Reinhardt, chairman of the National Association of Purchasing Agents' convention, in session here. The letter read:

"Let these gentlemen kid themselves. They think they are sitting on a safety valve. They will continue to sit on a safety valve until the great explosion, and then they will pass out."

It is believed that the letter was inspired by a statement made by Mr. Reinhardt in an address in which he said: "We must buy nothing but essentials until the general decline in prices has been completed."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Approximately 6300 acres of homestead and desert land in the Eureka and Sacramento land districts of California will be opened to entry December 3, the Interior Department announced today.

DIDN'T LIKE JILTING.

Girl Mistaken for Burglar Shot by Fiance.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Anna Heyward selected the hour of 4 a.m. to visit the home of James Hamilton, 3445 Federal street, and protest against his jilting her. Awakened while she was crawling through a first floor window, James took a revolver from under his pillow and began firing, wounding the girl in the right leg, but she crawled away and went to her home. Her mother called the police, who took her to the hospital and arrested Hamilton.

"I thought she was a burglar," Hamilton said.

"I heard Jim wanted to reject me, so I went to his home to tell him that it can't be done," the woman told the officers who went to her bedside.

REPUBLICANS IN HOPES OF CARRYING TENNESSEE; TO TRY KENTUCKY ALSO

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ON BOARD SENATOR HARDING'S SPECIAL TRAIN, Oct. 12.—Beginning what may be his last speaking tour outside Ohio, Senator Harding traveled southward tonight for an invasion of territory which has been counted Democratic for half a century. Opening with a speech tomorrow night at Chattanooga, Tenn., he will swing northwest on the following day to Louisville, Ky., through a section belonging, normally, to the solid South.

Many stops are to be made for rear-platform speeches, and the nominee indicated tonight that he was prepared to make a vigorous and aggressive fight to swing the two States over to the Republican column.

Meantime the candidate and his managers are holding in abeyance final decision on the question of an eastern trip in late October. Tonight serious consideration is being given to a cancellation of the whole eastern program.

Should any trip be made, it is possible that only one speech will be made, at New York City.

MRS. HARDING ALONG.

The Senator's special train, which will reach Chattanooga tomorrow morning, carries two special cars, the Senator and Mrs. Harding riding in the Superb and Gov. Beeckman of Rhode Island, together with several members of his family, accompanying him on the private car Newport.

Most of tomorrow the nominee will spend visiting Lookout Mountain and other historic places near Chattanooga.

A change in the schedule for Saturday was made today to permit the Senator to make several rear-platform speeches on his way from Terre Haute, Ind., to St. Louis, where he will end his trip with a night speech.

Under the new arrangement he will leave Terre Haute at 7 p.m., after a short stop, and will make short stops at Casey, Effingham, Vandalia, Greenville and East St. Louis, Ill.

During a layover tonight at the station in Columbus, the candidate climbed down from his private car and chatted with a group of railway employees about Cleveland's victory in the world series. He declared it was bully to have the championship pennant remain in Ohio.

"It is certainly a fine testimonial to the honesty of the game and the players that the Cleveland team should have made a clean sweep of the four-game series in their home city and thus won the world's championship," said Senator Harding later.

"They knew they might prolong the series and thus add many dollars to the receipts for the team owners, but the money angle of the game did not influence them in the least. It shows better than anything else the soul of the game, and I am certainly proud tonight to know that an Ohio team did it.

"Of course, I wanted Cleveland to win, for it added another star to the crown of great things that Ohio has done, and done so well. I think that Cleveland must especially be proud of Pitcher Coveleskie, who has three times pitched his club to victory."

At Xenia, O., the nominee made a brief speech from the rear platform of his car, pledging a return to constitutional government and declaring he wanted no mortgage on American independence.

"LAST GREAT GATHERING.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MARION (O.) Oct. 12.—The last great gathering at the Harding front porch will be on Monday, October 18, which will be celebrated as "America First Day." One of the largest gatherings of the campaign is assured, in honor of the new voters, young men and young women, who have come to their majority since 1916, and also all women who will cast Presidential votes this year for the first time.

The new voters all over Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky are interesting themselves to make this the campaign's largest gathering in Marion.

Thousands will come by automobiles, and the Indiana automobile organizations are marking all highways leading to Marion, for the guidance of the parties. Other thousands will come on bicycles, this division being one of the important ones in the parade arrangements.

There will be one speaker for the young men, another for the young women and Senator Harding will respond with one of the important addresses of the campaign.

ESPECIALLY SANCTIONED.

This meeting has been especially sanctioned by the Republican National Committee, whose chief officers, together with leading party men and women from all over the country are expected to attend.

The barbecue and burgoo will be put on at Jackson, O., October 20, by the Southern Ohio Harding Club, which is expected to draw from 50,000 to 60,000 people. A barbecue is pretty generally understood, but burgoo is an institution peculiar to Kentucky and Southern Ohio. First,

COCKRAN SCORES HARDING.

Stand of Candidate on Ireland Causes British Barbarities, He Says.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The statement of Senator Harding that, if elected, he would not take official cognizance of conditions in Ireland is responsible "for the renewal of war of extermination now being waged under the orders of Lloyd George," W. Bourke Cockran of New York declared in a telegram from Cleveland, received at Democratic national headquarters today. Mr. Cockran's statement said:

"I find it difficult to believe that any man of Irish blood could support for the Presidency a man who, the moment he believed his election was made certain by the result in Maine, hastened to assure the British government that, no matter what barbarities it might perpetrate in Ireland, no word of official condemnation would be uttered by this government while Mr. Harding administered it.

"The degree to which murder and pillage increased after Mr. Harding's utterances shows that before it was published this government had been exercising some slight measure of restraint on the bloodthirstiness of British officers in Ireland.

"Mr. Lloyd George, confronted with the alternative of emancipating or exterminating the Irish people, is now emboldened by Mr. Harding's assurance of official indifference to proclaim a policy of extermination."

MASS FOR MacSWINEY.

The sixty-first fast day of Terence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, was marked with a solemn military mass in the Church of St. Francis de Sales, attended by members of New York's famous Irish regiment, "the Fighting Sixty-ninth."

The ceremony for the spiritual and temporal welfare of MacSwiney was celebrated with the full pomp of war-time field masses. Mingling with the sound of chimes were the notes of drum and bugle, played by veterans. A military guard bearing the American flag and the colors of the Irish republic stood at the altar.

The Rev. James A. Dunnigan, regimental chaplain, officiated. He referred to MacSwiney as one of Ireland's greatest heroes and a man of God, defying the forces of hell.

FIRE SWEEPS VILLAGE IN ARKANSAS.

Nearly 500 Persons Are Made Homeless by Pine Bluff Blaze.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PINE BLUFF (Ark.) Oct. 12.—More than 100 houses, most of them occupied by negroes, were destroyed by fire today. The flames at 4 p.m. had spread into the white residence section. Firemen believed they were gradually getting the fire under control. Nearly 500 people had been made homeless. A fund for their relief is being raised.

No estimate of the loss is available.

So far as could be learned, there were no casualties. The fire was declared to be under control at 4:30 p.m. Only a few scattered houses in an area of more than eight blocks were standing.

DEMOCRATS LEAVE COX.

Continuous Slump Spreading.

Supporters Make No Headway in Combatting Landslide for Harding.

Hope of Carrying New York Already Given Up by the Bourbons.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The sentiment for Harding and the Republican ticket still continues to gain ground.

The Democrats in the East have made no headway in combatting the swing toward the Republican nominee.

These two facts are revealed in the results of the New York Evening Telegram's polls for the Presidency during the past week.

Tabulations of the figures received to date show that Cox has slumped decidedly, while Harding has made marked gains. These losses on the one hand and gains on the other are partly explained by the fact that the poll during the week touched groups of people who are always strongly Republican and who voted almost solidly for the Republican nominee. Such was the case with the Connecticut vote.

NEW JERSEY VOTE.

But in New Jersey the situation is different. The vote for the most part during the week represents a factory vote which very often is Democratic in its leanings. In this year, however, the drift toward Harding in these sections is pronounced.

In New York Harding gained slightly at the expense of Gov. Cox. The explanation for this is that the poll taken in Central New York, Republican territory, is included in the tabulation for the first time. Nevertheless, defections in the New York City ranks of the Democracy continue apace. At the present rate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—A special committee of the convention of agricultural interests in session here decided tonight to recommend that the convention adopt a resolution tomorrow denouncing the work of night riders and others in cotton States. The committee resolution will declare that the activities of those responsible for the burning of cotton and cotton gins and for threats of violence are calculated to hinder rather than help the cotton market.

Cox Continues to Hammer on League of Nations Pronouncements.

ATTACKS TAFT AND HARDING.

Declares Attitude of Senator Vacillating.

Says Former President Held Concert Impracticable.

Governor Delivers Sixteen Speeches in Indiana.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LAFAYETTE (Ind.) Oct. 12. — Gov. Cox of Ohio, in a busy tour today of Illinois and Indiana, hammered heavily upon the League of Nations pronouncements of himself and Senator Harding, picturing his Republican opponent as "wiggling and wobbling." The Democratic candidate emphasized to sixteen audiences that he was for the League with "whole heart and soul."

Centering his assault upon Senator Harding's League statement, Gov. Cox declared it vacillating, the seventh position assumed by Senator Harding and at the heels of a tempest aroused by Harding's Des Moines speech. That the Senator's proposal for a new association of nations was held by former President Taft to be impractical also was stressed by the nominee.

Referring to today's statement by Senator Harding, Gov. Cox, to an audience of several thousand persons tonight on the Courthouse steps, said:

COX'S STATEMENT.

"The vacillating attitude of Senator Harding justifies neither the American people nor the nations of the world in taking him seriously. It is apparent that he hasn't a single desperate conviction upon the subject and that he wobbles about from one day to the other in the aimless hope that this group or that group of voters can be pleased. It is the most pitiable spectacle in the political history of America. I can understand why the sentiment of wiggling and wobbling has been emblazoned over the billboards of America with the picture of the Senator.

"The candidate of the Senatorial oligarchy has a monopoly on that process and he ought to be privileged to advertise."

Although the Governor confined his long string of speeches today principally to the League, he repeated charges of a conspiracy of silence by the reactionary press against the Democratic campaign.

Religious tone to the Governor's League plea increased, and, presenting what he termed practical business reasons, he declared that "if we don't go into the League I look for constantly increasing trend toward a business recession." The League is necessary, he urged, to restore foreign credit and purchasing power. He expressed belief that America would be in the League within a few months and that no large nation would be outside within a year or possibly six months.

CONTINUE UNCHANGED.

On his ore upon Senator Harding's League statement, Gov. Cox declared that his own had been and would continue to be unchanged.

"I ask you," he said, "whether you have followed the vacillating position of the candidate of the Senatorial oligarchy. He made charges on the front porch, then when we took him off the front porch and he reached Des Moines he said he was going to turn his back upon the League with or without reservations. There came a tempest all over the land and Republicans that were for the League announced their position and their intention of voting for me. When he reached the front porch again yesterday he changed again and said he was for a new association of nations.

"President Taft, who is attempting to keep him steady, says that the new association of nations is not practical, that it won't work; that lieves in "prospering America first."

it can't be attained; forty-one nations of the world have already joined the League. It is a going concern and they will not abandon it at the mere wish and caprice of a group of Senators."

PLATFORM SPEECHES.

Most of Gov. Cox's addresses today were from the rear platform and all of his audiences cheered and applauded. Several hundred persons were in some of the crowds. Some brought bands and automobiles were thick at each station with stops continuing from almost sunrise until long after dark. In Illinois the Governor made rear platform talks at Green Springs, Pekin, Washington, Eureka, Secor, El Paso, Gridley, Chenoa, Fairbury, Gilman, Watseka and Sheldon.

In Indiana, en route here, he spoke at Kentland and Reynolds. Peter A. Waller Democratic candidate for United States Senator in Illinois, Judge James T. Burns, candidate for Attorney-General, and other candidates accompanied the Governor through the day. Interest of Illinoisans in Gov. Cox was indicated by crowds gathered at some stations where no stops were made.

Indiana will continue the Governor's barnstorming tomorrow.

A special train provided by the State committee is to take him to Delphi, Logansport, Peru, Wamash and Huntington, preceding a night meeting at Fort Wayne.

On Thursday the Governor will speak in Ohio with a night address at Columbus.

NO VICTOR OR VANQUISHED.

from midnight tonight and leave the Wrangel movement as the only military operation against the soviet.

M. Joffe called attention to the many difficulties encountered in arranging the armistice and also to the harmonious manner in which the delegations carried out the negotiations. He also expressed the belief that the foundation has been laid for a permanent peace, as both nations are absolutely tired of war and unwilling to assume the responsibility for continuing the strife.

LONG TASK ENDED.

Experts were engaged during the day in completing the Ukrainian text. Completion of this work was the last preliminary of the convention, which was framed after twenty days of negotiation.

Both Adolf Joffe, head of the Russian soviet peace mission, and M. Dombski, express satisfaction with the terms agreed upon. The Bolsheviki insist the preliminary treaty is much less favorable than the peace offered Poland last February, and the failure of the Poles to have a financial settlement included in the preliminary convention has been generally regarded as a soviet triumph. M. Joffe has had much experience at peace conferences.

ADVANTAGE SEEN.

Many Polish observers regard the corridor shutting off Lithuania from Russia obtained by Poland as a victory outweighing any concessions made.

The principals insist the terms eventually will lead to the signature of a permanent treaty which will permit restoration of normal conditions in Central Europe. The French, however, are clearly dissatisfied.

The bottling up of Lithuania is generally regarded as a doubtful experiment and the occupation of Vilna by Gen. Zeligiuski has created a suspicion that the Polish government has knowledge of the plot which has been supported by Polish landlords in Lithuania.

HARDING ASSERTS FOR PROTECTIVE TARIFF.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 12. — Senator Harding today replied to a telegram from the Farmers' National Grain Dealers' Association, asking his attitude toward a protective tariff on farm products, by pointing out that he "is declaring for American protection in every speech," and believes in "prospering America first."

Vilna should belong to Poland. These posters, it is asserted, urge that steps be taken to join hands with the Polish republic.

Officials here say no word has been received from Gen. Zeligowski or from Vilna direct, since the Lithuanians evacuated their capital.

RUSSIANS MASSING.

The Russians are concentrating along the southern front to attack the Ukrainians, it is declared in tonight's Polish statement. Fighting along the northern front virtually ceased several days ago with the Poles gradually working eastward toward the boundary line as agreed in the terms made with the Russians, the Poles occupying various villages to the north and east, including Minsk.

Lithuanian patrols, despite the armistice in the north, have repeatedly crossed the demarcation line, it is asserted in the statement.

Reports from various sources are that Kieff was evacuated several days ago by the Bolsheviki under the pressure of Ukrainian insurgents who have occupied the city.

TROOPS MOBILIZE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—General mobilization of troops has been ordered by the Lithuanian government to repel the Polish insurgent forces, now in possession of Vilna, the Lithuanian capital, according to advices received today by the Lithuanian mission. The dispatches also said the Poles have demanded temporary possession of Vilna pending a plebiscite.

REBELLION SPREADS.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 12.—The Ukrainian press agency says that the rebellion against the Bolshevists in the Ukraine is spreading rapidly. Kieff is surrounded by rebels, who have cut off all supplies and forced the Bolsheviks across the western bank of the Dneiper.

Between Kieff and Odessa, two large rebel forces are operating, interrupting incessantly the railway connection.

A force headed by Machno is operating between the mouth of the Dneiper and the Sea of Azov. Several thousand soldiers of the Bolshevist army have joined this force lately.

SEBASTOPOL, Oct. 12. — Gen. Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik leader, has launched his expected offensive against the new Sixth Army of the soviet forces, sheltered behind the Dnieper. Gen. Wrangel is carrying out a pinching movement converging on the town of Kakhova, northeast of Kherson. Fine weather is favoring the operations.

Gen. Wrangel's permanent north front extends from Mariupol to Ekaterineslav along the railway. His control of the Sea of Azov has been assured by the capture of 6000 sailors at Mariupol who were preparing to descend upon the grain port of Genitchesk. The remainder of the fleet fled to Taganrod.

Gen. Wrangel now has cleaned out the soviet forces which have been operating along the network of railways in the Donetz Basin.

PARIS, Oct. 12.—Two Russian Bolsheviki from Moscow were arrested today at the Lyons station. They were bringing into France two trunks containing 72,000,000 roubles in Russian securities and numerous Bolshevik bookiets.

The bonds and securities were wrapped in Bolshevik literature to "allay suspicion," Levi Faner, one of the prisoners, is reported to have told the customs officers. The other prisoner's name is Samuel Polick. They have refused thus far to say for whom the funds were intended.

France and Great Britain have sent a joint note to Poland advising moderation concerning the question of frontiers, according to the Petit Parisien.

MRS. PEETE TALKS AGAIN.

Volunteers Statement to the District Attorney on Denton Case.

Mrs. R. C. Peete, the central figure in the Denton murder investigation, went to the District Attorney's office shortly before midnight last night, where she made a third and lengthy statement to Chief Dep. Dist.-Atty. Doran and Raymond I. Turney, his assistant, it was learned early this morning.

Present during the questioning were Richard C. Peete, her husband, and her 4-year-old daughter Betty. Detective Sergeant Sidney Hickok, Detective Smith and Detective Jones also were present in the office.

None of the officials was willing to make any statement when questioned about the midnight grilling. It was learned by The Times from a reliable source that Mrs. Peete went to the District Attorney's office at her own request and offered to tell Mr. Doran additional facts that may throw more light on the mysterious slaying of J. C. Denton, whose body was found buried in the basement of his home at 675 South Catalina street.

Coming on the eve of the grand jury investigation into the case, Mrs. Peete's voluntary statement was considered significant by investigators working on the case. The fact that the detectives assigned to the case who did not participate in the first two examinations of Mrs. Peete were present last night led to the conclusion that points vital to the solutions of the crime were discussed by Mrs. Peete in her talk.

CLASH OF HEIRS?

While representatives of the State are making final preparations for laying before the grand jury tomorrow all evidence in the Denton murder mystery, a contest is looming between Frances Denton, 15-year-old heiress of the victim, and the heirs of Mrs. Dollie Denton, deceased second wife of the slain capitalist. A conflict of interests that may lead to the courts is almost certain when legal action is taken affecting Mrs. Denton's estate, which has never been administered.

The decomposed body of the victim, who reposed for almost three months in an unhallowed grave in the basement of his home on South Catalina street, will be laid to rest today at the side of his second wife's grave in Hollywood Cemetery. The funeral services will be held at 10:30 o'clock at Garrett & Co.'s chapel, 1225 South Flower street, in the charge of Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, pastor of Temple Baptist Church. Since the finding of the remains, on September 28, the body has been held at the Garrett mortuary pending the investigation into the murder.

As a forerunner of the threatening clash, L. A. Beck, nephew of Mrs. Denton, told a Times representative that his visit to Los Angeles was chiefly for the purpose of "looking after the interests of the Dollie Mae Winters Denton heirs." He made tentative arrangements with an attorney along that line.

Judge Avery, guardian of Frances Denton and special administrator of the estate, indicated last night that every effort will be made to turn over the entire Denton estate to the girl. The clash between the two interests, if precipitated, will come when a determination is sought as to what property of Mrs. Denton's represents community property. Much of the mining stock in Denton's safe deposit box was in her name and some other holdings are now listed in the estate of Mrs. Denton.

WHAT IS SEPARATE?

All community property reverts to the J. C. Denton estate, it was pointed out, since the wife's death preceded the Denton murder. This property belongs to Frances Denton, daughter by another marriage, who is Denton's nearest relative. In case it could be shown that some of the property belonged separately to Mrs. Denton and had not been acquired through community effort, only a third would belong to the J. C. Denton estate and the remainder would be divided among the wife's heirs.

Although the purported last will of Denton, turned over to the authorities by Mrs. R. C. Peete, who will perhaps be the most important witness before the grand jury, will be introduced in the probate proceedings, Judge Avery intimated that he will not urge that its provisions be followed in the administration.

The will has been pronounced genuine by handwriting experts, but it has not been witnessed and is invalid on that account, it is stated. According to its terms, 75 per cent of the estate is to be held in trust for Frances Denton and she is to have the interest, with the remainder of the estate donated to some children's home. The trust fund would go to her children, or if she died without any, it also would go to charity, according to the will.

ESTATE IS LARGE.

Conservative estimates of the Denton estate place its value at approximately $150,000. Much mining stock, however, could not be accurately appraised, it was said.

Judge Avery declared he has been proceeding slowly with the administration because he did not wish to interfere with any investigations relating to the murder.

That the grand jury, when it considers the Denton case, will be shown a number of exhibits, consisting in part of documents now in the possession of the District Attorney, became known yesterday. These documents are considered of great importance and are understood to contain dates and other facts that are expected to supply missing links in the chain of evidence tending to connect certain suspects with events preceding and following the disappearance of Denton and the finding of his body.

Two hasty trips out of town by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Turney added new possibilities to the case yesterday. Mr. Turney was accompanied by attaches of his office and is understood to have sought important testimony.

PREDICT CHICAGO WILL BE "SAHARAIZED" GOOD.

DALRYMPLE'S FORCE OF DRY SLEUTHS ENLARGED BY 200 MEN.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—The forecast for the 1000 or more saloons in Chicago, which have been openly selling beer of 3 to 4 per cent alcohol, and whisky of doubtful origin and shady quality for 75 cents a drink, is that henceforth they will be increasingly dry.

Maj. A. V. Dalrymple, prohibition enforcement director for the Chicago district, has been reinforced by about 200 dry agents as the result of a conference between Dalrymple, the Collector of Internal Revenue and Thomas J. O'Brien, chief field deputy for the Internal Revenue Department.

Heretofore O'Brien's 200 men have been securing evidence of illegal sales of intoxicants and prosecuting dealers for neglect to pay the $1000 license fee. They were not empowered to arrest anyone.

Under the new agreement all these men are given additional police powers and they can arrest any violator of the laws and confiscate illegal stocks of liquor.

This places them more directly under Maj. Dalrymple's orders and greatly strengthens his forces, which at best are sadly inadequate to cope with the army of prohibition violators hereabouts.

Cummings Urges America's Entrance Into League and Gov. Cox's Election.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 12.—"America belongs to the world and must redeem her word before domestic and international chaos will end," Homer S. Cummings, former Democratic national chairman, asserted here today in an address before the Indiana Democratic Club.

He urged that America enter the League of Nations and that the Democratic national ticket be elected. The Republican party turned to bitter partisanship with the declaration of the armistice with Germany, Mr. Cummings said. He charged its leaders with being more interested in party success than in national honor.

MONKEY BITE MAY CHANGE GREEK KING.

Alexander's Illness Causes Government to Consider a Regency.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

ATHENS (Greece) Oct. 12.—Only the strong constitution of King Alexander of Greece is relied upon by his physicians to bring him through the crisis of his illness, resulting from the bite of a monkey a short time ago. It was admitted at the palace today that the King had entered into the critical phase of his illness.

The government, alarmed at the serious turn in the King's condition, discussed the question of a regency and decided that the council of ministers would take up the task of administering the country in the event of the King's condition becoming worse.

Yesterday it was said at the palace that there had been little change in the condition of Alexander over that of Sunday. His physicians at that time refrained from giving any concise statement, although there was no attempt to conceal the fact that the illness of the monarch was grave.

Today's statement, made at 1 p.m., was the first intimation that the physicians in attendance were relying only on the strong constitution of King Alexander, who is but 27 years old, to save him.

Arrangements are making on a huge scale for the occasion. Hundreds of feet of trenches will be required in which to roast the fifty beeves that will be served along with the burgoo, everything free. It is said that two or three railroad cars will be required to deliver the big camp kettles used in making the burgoo.

Senator Harding will be the chief guest of the occasion, speaking in the afternoon. Addresses also will be made by Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, Hon. Frank B. Willis and Congressman Nicholas Longworth. About seventy-five special trains are to come from all over Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia and Western Pennsylvania and Southern Indiana. Caravans of automobiles will also come from over a wide territory.

A long list of national leaders has been invited for the occasion. It will be an all-day affair with a wide variety of entertainment in addition to the political features.

Extensive military raids were carried out in Drumcondra this morning and All-Hallowes College, the principal missionary college supplying priests to America and the colonies, was visited.

Several shops and private houses were searched. During an affray one citizen was wounded. A major and three soldiers were wounded, according to an unconfirmed report.

BELFAST, Oct. 12.—The report that a brother of the late Commissioner Smyth of the Royal Irish Constabulary has been killed near Dublin has caused a sensation here, as the commissioner was in Cork last summer. If Maj. Smyth, who was killed, proves to be a relative of the late commissioner, it is feared there will be a renewal of the disorders in Ulster.

CORK, Oct. 12.—An attack on a military lorry in the Mallow district of Cork near the town of Kantunk yeaterday resulted in the death of the driver and the wounding of three soldiers. It developed into another fight between soldiers hurried to the scene and the attacking party, which, according to a military headquarters report, numbered 150 men armed with machine guns, rifles and bombs. Residents fled to the country, fearing reprisals.

WAR DECLARATION.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Oct. 12.—Leaders of the Sinn Fein movement regard the speech made at Carnarvon, Wales, on Saturday, by Premier Lloyd George, as almost a declaration of war on Ireland, says the Dublin correspondent of the London Times. There are many signs, he continued, that the executive department in that city intends to bring matters to a head as quickly as possible by a concentrated campaign against disorder which, by inflicting general hardships on the country, may make crime and lawlessness "truly unpopular."

Projected measures are said to include complete stoppage of the Irish railways, drastic reduction of the postal service until all railway workers agree to return to duty, and until there is a cessation of raids on the mails.

Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork passed a good night at Brixton prison and today was in the same rested and peaceful condition that was reported yesterday, said a bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination League. This was the sixty-first day of his hunger strike.

The Evening News today says it understands that Lord Mayor MacSwiney's "remarkably fit condition" is due to his partaking of grape juice and the juices of other fruits, and frequently of spirits and wine.

In the opinion of the prison doctor, the newspaper asserts, he may easily last another month.

CASSEL (Germany) Oct. 12.—At the Socialist congress today Herr Cohen, a member of the Majority Socialist party, criticised what he termed the campaign of systematic agitation against France which, he charged, was led by the Berlin newspaper Vorwaerts. Herr Cohen declared in favor of loyal acceptance of the Versailles Treaty and pointed out the necessity for Germany to reach a friendly understanding with France.

All the other orators, one of whom was Philipp Scheidemann, former Secretary for Foreign Affairs, protested against the utterances of Herr Cohen.

COX TICKET IS IN BIG SLUMP.

Harding bids fair to carry every one of the five boroughs of the city.

DEMOCRATS DESERTING.

In connection with the vote upState it is interesting to note that the Democratic ranks there are holding firmly, although Democrats in that section usually represent a distinct minority in the voting population. It is in New York City alone that the Democrats are deserting the party.

Enough ballots have already been taken in New York City to indicate something that has long been suspected—that President Wilson only carried the city in 1916 by the aid of Republican votes. In that year his plurality over Hughes in the city was less than 20,000. In the straw vote nearly one-half of the "shifts" from Wilson to Hughes in this city are on the part of the Republicans who voted for Wilson in 1916 and are now returning to their natural party affiliations. Since Wilson carried the city by less than 20,000 in a community usually strongly Democratic, it is evident that in that year Tammany knifed the President to the hilt. This is something which has often been charged, but about which nothing definite has ever been learned. The straw votes give the first indication of that situation.

DEMOCRATIC GAMENESS.

Canvassers in central New York report that the Democrats have little hope of winning the national elections, but are determined to go down to defeat gamely. Comparatively few Democrats who voted for Wilson in 1916 are following the lead of their brothers in New York City.

Tammany Hall, it is apparent, has given up any effort to help Gov. Cox. The leaders of that organization are now devoting all their attention to attempting to re-elect Al Smith Governor and to carrying the local tickets, which include several Justiceships of the Supreme Court. There is considerable alarm in the Tammany ranks over the prospect of losing the local offices.

RESULTS IN NEW YORK.

More than 20,000 votes have been taken to date in the week's straw vote—15,574 in New York, 3817 in New Jersey and 1439 in Connecticut. It is now a representative vote of practically the voting group of the three States covered. Votes taken in the Hudson River cities will soon be included in the tabulations in New York, while votes from South Jersey and the manufacturing cities of Connecticut are to be collected during the next few days.

In New York Cox lost half a point. His percentage is now .329, while Harding's is .567; Debs, .078, and Christensen, .025. Last week the percentages were: Cox, .334; Harding, .537; Debs, .082, and Christensen, .026.

The percentages of the women in New York this week are Cox, .324; Harding, .577; Debs, .040; Christensen, .028. Last week they were: Cox, .325; Harding, .526; Debs, .044; Christensen, .025. It will be seen that among the women Cox has gained slightly at the expense of Harding. This is due to votes received by him from women upstate.

In New Jersey, where the vote taken during the week was predominantly a factory vote, the percentages among the men were: Cox, .295; Harding, .610; Debs, .071; Christensen, .023. Last week they were: Cox, .329; Harding, .607; Debs, .051; Christensen, .012.

For the Jersey women the percentages for the week are: Cox, .229; Harding, .638; Debs, .052; Christensen, .010. The week before they were: Cox, .329; Harding, .607; Debs, .051; Christensen, .012.

CONNECTICUT VOTE.

The Connecticut vote is the least representative of the tabulation, but there is ample reason to believe that it accurately represents the sentiment of that State. More territory is being covered in the State and soon it will be as representative as the votes in the other States. The percentages for the women men are: Cox, .295; Debs, .071; Christensen, .023. Last week they were: Cox, .329; Harding, .607; Debs, .051; Christensen, .012.

Among the Connecticut women percentages are: Cox, .318; Harding, .705; Debs, .014; Christensen, .005. Last week they were: Cox, .312; Harding, .677; Debs, .017; Christensen, .008.

The Democratic campaigners in the East seems to be lagging more and more at any time since it began. There is no evidence of this in the Democratic managers' plans to devote most of their time to debatable ground in the West and Middle West.

Total vote cast, 15,574; for Cox, 5135; for Harding, 8831; for Debs, 1144; Christensen, 344.

WOMEN AGAIN QUERY HARDING

Want to Know Exact Attitude Toward League.

Candidate Replies to First Question Asked.

Harding Headquarters Publishes Correspondence.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—A reply from Senator Harding to a telegram from Mrs. Ray Lyman Wilbur of the Executive Committee of the Women's League for the Peace of Nations asking the Senator to define his position on the League of Nations was given out here today by the publicity headquarters of the Democratic National Committee, along with a second telegram to Harding from Mrs. Wilbur and Mrs. William Kent Lonas.

Senator Harding's reply, in the form of a telegram from his secretary, George B. Christian, Jr., read: "Senator Harding wants me to say in reply to your telegram October 9, that he would rejoice to have the support of you and your associates, but he is unalterably opposed to Article X and the surrender of sovereignty it involves. He has repeatedly he favors an association of nations to promote peace."

In answer to this, Mrs. Wilbur and Mrs. Lonas sent Senator Harding a telegram as follows:

"Kindly acknowledge your courteous answer to our telegram October 9. Are we right in interpreting your answer to mean that you will support the present covenant of the League of Nations now accepted by more than forty nations if Article X is eliminated?"

The Woman's League sent a petition to Washington last year, signed by more than 30,000 California women, urging the ratification of the peace treaty and the covenant of the League of Nations.

JOINT DEBATE ON ISSUE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Senator Robinson of Arkansas and E. H. Hooker, who was a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of New York, tonight jointly presented the Democratic and Republican campaign issues before the American Association of Engineers.

Senator Robinson attacked the "beating about the bush" of which he said Senator Harding had been guilty throughout the campaign, in contrast, he added, "to the categorical, unequivocal stand" of Gov. Cox on all public questions.

Senator Robinson declared that Senator Harding's record in Congress "is blank," whereas the record of Gov. Cox in Ohio is "progressive."

Mr. Hooker attacked the Democratic national administration during the war, characterizing it as politically partisan, inefficient and wasteful. Also, "we have suffered too long from a party that insists upon 'open covenants, openly arrived at'—behind closed doors, as at Versailles," he added.

The Cantilever Shoe

Two Feet of Happiness Hugs the Arch

We do not believe in superlatives, but we will say of no shoe which is built under the arch like the Cantilever Shoe.

This close-fitting step provides a wonderful, natural support for "tired arches." You may not have a case of fallen arches requiring medical attention; but have you not noticed how your arches get tired long walking or long standing?

That is due primarily to the shoes you are wearing—for Nature cushions your foot with muscles and ligaments to hold the arch in place. Rigid shank shoes (like a flat iron) have prevented these muscles from exercising, and they are gradually losing strength from disuse. Perhaps many of your aches and pains have stopped your arch from natural action. Your leg muscles would get the same way if you had been used crutches.

These good-looking shoes, of remarkable and conducive to graceful poise and efficiency, are sold only by

JAPS HOPE TO DEFER BATTLE.

Well Known, Says Writer, That She is Preparing.

Five Years Will Help Her in Ambitions.

Hawaii Will Feel First Shock of War.

[The writer recently arrived in Manila after traversing the great naval route from New York to Panama and thence to Honolulu and the Philippines. For some weeks he personally studied the situation at Guam, our key naval post between Hawaii and the Philippines.]

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MANILA, Oct. 12.—It is well established that Japan is considering the possibility of war with the United States for the domination of the Pacific. According to the best belief she hopes to defer the clash until she is firmly intrenched in China and Siberia, and until, by clever political maneuvering, she can make it appear to her people that she is acting entirely on the defensive.

Japan realizes that America is opposed to war. She believes the long delay of the United States in getting into the World War is evidence of this, and she holds to the belief that war with Japan over the Pacific problem would be unpopular with Americans.

Numerous incidents occurring recently indicate a Japanese policy along this line. Preferably, she would wait five or ten years until the war-trained men in the great American army have grown stale and the Army has disintegrated into raw material. She believes that Congress will not back plans for keeping the Army equipped on a war scale and that the pressure for reform will result in cutting down the personnel.

FIVE MORE YEARS.

She has little faith in the League of Nations and believes that through the renewal of her treaty with Great Britain she is safely in control of the Pacific. In five years, Japan believes, she will be strong enough on the Asiatic continent to assert herself as mistress of the Pacific, while at the same time America, Nippon thinks, will have become a latent giant.

Some believe that in the event of hostilities Japan will ignore the Philippines, as she could not afford to divide her fleet. It would be easily possible, provided naval forces were available to cut off American communications with the Orient, that the Philippines could be dealt with at Japan's own leisure.

The military strategists here assume that in the event of hostilities the American Asiatic Fleet, being far inferior in strength to Japan's battle fleet, would naturally seek sanctuary in Manila until the American battle fleet appeared.

To detach a force against the American Asiatic Fleet would weaken Japan's main fleet, and it would not be worth while for the Asiatic fleet to venture an attack on the undefended Japanese and Formosan coasts, because it would be barren of results in the absence of an occupation force to follow up.

SHOCK AT HAWAII.

The shock of war, military strategists say, would probably be felt in the neighborhood of Hawaii, the capture of which would be a means of cutting American communications. The success of this move rests on two contingencies; first Japan's ability to preserve her own line of communications by removing any danger of attack by the Asiatic fleet at Manila; second, the disposal of the American Pacific Fleet before the Atlantic Fleet would reach the scene of battle. The success of the first contingency is based on the success of the second.

The Atlantic Fleet, it is suggested, might be held in the Atlantic by the menace of a European power or the closing of the Panama Canal.

If the Pacific Fleet were encountered single-handed, the Japanese assume that they would be victors. Then, they believe, they could seize Oahu with Pearl Harbor and the city of Honolulu before the Atlantic fleet appeared.

But America has a strong military force in the Canal Zone and believes it can protect it against the plots of hostile agents. The great guns there can protect it from naval attack. Minor naval forces recently based at the Canal Zone guard it against sea attacks that might occur during any uprisings of the Central American republics, but do not protect it from land actions that might menace the safety of the canal.

A STORY OF ACCUMULATED FAT

PART OF SPINE CUT AWAY

MUSCLES DEVELOPED TO SUPPORT HEAD

To you who desire to Reduce or increase Your weight, and accomplish it without diet or Gymnastics, and at the same time build up your general health—if you will call upon me or address Milton H. Berry at 401 Merritt Bldg., Eighth & Broadway, I will furnish you with positive evidence which will surely convince you of my unusual ability.

Prominent Physicians and laymen of the East where I was formerly located testify to the many remarkable results which I have obtained through my teachings. The following case is only one of many difficult cases handled in my twenty years' experience.

There are, no doubt, people living in Southern California who at one time lived in Grinnell, Iowa, and who will recall to mind this case. A high-school athlete, nineteen years of age, in pole-vaulting, fell and struck the back of his neck upon a stone. This fractured and splintered the spine, paralyzing the whole body, from the neck down. The boy was rushed to the Augustina Hospital, Chicago, where Doctor A. J. Oschner removed the first and second Dorsal Vertebrae. (While the removing of these two vertebrae saved this young man's life, it left him in a lying position, in which he seemed doomed to remain the rest of his days. For the removal of these two vertebrae took away the support that was necessary for the head to rest upon.)

Fatty Tissue Removed Developed Muscles Support Head

When this young man was placed under my teachings, rolls upon rolls of fatty tissue had accumulated because he had been in a lying position for almost a year.

As the muscles of the neck, shoulders and back were developed the fat disappeared—Within nine months this young man whom well known surgeons has said was doomed to remain in a lying position the rest of his life, was able to go about with his head supported by abnormally developed muscles.

This is another illustration of what can be done in the way of developing muscles. No person needs to be weak and thin, nor need they to be covered with fatty tissue, for actively developed muscles displace fatty tissue, add physical power and attractiveness to one's appearance. It matters not what part of the body is undeveloped. The muscles will respond more readily in a well person than they will in one that has been ill and emaciated.

Corrective Methods of Physical Education, as I teach it, is worked out upon scientific principles with the full knowledge of anatomy, understanding thoroughly the relationship between the nervous system and the muscular system. I am equipped to teach you in an intelligent manner so that you can get the best results.

NOTE—The name of the above case and many similar cases will be given to anyone interested. Those desiring to consult Mr. Berry can do so by calling at his office, 401 Merritt Building, Eighth and Broadway.

ARIZONA POLITICIANS PLACED UNDER ARREST

CHARGES OF BRIBERY AND KIDNAPING GROW OUT OF LAND LEASING BILL.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Oct. 12.—Elmer Coker, a prominent Pima county Democrat, and James Murphy, a local politician, formerly a deputy Sheriff, were arrested here last night. They were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Charles D. Wheeler on a charge of conspiracy and liberated on $2500 bail to appear for hearing Saturday.

The complainant was Edward O'Brien Mann, who charges that they offered him a bribe of $10,000 if he would not file a referendum petition relating to the land leasing bill over which is one of the main political divisions.

Mann also filed complaints against Coker, one Judge McCall and a Joe Doe, charging kidnaping. Coker has been arraigned on both charges and has demanded an immediate hearing, which probably will be Saturday.

Mann claims that two years ago he was approached by Coker, McCall and Murphy and that when he declined to fail to file the petitions he was captured while on the way to the Capitol and carried to the eastern party of the city, where he jumped from the auto and escaped. He claims to have been so injured that he was compelled to lie in bed for two weeks. Mann is about 60 years old.

He told his story at that time, but nothing was done.

WASHMEN HEAR TALK ON PLEASING PATRONS.

LAUNDERERS PLAN NEWSPAPER CAMPAIGN OF PUBLICITY EDUCATION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.— Delegates to the convention of the Laundry Owners National Association listened today to addresses on pleasing the patrons of wet wash, by F. C. Small of South Boston, and "Our Flexible Family Wash System," by J. H. Ryan of Kalamazoo, Mich. A report of the Chicago conference concerning family laundry service was also heard.

The biggest laundry in Los Angeles has cut down its losses to the individual customer to one and one half pieces a year through the standardization of its various systems, L. F. Caswell of that city told the convention.

"Where the housewife uses one gallon of water, the laundry uses four," he said. "The fear that laundries use chemicals in washing is not particularly well founded and no housewife need keep her clothes from the laundry on this account."

The convention adopted a policy of favoring advertising and publicity in newspapers. The policy calls for "community advertising" or the projecting of laundry service as a whole rather than the merits of any particular laundry.

YOUNG MERCHANT DIES.

Funeral Tomorrow for Proprietor of Tailoring Company.

Funeral services for Otto H. Wyckoff, 27 years old, proprietor of the Wyckoff & Lavine Tailoring Company, who died of appendicitis early yesterday, will be held tomorrow at 3 p.m. at Bresee Brothers' chapel. Interment will be at Forest Lawn Mausoleum.

Mr. Wyckoff, who was born in Queen City, Mo., came to Los Angeles seventeen years ago and has been one of the successful young business men of the city. He was a member of the Chamber of Commerce, the Tailors' Exchange, the Los Angeles Advertising Club and other civic organizations. As a member of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association he also displayed active interest.

He leaves a widow, a 3-year-old son and a mother, Dr. Grace Wyckoff.

Y.M.C.A. OFFERS MANY NEW COURSES.

Night courses in salesmanship and advertising will open at the Y.M.C.A. schools tonight and tomorrow nights. In the former study, John W. Hamilton of Pasadena will make the opening address and act as instructor for the course of twelve nights. Marc C. Goodnow of the University of Southern California department of journalism will direct the course, covering a period of twenty lessons. A public speaking course has just been opened in the Y.M.C.A. schools and enrollments will be accepted during the present week, it is announced. The Emerson Institute of Efficiency will open its course in efficiency and industrial management at the Y.M.C.A., October 27, with Clayton R. Rogers, efficiency engineer, in charge.

HURDS AND HOME.

Ex-Senator and Wife Return from Vacation.

Former Senator and Mrs. Henry M. Hurd, the latter formerly Mrs. Mary E. Stoddard, returned yesterday from their vacation, spent this year at Placerville, the birthplace of Mrs. Hurd. While there they purchased an old homestead built in 1851, tore it down themselves and will utilize the lumber in a summer cottage they will build at Sugar Pine Crest. Mrs. Hurd, who is well known for her work in connection with the Florence Crittenton Home and other child and girl welfare movements, addressed a meeting of the Placerville Shakespeare Club during her stay in the north and gave material assistance toward its building project.

FRANCE AGREES TO HOLD FINANCIAL MEET.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Oct. 12.—France, replying to the recent note from Earl Curson of Kedleton, British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, suggesting a financial conference, has proposed that such a conference be held at Brussels, according to the Petit Parisien.

She has stipulated, it is said, that all the Allied representatives should be members of the reparation commission and that the two German delegates be excluded from the meeting.

STATE CONVENTION IN SACRAMENTO OPENS; CANDIDATES ARE NAMED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 12.—Flag-raising ceremonies at Camp Walter, the camp of Patriarchs Militant, opposite the State Capitol grounds, formally opened the sixty-sixth annual convention of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in California. Business sessions were held today behind closed doors.

An announcement said nominations were made as follows for State office: R. A. Ranous, Taft, Grand Patriarch; C. E. Hartwell, Vallejo, Grand High Priest; R. C. Black, Chico, Grand Senior Warden; George F. Hunt, McCloud, Grand Representative, two-year term; William H. Barnes, San Francisco, Grand Scribe; Charles Benedict, San Francisco, Treasurer; W. B. DeCosta, Sacramento, Grand Junior Warden.

Admiral Bryan to Attend Chile Celebration.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Rear-Admiral Henry F. Bryan, who raised his flag today as commander of the special service squadron for duty in Latin-American waters, will represent the American Navy at the celebration to be held at Valparaiso, Chile, in commemoration of the discovery of the Straits of Magellan.

Admiral Bryan's flagship, the Dolphin, and the cruiser Des Moines will sail in a day or two for Chilean waters.

Some consideration had been given to sending a battleship to represent the Navy at the celebration. This led to a recent report that the superdreadnaught Mississippi, attached to the Pacific Fleet, had been ordered to Chile. It was said at the Navy Department, however, that, because of the fuel situation, it had been decided to send two light cruisers.

MACK DOESN'T KNOW IF HE IS MARRIED.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 12. — Willard Mack, the actor, when asked today if he was married replied: "I don't know. I haven't seen the evening papers yet."

In a curtain-call speech at the theater where he is appearing Mack made a brief speech in which he thanked the audience and asked them to forgive him for any personal allusions he might have made during the act.

Mack already has been married three times. It is rumored he will marry Miss Castleton, his sketch partner.

Burden Put on German States.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The German Cabinet today decided unanimously on a program for reduction of the Reichstags expenditure, putting the burden on the individual states within the confederation, says a Berlin dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph today.

The KURTZMANN

The reputation for dependable quality established by the Kurtzmann piano seventy-one years ago has been maintained for three generations. Right here in Los Angeles there are more than 2500 Kurtzmann pianos, in homes, schools and colleges, that are giving universally satisfactory service. Every day new Kurtzmann users are added to this list. The Long Beach city schools and Compton High School are recent purchasers of Kurtzmann pianos.

We are displaying this famous piano in both upright and grand models, selling them on liberal terms.

The KURTZMANN-AEOLIAN Player Piano

embodies two of the most important units in the musical world—the Kurtzmann piano and the player action made by the great Aeolian Co., makers of the renowned Duo-Art Reproducing Piano and the Pianola.

To own a Kurtzmann-Aeolian is to possess an instrument that is always dependable and pleasure-giving.

They are priced as low as $975 and sold on convenient terms.

Stratford Clothes

Take a lesson in clothes buying

SEE for yourself that style is not the only glory of Stratford Clothes. Just drop into our store for a few minutes some day this week. You won't be urged to buy or obligated to spend a penny—but you will learn how to judge a suit of clothes!

We'll show you some vast differences between Stratford tailoring and the ordinary. We'll do more than touch upon fabric and sewing. We'll go into the Stratford method of inner construction.

You'll observe that Stratford sacks have no linings to crack, rip and wear out. None to twist the coat out of shape. You'll note that the fabric of the suit itself is used as the inside trim, with seams beautifully satin-piped. You'll see, too, that Stratford trousers are double-crotched to give double strength and wear.

You'll mark many other excellencies that will show you wherein real value lies in a suit of clothes.

Government Starts Investigation in Chicago.

National Ring of Whisky Dealers is Involved.

Report Confessions Implicating Prominent Men.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Government investigation of the activities of a ring of whisky dealers operating on a national scale has been begun as the result of confessions obtained from several Chicago saloon-keepers, it was declared by Federal agents today.

The confessions are said to have implicated officials of several distilling companies and politicians in various parts of the country and to have revealed plans to make Chicago the center of their proposed scheme.

According to Federal agents, H. A. Sadler, a former New York stock broker, is said to have declared that he paid $45,000 to a Chicago politician, who has been employed as a deputy United States revenue agent in the office of Collector Mager, to secure influence in the issuance of forged Federal permits under which whisky running in Chicago has been carried on.

TO SEEK INDICTMENTS.

The indictment of at least a score of persons on charges of conspiracy to violate the prohibition amendment will be asked this week of the Federal grand jury, it was stated at the Federal Building. To this grand jury will be presented names of wholesale whisky dealers, numerous Federal employees as well as go-betweens, politicians and others.

GETS PERMIT.

According to Federal agents, Sadler declared that he was asked by a restaurant man in New York why he did not get into the whisky business. This man told him, he said, that he could get a permit if he went to the offices of certain insurance brokers. He said he followed this advice and paid $500 for a bond for a permit and an additional $1000 after he made his first liquor deal, which netted him $10,000. Then, he said, he transferred his operations to Chicago because he heard that the price of whisky was higher in Chicago and that bigger deals could be made here.

CLOSE TO A MILLION.

The information placed at the disposal of the Federal authorities by Sadler is said to have disclosed that the bootlegging already carried on in Chicago by the whisky ring has been so extensive as to have netted those engaged in the operation close to $1,000,000.

It was also disclosed, it was said, that those engaged in the traffic had not found it necessary to forge permits for the removal of liquor, but had been able to obtain bona-fide ones, and also later to remove all incriminating records from the offices of the prohibition officials through the corruption of officials intrusted with the task of suppressing the sale of liquor.

WOMAN A PAWN.

One woman employed in one of the government offices in Washington was said to have been named as a pawn in the hands of the whisky ring.

The disclosures regarding the Chicago operations of the ring are said to have resulted from the seizure here on August 24 of a shipment of 1060 cases of whisky, of a 1200-case shipment addressed to H. A. Sadler, in care of the American Distilling Company. The liquor was shipped from Louisville and its seizure was followed by the arrest of Sadler, who was later released on bonds.

After Sadler's arrest here he is said to have proceeded to New York and given information to the authorities there relative to the operations of eastern distillers. He is said to have declared that outlaw liquor valued at millions of dollars was shipped from New York, Pittsburg and Louisville into Chicago.

ANNEXATION VOTE SOON

Burbank Picks November Date for Poll on Joining Los Angeles.

The city of Burbank has called a special election for Tuesday, November 14, for the purpose of submitting to the voters of that community the proposition for consolidation with the city of Los Angeles. Official notice of the election was published this week in the Burbank Review.

J. W. Fawkes and William Cochran, two of the leading figures in the campaign for annexation, were in the city yesterday conferring with Chief Engineer Mulholland of the Los Angeles Aqueduct and Gordon Whitnall of the Consolidation Commission. Mr. Fawkes reports that the campaign is progressing nicely and that no great amount of opposition to the proposition is being evidenced.

THREE ACCIDENTS ON GLENDALE'S STREETS.

FOUR PERSONS INJURED, NONE SERIOUSLY, IN SERIES OF MOTOR MISHAPS.

Three accidents, all without serious results, marked yesterday's automobile activity in Glendale.

Miss Elma Miess, North Central avenue, Glendale, was driving on the San Fernando road, near Forest Lawn Cemetery, when she was stopped by a blowout. Help from a garage had arrived and the mechanic was engaged in replacing the tire when a car belonging to Mrs. D. B. Chapin of Riverside ran into the rear of the standing machine. The mechanic was thrown to his face on the roadway, a young man, driving the Riverside car, was injured by falling onto his steering wheel and Mrs. Chapin's face was cut by glass from the windshield. All were treated at Glendale Sanatorium.

A collision which damaged two machines and slightly injured the occupants of both cars happened at Brand Boulevard and Colorado street when the automobiles of George Mills of Hollywood and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Los Angeles came together with great force. Mrs. Francis Lagros, mother of Mrs. Wilson, and who was with her at the time of the accident, was severely shaken up and was taken to the sanatorium for treatment.

Mrs. A. R. McDonald, who lives at the Auditorium Hotel, Los Angeles, lost control of a new sedan car she was driving and steered the machine over the curbing on Brand Boulevard, near Broadway. Aside from the nervous shock caused by fright, and slight damage to the car, no harm was done.

VISITORS TO INSPECT SHIPS CABRILLO DAY.

VESSELS OF FLEET WILD BE OPEN TO PUBLIC DURING HARBOR CELEBRATION.

Southern Californians will be asked to inspect the warships of their own fleet as a part of the Cabrillo Day celebration at Los Angeles Harbor Saturday.

The mighty floating forts of the Pacific armada will be open to visitors during a large part of the day and Navy tenders will ply between the wharf and the boats, carrying visitors free of charge.

Admiral Rodman, commanding the Pacific Fleet, will be in direct personal charge of the naval events which will be features of the day. These include a formal review of the 4000 men and officers of the fleet, who will pass in review for the first time since the arrival of the fleet in Pacific waters.

Among the distinguished guests who will review the sailors are Senator Phelan, Congressman Osborne, Mayor Snyder, Mayor Lisenby of Long Beach, Maj. Tidball, commanding Fort MacArthur, and others.

The stage is completely set for the biggest event in San Pedro's history. Dress rehearsals have proved the historical pageant to be perfect in presentation and every arrangement has been made by J. M. Cannon, general chairman of the Cabrillo Day celebration, for the comfort and entertainment of the thousands who will visit the harbor district Saturday.

The historical pageant, depicting the landing here in 1542 of Cabrillo, is to be presented under the direction of Garnet Holme.

I. G. Lewis, secretary of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, is concluding arrangements for the official dinner to be given at the foot of First street at 6:30 p.m. Saturday for 400 invited guests.

Birdsall Here to Face Charge Made by Bride's Mother.

Maj. Alfred W. Birdsall, veteran of the campaign in France, spent a few hours in the County Jail yesterday, after being brought back from San Francisco, where he was arrested on a charge of defrauding his mother-in-law, Mrs. Kate Neville of Waco, Tex., out of $9250. He was released on bonds of $5000, furnished in the court of Justice Underwood of Long Beach.

Maj. Birdsall was arrested in the northern city upon telegraphic information from the police at Long Beach, where the mother-in-law swore to a warrant for his arrest. He was reported to have been with his bride, formerly Miss Mary Neville, in the lobby of the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, when taken into custody.

AUSTRIANS IN VOTES BATTLE.

Restoration of Hapsburgs Aim, Say Democrats.

Agitation for Union With Germany Goes On.

France Gets Blame for Preventing This Merger.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

VIENNA, Oct. 12.—The Social Democratic party of Austria, numerically the largest in the Austrian Parliament, charges in an appeal its leaders have issued asking for votes in the election for the National Assembly on October 17 that the counter-revolutionaries have been victorious in Hungary and that their lynchings and guillotines are preparing the way for restoration in that country of the rule of the Hapsburgs. This is the line of which the late Emperor Franz Josef and his son Carl were descendants.

"Carl Hapsburg has broken his word and refused to resign the Austrian throne," the Socialists aver. "He is to be made King of Hungary in Budapest, and from there he is to bring German Austria into subjection. The blood of our peasants and our workers is again to be placed in the service of the Hungarian feudal lords, who are arming for war to reconquer Slovakia, Siebenbuergen and the Banat."

The Socialists then charge that the Kunschak-Funder group of the Christian Socialist party in Austria is the tool of the Hungarian monarchists.

UNION WITH GERMANY.

This appeal and other campaign literature, not only of the Socialist groups, but the Conservatives as well, cleverly continues the agitation for union with Germany.

"From the day of our breakdown," it says, "we Social Democrats have said German Austria alone cannot be a living state. Economic misery will be our lot so long as union with Germany does not free us."

It blames France for preventing this end, but declares that the history of the Czechs, the Poles and Jugo-Slavs proves that a people finally achieves its own right of self-determination in spite of all opposition and all obstacles if only it remains firm in its desire.

The Social Democrats put forward as their issues the reforms they have advocated since the formation of the republic, and which they assert have been defeated by the combined bourgeois opposition.

REFORMS WANTED.

In the main these are suppression of the power of the clericals, taxation of capital and great estates, age and invalid insurance, school reforms, including separation of schools and church, adequate pay for public servants and similar measures.

To this end it demands the socialization of great industries, mines, vast realty holdings and banking so that their earnings, instead of enriching private persons, may give to the state the means of fulfilling its social and cultural tasks.

The Christian Socialists are charged with obstructing this program so long that the control of many valuable natural sources of wealth, such as the iron mines of Styria and Carinthia, has passed to Italy and now foreign protests make impossible the full realization of the socialization scheme.

Blood-Iron Phosphate Makes you Stronger

Most weak, thin, nervous, run-down folks owe their condition to weak nerves and a lack of red blood cells. Blood-Iron Phosphate by strengthening the nerves and increasing the red blood cells helps to quickly overcome those troubles, such as thinness, anemia, neurasthenia, sleeplessness and physical weakness due to or accompanied by impoverished blood and weak nerves. Blood-Iron Phosphate costs only $1.50 for a three weeks' treatment and is so genuinely good that the Owl Drug Co., or any other druggist of whom you buy it, is authorized to refund the full price to you if you are dissatisfied. Better get Blood-Iron Phosphate and begin its use today.—[Advertisement.

COTTON SITUATION ALARMS

Governors Acting Against Night Riders; Texas Gin Burned; Others Close.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WACO (Tex.) Oct. 12.—The Gibson cotton gin at Branchville was destroyed by fire Monday night, according to reports received today. The loss was estimated at $12,000.

WARNINGS POSTED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

FORT SMITH (Ark.) Oct. 12. — Two cotton gins at Lavaca, Ark., near here, tonight were found to have been posted with warnings. Armed guards were placed about the gins. The ginners will meet with farmers tomorrow to consider what action they shall take.

GINS ARE CLOSED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NASHVILLE, Oct. 12.—Several cotton gins in Morgan county, Alabama, are reported to have closed after receiving warnings from night riders, according to the Albany correspondent of the Banner.

GOVERNORS ACT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ATLANTA (Ga.) Oct. 12. — The shooting to death yesterday of a negro guard at a cotton gin in Arkansas, numerous fires of undetermined origin, in which cotton has been destroyed, and widespread threats of night riders to burn gins whose owners ignore warnings to discontinue operations until staple reaches a price of 40 cents a pound, have resulted in the issuance of proclamations by Govs. Brough of Arkansas and Kilby of Alabama and statements of their position by Govs. Dorsey of Georgia and Cooper of South Carolina.

Gov. Brough, upon being advised last night of the shooting of Nora Canada in Lonoko county, issued a proclamation citing the killing and lawlessness in some of the counties growing out of the prevailing low price of cotton. The Governor called upon the State Adjutant-General and sheriffs of counties where there are likely to be disturbances to use all power at their command to suppress the night-riding outrages. Posts of the American Legion also were urged to co-operate with the authorities.

Gov. Kilby of Alabama offered a $250 reward for conviction of any person for destruction of property.

Gov. Dorsey of Georgia stated he would offer the highest possible reward in any case of actual destruction of property.

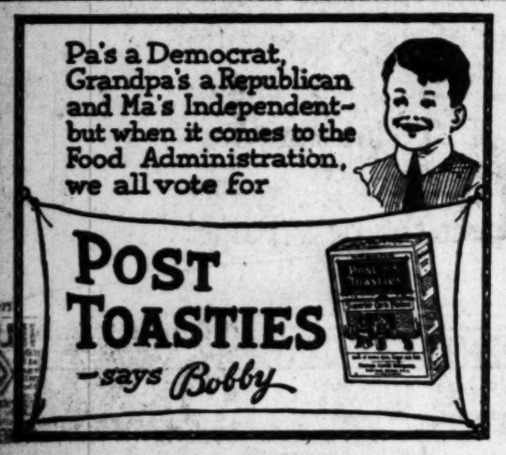
A statement deploring the acts of fanatics was issued by Gov. Cooper of South Carolina.

BURLESON MUST LET "CALL" USE THE MAILS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Justice Hitz, in the District Supreme Court, reaffirmed his order directing Postmaster-General Burleson to restore the mailing privilege to the New York Call, a Socialist newspaper.

The court overruled a motion for rehearing of the case and held that the Postoffice Department had no authority to refuse the mailing privilege to future issues of the paper because in former issues there had appeared alleged seditious matter.



JOHNSON AGREES WITH HARDING ON LEAGUE.

CALIFORNIA SENATOR ARRIVES IN CHICAGO TO BEGIN SPEAKING TOUR.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 12. — Senator Johnson of California, who arrived in Chicago today, announced that he saw nothing to cavil about in Senator Harding's latest explanation of his attitude on the League of Nations, in which he reiterated that he favored a world association.

"The great issue today," said Senator Johnson, "is 'the' League of Nations. Senator Harding says he has scrapped that League. His statement yesterday simply related that he favors a world association to discourage war and encourage peace. No thinking man or woman in the world can be opposed to some plan for preventing war."

Speeches have been arranged for Senator Johnson at Toledo, O., on Wednesday of this week, Cleveland on Thursday, Milwaukee Friday and Chicago Saturday.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Francis J. Heney of California, former Progressive now campaigning for Cox and Roosevelt and the League of Nations, will follow Senator Johnson, California, on his Republican speaking tour, Democratic national headquarters announced today. Heney will speak wherever Johnson does, a day or two later.

PRESIDENT AND WIFE ALREADY REGISTERED

EXPECTED THAT EXECUTIVE AND MRS. WILSON WILD VOTE BY MAIL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

TRENTON (N. J.) Oct. 12.—Mayor Charles Browne of Princeton, Democratic candidate for Congress in this district, stated today that President Wilson has already been registered and Mrs. Wilson is being registered this afternoon by affidavit.

It is expected that Mrs. Wilson, like the President, will cast her first ballot by mail. Mrs. Wilson's affidavit was received today. In it she stated she had never voted before. She gave her legal residence as Princeton.

BULL RING TOO MUCH FOR POSTAL DELEGATES.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

MADRID, Oct. 11.—The scenes of the Spanish bull ring were too harrowing for a section of the foreign delegates to the International Postal Congress, in session here, which attended the regular Sunday bull fights yesterday. Many of them found themselves obliged to leave before the fights were concluded.

Lives to See the Prescription He Wrote in 1892 the Worlds Most Popular Laxative Remedy

DR. W. B. CALDWELL TODAY
Born Shelbyville, Mo., March 27, 1839
Began the manufacture of his famous prescription in 1869

Founder of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, long past Biblical old age, but hale and hearty—Still sees patients daily—Wonderful achievement of a "country doctor."

WHEN I started to practice medicine, back in 1875, there were no pills or tablets or salt waters for the relief of constipation, and no artificial remedies made from coal tar.

The prescription for constipation that I used early in my practice, and which I put in drug stores in 1892 under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a liquid remedy, and I have never had reason to change it. I intended it for women, children and elderly people, and these need just such a mild, safe, gentle bowel stimulant as Syrup Pepsin.

I am gratified to say that under successful management my prescription has proven its worth and is now the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. The fact that over eight million bottles were sold by druggists last year proves that it has won the confidence of mothers whose chief interest is the health of their children.

It is particularly pleasing to me to know that the biggest half of those eight million bottles were bought by mothers for themselves and the children, though Syrup Pepsin is just as valuable for grownups. The price of a bottle holding 50 average treatments is sixty cents; such a bottle will last a family several months.

I have never made a secret of what is in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a compound of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics. These ingredients are endorsed in the U. S. Pharmacopoeia. I consider Syrup Pepsin today in the serious 82nd year of my age, as I did in 1892, the best remedy a family can have in the house for the safe relief of constipation and its accompanying ills, such as headaches, biliousness, flatulence, indigestion, loss of appetite and sleep, bad breath, dyspepsia, colds and fevers.

Millions of families are now never without Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and I believe if you will once start using it you will also always have a bottle handy for emergencies.

TRY IT FREE Send me your name and address and I will send you a free trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address me Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 513 Washington Street, Monticello, Illinois. Everybody now and then needs a laxative, and it is well to know the best. Write me today.

A safety razor and stropping device combined in one

NO shaving edge, whether it is a barber's straight razor or a safety razor blade, can keep its original keenness for more than one or two shaves without stropping.

Stropping—that's the real secret of shaving comfort.

You can be sure of a fine, keen edge for every shave if you use the AutoStrop Razor—the razor that sharpens its own blades.

Built right into the frame of the AutoStrop Razor is a remarkable self-stropping device—simple and efficient—which renews the fine, keen edge of the AutoStrop blade day after day.

You don't have to take the razor apart nor remove the blade. Just slip the strop through the razor head, and move the razor back and forth along the strop.

In 10 seconds you have a new, sharp shaving edge!

500 cool, comfortable shaves are guaranteed from every dozen blades!

Ask your dealer today about the AutoStrop Razor trial plan.

Auto-Strop Razor

NEW TUNNEL UNDER HUDSON.

Work Begins on Tube for Vehicular Traffic.

Structure to Join New York and Jersey City.

Built by Both States at Cost of $29,000,000.

[BY J. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Construction of a vehicular tunnel under the Hudson River between New York and Jersey City started today with the breaking of ground for one of the tube's big airshafts. State, county and municipal officials from both States participated in the ceremonies in Manhattan this afternoon.

Engineers expect to complete the structure by 1924. The cost, estimated at $29,000,000, is to be borne equally by the two States. Shore works, including shafts and approaches, will require eighteen months to construct, after which actual work of boring under the river is to begin.

CONTINUED CONGESTION.

Continued congestion at the ferries between New York and New Jersey prompts the belief of tunnel engineers that 5,600,000 motor and horse-drawn conveyances will use the tube in 1924, with traffic showing a steady increase, reaching an annual figure of 22,000,000 vehicles by 1943. Tolls based on the ferry rates will be levied for twenty years to pay for the tube, and then it will be free for the use of all.

Four driveways, two in each direction, will be provided. A sidewalk two feet in width also is planned. The tunnel, comprising twin cast-iron tubes, each with an external diameter of twenty-nine feet, will be six feet wider than the Pennsylvania Railroad tubes under the Hudson East rivers.

TRAFFIC BLOCKADES.

Traffic blockades, now common on ferries, would be precluded by providing at each end of the tube derrick-equipped trucks to take stalled automobiles in tow. Three driveways in each direction will be furnished on the approaches, because slight inclines there are expected to slow down the movement of the vehicular queues.

Ventilation to rid the tunnel of carbon monoxide gases from automobile exhausts will be furnished by four large shafts and also by an air duct under the roadway and an exhaust above. Smoky vehicles circulate poisonous gas freely in closed places, but chemists working on the tunnel ventilation system estimate that at the highest point of saturation there will be only 2½ parts of carbon monoxide to 10,000 parts of air in the tube. It requires eight parts of the gas to 10,000 parts of air, they figured, to give a man a headache.

ESCAPED PRISONERS ARE CAUGHT IN BAY.

ALCATRAZ CONVICTS ARE CAPTURED AFTER ALL-NIGHT SEARCH.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—Nearly senseless from submersion and exposure, C. H. Roberts, J. J. Howington and R. E. Hanna, prisoners at the Alcatraz Island military disciplinary barracks, who escaped on an improvised raft early last night, were picked up at 5 a.m. tday off Yerba Buena or Goat Island by the ferry steamer Oakland. The raft on which the men had been floating around the bay all night broke up as soon as they were taken from it.

The men were taken to an emergency hospital here, where their condition was pronounced not serious. It was expected that they would be taken back to Alcatraz Island later in the day.

According to the records of the barracks, Hanna was serving ten years for desertion. The two others had but a month of their sentences to serve.

The men used a fine-tooth steel saw to effect their escape from the cell house on the island, according to officials there. The San Francisco police boat and government craft hunted for them for half the night without finding a trace of them.

FIRE HALF DESTROYS THE TOWN OF LOWELL.

ARIZONA CITY VISITED BY $250,000 CONFLAGRATION; NO FATALITIES

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

BISBEE (Ariz.) Oct. 12.—The town of Lowell, Ariz., Bisbee suburb, today is seeking to bring order out of the chaos caused by a disastrous fire which last night destroyed half of the town, sweeping through a dozen or more business places and causing a loss which Fire Chief Wilson estimated at $250,000.

The fire started in a smoke house of the Tovrea Packing Company and swept down the north side of Main Street and up to the municipal market on the Naco Road. When it reached the Bisbee Lumber Company, the flames formed the vortex of a veritable volcano the ferocity of which was increased by explosions of gasoline tanks.

Merchants threw their entire stock into the streets before the path of the fire and police were forced to use desperate means to check the vandals who ransacked the piles of merchandise in the half darkness. A number of arrest were made.

There were no fatalities reported.

PRESIDENT TO CALL MINERS' CONFERENCE.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—President Wilson today notified representatives of anthracite miners that he would request a joint meeting of operators and miners to be held at Scranton, Pa., October 18, for the purpose of adjusting any inequalities in the recent wage award.

The President in his message congratulated the miners for their promptness in complying with the award of the anthracite commission.

The miners' leaders had informed the President that the men had returned to work, but asked that a joint conference for the purpose of adjusting inequalities in the present agreement be called.

RADICALS DENOUNCED BY GRAIN DEALERS.

ATTEMPT OF FARMERS TO CONTROL PRICES SEVERELY DISAPPROVED.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 12.—Efforts of radical farmers' organizations to control prices by creating co-operative associations, which they said were seeking to disregard the laws of world supply and demand, were denounced today by the legislative committee of the Grain Dealers' National Association. The association is in annual convention here.

The association was urged by the committee to seek to allay unrest and discontent among farming elements and to dignify the farming business by obtaining recognition of its importance.

DEATH SENTENCE IS DECLARED INVALID.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

LINCOLN (Neb.) Oct. 12.—Federal Judge J. W. Woodrough today declared the death sentence imposed upon Alsen B. Cole was invalid and remanded the prisoner back to the Howard county district court for a new trail. Judge Woodrough held that there has been no judicial determination of the degree of the crime.

Cole was under sentence to die in the electric chair November 5 for complicity in the murder of Mrs. Lulu Vogt in Howard county in July, 1917.

BLIMP BROUGHT FROM FRANCE MAKES TRIP.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The Army dirigible Zodiac, an airship purchased from the French government, flew from Langley Field, Va., to Washington and back Monday, the War Department announced today, taking moving pictures during the flight and traveling 159 miles.

Capt. Dale Mabry of the air service and a full crew manned the ship during the flight.

BANKS IN COLORADO ENTERED BY THIEVES.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

DEER TRAIL, (Colo.) Oct. 12.—The Deer Trail State Bank and the First National Bank of this place were entered by robbers some time last night and several thousand dollars in cash and securities were taken. Officials believe the loss may mount as high as $75,000.

In both banks the safes were blown open, after which the safety deposit boxes were forced.

What is the best type of investment for wage-earners or professional men?

Financial authorities agree that doctors, lawyers, architects, engineers, the salaried classes, and even successful business men should stick to ironclad, no-chance-to-lose investments exclusively.

The average man in the above classes is so immersed in his own line of work that he has no time to watch or supervise other enterprises that promise large returns.

Fidelity 6's are an ideal form of investment because they provide everything you desire—absolute safety, substantial earning power and availability of your money upon reasonable demand.

Fidelity Full Paid Six Per Cent Certificates are offered by California's largest building and loan association—in business (continuously under one management) for more than a quarter of a century—an institution that has accumulated resources of over $10,000,000.00 without the aid of advertising—a success founded upon right methods and the good will of its patrons and shareholders.

Follow the lead of America's wealthiest men—invest where your money is secured by tangible, immovable real estate.

Fidelity's 6's are convenient and worry-proof. You may pay $100 or any multiple thereof, in a lump sum—or $1 or more a month on our installment plan.

Clip your 6% dividend-coupons twice yearly in the first instance, or let your interest accumulate (and be compounded) in the second instance—and if, for example, you pay $50 a month you will take out $10,000 in 139 months—$3050 more than the $6950 you pay in—better than seven per cent simple interest.

Don't hesitate to call and ask questions. We want you to know.

SAYS HOME LIFE IS A FAILURE.

Minister Holds It Responsible for Social Unrest.

Tokio Convention is Told Church Has Done Its Part.

Asserts Decadence of Family Worship One Cause.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

TOKIO, Oct. 12.—Failure of home life and not the failure of the church was held to be responsible for the "social unrest, the sin and crime and shame that abounds on every hand," by the Rev. W. E. Biederwolf, D.D., of Chicago in an address before the World's Sunday-school Congress here tonight.

The speaker charged that "25 per cent of the ministers of America do not themselves maintain family worship in their own homes."

DEPLORABLE LEGACY.

"A wise teacher of ancient times said: 'Give me a single domestic grace and I will turn it into a hundred public virtues.'" declared Dr. Biederwolf, "and I wonder, if we were to attempt to write the story of the deplorable legacy to which we have fallen heir if it would not be to tell the history of fallen altars and desecrated shrines and, to no little extent, of an apostate clergy. A missionary, who had been absent from America for twenty-five years, said when he came back on a furlough: 'When I went away almost every Christian home had its family altar; now I find it is the exception and not the rule.'"

THE CAUSES.

The causes for the decadence of family worship were set forth by the speaker as follows:

"(1.) The quickening of a man's natural tendency to skepticism, so largely induced in this day by subtle and sometimes open attack on the fundamentals of his faith in press, in university and not unfrequently in pulpit. The first point at which spiritual decay manifests itself is invariably in the neglect of family worship, if indeed it even so much as held a place in the life of the home.

"(2.) The nervous, feverish rush of modern life as evidenced by the inordinate absorption in material interests. Modern life is a dash through a crowd. A man hardly has time to stop and tie his shoestring. It is a race to keep pace with steam and electricity.

"(3.) The disruption of the family union." The latter was caused, said Dr. Biederwolf, "first, by the prevailing method of education which practically removes boys and girls from immediate and continuous parental influence in spiritual things for a period running between the ages of 7 and 21, and second, by the excessive pursuit of pleasure.

MUST SUFFER.

"Legitimate as this desire is, when all one's pleasures are found outside the home circle the family life from the standpoint just now under consideration must consequently suffer," he concluded.

Other speakers at the congress were the Rev. John T. Faris, D.D., of Philadelphia, who discussed possible co-operation between secular and religious educational agencies, and the Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D.D., of Philadelphia, who spoke on the community as a social center and its responsibility in guiding the religious education of youth.

Pink Nighties and Jewels in Loot of Homes.

Valuable clews were yesterday uncovered in connection with a number of robberies of the previous night. In two of the cases arrests are expected momentarily.

A burglar with a taste for beautiful lingerie robbed the home of Mrs. S. P. Morgan, 6857 Franklin avenue, and took a number of lacy garments belonging to Mrs. Morgan. Then he took from Mrs. R. W. Baker a pale pink silk nightie, some Teddy bears and a black fur neckpiece. Miss Myrtle M. Miles lost several pairs of hosettes, which, say members of the police department, are half hose worn by young ladies.

The home of W. L. Harvey was entered at 1854 Canyon Drive and silverware and jewels valued at $4500 were taken.

The jewelry establishment of F. H. Yamamoto at 509 East First street was robbed of a number of articles when burglars led by a woman broke a plate glass window in the front of the building.

WILL BURY VICTIM OF RUSTY GUN TOMORROW.

HOLLYWOOD HIGH SCHOOL LAD KILLED WHILE EXAMINING GAIN FROM TRADE.

The funeral services for Edward Holbit, 15-year-old Hollywood High School boy who accidentally shot himself through the head in his room at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Alvin Holbit of 7529 Franklin street, will be held tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock in the chapel of Gates, Crane & Earl, 1734 Highland avenue. Burial will be at Forest Lawn Cemetery.

According to the family, they had retired and the boy was in his room about 9 o'clock Monday evening when a shot was heard. His mother, father and his younger sister, Faith, rushed to the boy's room and found him lying on the floor with a gaping wound in the forehead. They called Dr. George T. Boyd, but Edward was dead before the physician arrived.

The sister stated that Edward had secured the rusty revolver in exchange for some articles from one of his high school classmates. It is presumed that he was examining the revolver at the time of the accident and did not know that it was loaded. There was no trigger on the weapon.

Barber Gives Recipe for Gray Hair

Mr. A. E. O'Brien, who has been a barber in New York City for many years, made the following statement: "Gray, streaked or faded hair can be immediately made black, brown or light brown, whichever shade you desire, by the use of the following remedy that you can make at home:

"Merely get a box of Orlex powder at any drug-store. It costs very little and no extras to buy. Dissolve it in 2 oz. of distilled or rain water and comb it through the hair. Full directions for use and a gold bond guarantee come in each box. One box will last you for months.

"It is safe, does not rub off, is not sticky or gummy and leaves the hair fluffy. It will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger."—[Advertisement.

Your Mouth Is a Gate

"Life seems to be just one disease after another."
—Painless Parker.

Many diseases start from decayed and infected teeth. The mouth is a gate through which millions of germs enter the stomach. The teeth and mouth need constant care to maintain health. If you don't take time now to visit the dentist and have your teeth looked after, you will sooner or later have to take time to be sick.

It costs less to hire a dentist to fix your teeth than to hire a doctor after you get sick.

When you think of TEETH, think of PARKER.

Better Letters

AMERICAN LETTER CO.
W. R. MARSHALL PRES.

The American Letter Co., which occupies an extensive suite in the I. W. Hellman Building, enjoys a well-earned reputation for printing "Better letters." In fact, its "form letters" are so cleverly executed as to defy comparison with original typewriting.

W. R. Marshall, President and directing genius of this Company, makes a specialty of analyzing the business problems of his clients and furnishes a complete service in connection with "direct by mail" advertising campaigns.

As the business of the American Letter Co. is largely psychological, it was natural that effective and dignified office furnishings should be chosen in harmony with the environment. Equally natural was it that Weber furniture and Weber Service should be requisitioned to meet this Company's requirements.

The Weber Showcase & Fixture Co. will gladly give you the benefit of its experience in its application to your own office needs.

Fat That Shows Soon Disappears

Prominent fat that comes and stays where it is not needed is a burden; a hindrance to activity, and a curb upon pleasure. Many forms of advice to reduce weight have been advanced, such as dieting, hard work, excessive exercise, etc., all of which are either unpleasant or dangerous.

The latest, more modern and pleasant way to take off burdensome fat, is to take, after each meal and at bedtime, a Marmola Tablet. These little tablets are as effective and harmless as the famous Marmola Prescription from which they take their name.

To get rid of fat at the rate of two, three or four pounds a week, simply take one of these little tablets after each meal and at bedtime until you have reduced your weight to where you want it. No wrinkles or flabbiness will remain to show where the fat came off.

They are for sale by all druggists at $1 for a good size box. If you prefer to have them come to you direct by mail, prepaid, in plain sealed cover, send amount to the Marmola Co., 97 Garfield Building, Detroit, Mich., and bid goodbye to dieting, exercise and fat. Be yourself, slim, trim and attractive.

Owners Are Protected

IT is just as impossible now to get something for nothing as it was before the war.

There never was a time when car purchasers should be more careful than now; when values should be weighed more wisely and a car bought with an eye to its lasting quality and the stability of its builders.

Every day brings fresh evidence that people recognize the superior quality of Lexington. It is on this basis only that we do business.

WE will guarantee to all Lexington dealers and distributors, and through them their customers, the net amount of any price reduction, made on any model of Lexington cars, from August 2 to December 31, 1920.

The quality of Lexington cars will be maintained even if it requires raising the price. We will not cause nor permit Lexington owners, who have bought from our dealers, to lose confidence in this organization.

FRANK B. ANSTED,
Pres. Lexington Motor Car Company.

As a striking example of Lexington's development, more than 100 parts have been eliminated from the Unified, Non-rattle frame.

Then, there are the Equalizing Cable Foot-brake, the One-finger Emergency Brake, the 2-way Head Lamps, which give full light at all times without glare, and many other exclusive Lexington advantages which warrant you in becoming acquainted with the Lexington before you purchase.

For instance, economy—the exclusive Lexi-gasifier enables you to get more mileage and more power from present day low-grade fuel than was formerly possible with high-test gas.

Lexington is the only car with the Moore Mutliple Exhaust System, which makes a marvelous improvement in engine efficiency.

The Thorobred is a recognized leader that sets the style for sport cars. Its ship-shape appearance and its championship performance are possible only because ten great factories, specializing in motor car parts, are affiliated with Lexington in creating and building this remarkable car. Come in and see the Thorobred, or phone for demonstration.

BOOZE SMUGGLER ELUDES OFFICERS.

TAXI DRIVER MAKES WAY WITH CARGO OF VALUABLE JOY WATER.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA ANA, Oct. 12.—After a wild dash in a high-powered car said to be laden with a $20,000 booze cargo from Mexico, A. W. Thompson, Venice taxicab driver, is believed to have made good his escape out of Orange county today. At the San Diego county line Thompson and George Wood proprietor of the Venice Cafe were taken into custody by Federal Officers F. B. Jack and D. W. Brewster, who were watching for Chinese smugglers at El Toro.

Thompson said his oil pump was out of order and was allowed to drive to a garage for repairs. But he made a wild dash and escaped by way of Modjeska's resort and Santiago canyon.

His trail was lost at Olive by a posse of officers hurriedly summoned in pursuit. Sixty-five bottles of creme de menthe and a quantity of real beer, made in Mexico, is said to comprise part of the booze cargo with which Thompson escaped.

EX-SOLDIERS ELECT.

Members of the Ninety-first Division met last night at Walker's Auditorium Building and elected its officers. BY WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

A Presidential campaign is a trying test for any man, physically, mentally and temperamentally. If a man has weaknesses, it is likely to disclose them to the public before the long four months are at an end. He has to bear much injustice in partisan attacks. He is under guidance of managers on whose taste or judgment he cannot always safely rely. He cannot speak his own views on every subject, because he is the responsible champion of a party on platform of principles to which he is in a large measure limited and bound to conform. He must avoid declaration on irrelevant though interesting issues, which might prejudice his strength as a candidate in any quarter. These things must be remembered where we are prone to criticise a candidate as lacking in candor or courage. He is not a free agent. He is a trustee for his party. But in the end his campaign conduct helps the people to judge him.

The present campaign is creating a contrast between Senator Harding and Gov. Cox which is quite helpful to many who were in doubt. The Democratic papers have been full of attacks upon Mr. Harding because he conformed to the Republican platform on the League issue and made his acceptance speech as lacking in definite detail of his plans as the League plank of the platform was. But in his speech of August 28 he worked out the platform declarations into a more satisfactory outline of his purpose.

The same papers praised Mr. Cox for his clear and straightforward statement on the League which merely reaffirmed Mr. Wilson's position in favor of the League with "Article X or no League," as the platform had done. This contrast was held up as indicative of the clear-headed courage of Mr. Cox and the absence of this in Mr. Harding, but injustice was done to Mr. Harding.

HARDING'S WISDOM.

Again, the proposed front-porch campaign of Mr. Harding has been the object of ridicule by the Democratic press. We now begin to see the wisdom of Mr. Harding's course. It has enabled him to prepare careful, full and clear addresses on the principal and real issues of the campaign and then deliver them either to visiting delegations or to an appreciative audience like that he addressed at Minneapolis. No one can read these addresses without being impressed with the conviction that they have been thought after study of the basic facts with a real sense of the responsibility which as President he must meet. They are not mere catchy bids for votes. They show an appreciation of the whole problem he has to solve. They are not appeals to one group of society in one speech, as there were no other groups to be considered.

His speech to the farmers at Minneapolis is a good illustration of this. His words show a real and earnest desire to help the farmers with the serious difficulties they have had to face, but he recommends no remedial measures the effect of which on the consumer and the carrier he does not weigh. He is not full of panaceas and promises that cannot be fulfilled. His thoughts are helpful and modest, which must have convinced his hearers that in Mr. Harding they will have a President who knows their troubles and who, while insisting that the farmers themselves by voluntary co-operation can do much, and without promising that government and legislation can do everything, will exert himself to do all that can be done by one responsible to consumers as well as carriers.

SENSE OF RESPONSIBILITY.

His speech to the railroad wage-earners on the Esch-Cummins bill and his explanation of the advantages to them in the arbitration feature of that act is admirable. It is not demagogic. It does not seek to stir them against their employers. It is uttered with a sense of responsibility to the country at large and to all those in interest. It is a strong answer to Mr. Gompers's unmeasured condemnation of this really useful measure. One might take up other addresses of Mr. Harding of the same character, but these two well illustrate the advantage of the opportunity the front-porch campaign gives to deal calmly, candidly, fairly and strongly with the electorate.

The absence of appeals to class feeling and demagogic promises of impossible achievement of reforms is noteworthy.

NO BITTER ATTACKS.

On the other hand, Mr. Harding is not full of bitter attacks upon his opponents. Of course, he discusses the Wilson administration because the approval or disapproval of that is the real issue of the campaign, but the dignity of his language and the absence of acrimony and of charges of corruption must impress all with the difference between his method of speech and that of his opponent. Everything he says aims at constructive suggestion, as if he were facing the real demands of the office he will surely fill.

A DIFFERENT COURSE.

Gov. Cox has taken a very different course. Having called to his support idealists of constantly Democratic tendency and a few Republicans by his declarations for the League with Article X, in spite of its impossibility, he then gave his whole attention to the creation of an issue which should screen him from the fixed and general feeling against the Wilson administration and focus attention on the nickness of the Republican management of the campaign and enable him to reason from that assurance of an abhorrent course by Mr. Harding if President. In the history of American politics there never has been so much cry and so little wool produced by the candidate of a great party as in the charge by Gov. Cox in regard to Republican campaign contributions.

By the production of printed circulars issued by a professional money collector employed by the committee and seeking to arouse the Republican sympathizers to adequate contributions to pay the large legitimate expenses of a campaign with 30,000,000 voters, he has sought to treat the exaggerated quotas assigned in the circulars as money in hand, and, assuming the collection of them all has had the unbelievable audacity to charge, without the slightest evidence, that the money is being collected from large business interests who propose to "buy the Presidency" and make Harding "use bayonets to force" workingmen to accept terms of employment the business interests desire.

CONSTANT REPETITION.

By constant repetition of these gratuitous and preposterous charges he hopes to have some of them stick in the minds of laboring men and farmers and thus to inflame the unrest existing in many quarters.

He seeks to neutralize the hyphenated opposition of Irishmen to the League and to the administration by promising to bring the question of Ireland's independence before the League of Nations and to favor it although any reasonable construction of the League makes such a course utterly inadmissible, and would enable the Filipinos to take our dominion in the Philippines before the same tribunal. Indeed, such a construction would enable the negroes of South Carolina, on the principle of self-determination to claim a similar hearing.

He gives countenance to I.W.W. agitation by saying at Butte that "Wherever you show me a radical movement, I will show you a government that has been unjust and oppressive." No wonder the New York Times finds these ebullitions of Gov. Cox, which it is loyally supporting, so hard to swallow that it refers to them as "things better left unsaid."

TRUTH DAWNING.

The truth is dawning on many that Gov. Cox does not deem the issue of "the League with Article X or no League" a winning issue and that he proposes to make this fight one of radicalism against the existing order.

His utter recklessness of statement cannot otherwise be explained. The contrast between the front-porch campaign and that of the itinerant agitator is one that will become more and more painful to those who have been led to support Gov. Cox on the merely academic issue of the League with Article X or no League.

MAYOR WILL PRESIDE AT SALVATION RALLY.

SPEAKERS CHOSEN TO GREET NEW COMMISSIONER AND HIS WIFE TONIGHT.

Arrangements for the reception of Commissioner and Mrs. Adam Gifford, the new territorial commanders of the Salvation Army in the Western Territory, were completed yesterday. The visiting officials will be the honor guests at a welcome rally, to be held at 8 o'clock this evening in Blanchard Hall.

Mayor Snyder will occupy the presiding chair. The invocation will be offered by Lieut.-Col. Emil Marcussen of San Francisco and Lieut.-Col. Blanche Cox will give a Scriptural reading.

The speakers will be Mayor Snyder, Brig. C. R. Boyd, Leslie B. Henry, Rev. James A. Francis, Commissioner and Mrs. Gifford. Col. Sam Rees will pronounce the benediction. Musical entertainment is to be furnished by the Hollywood High School Glee Club and the Salvation Army Band.

Commissioner and Mrs. Gifford are making a tour of their new Western territory, embracing eleven States and the Hawaiian Islands. For the past twelve years they were stationed at Boston, where Commissioner Gifford directed the army's activities in the New England States.

Albert Rogell Tells of Action Taken After Hollywood Auto Crash.

Albert Rogell of 4514½ Sunset Boulevard states that the reports made to the police regarding the automobile accident in which Mrs John Kauffman sustained a fractured skull are incorrect. He says that neither he nor William Holmes, who drove the auto which overturned after hitting another machine, abandoned Mrs. Kaufman and her sister, Miss Graham, who also was in the car. On the contrary, he states, he carried Mrs. Kaufman half a block to another machine, placed her in it and drove to the hospital a short distance away, carried her up the steps and placed her in charge of a nurse. He also took in the same machine, Mr. Holmes, who was injured. Then he went back to the scene of the accident and found that Miss Graham, whom he says was uninjured, had gone to her residence and fetched Mr. Kaufman.

URGE CLOSE WATCH OVER KIDDIES' HEALTH.

HYGIENE CONGRESS HEARS A LOS ANGELES DOCTOR'S RECOMMENDATIONS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 12.—Close supervision over children during their early years to allow prompt application of corrective measures where physical defects exist was stressed as an imperative need by speakers at the annual convention of the Child Hygiene Congress in session here today.

Dr. C. Edgerton Carter of Los Angeles advocated a system of charting the health status of children. This allows defects and diseased conditions to be visualized, he explained, and affords a ready means of comparison for correction.

Los Angeles Men Are Organizing Machine-gun Company.

Paul F. Collins was chosen yesterday to head a drive for fifty men to join a Los Angeles machine-gun company that will be a unit of the California National Guard and will be mustered into the Federal service next month. The organization is to be commanded by First Lieutenant Ralph McClean, a veteran of the A.E.F. He and Mr. Collins will be at room 7, State Armory, every evening. Prospective recruits may also apply at 615 Fay Building any day between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

MAN HELD FOR KILLING HIS TWO BABY GIRLS.

MICHIGAN FARMER CONFESSES TO MURDERING DAUGHTERS; BODIES FOUND.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LANSING (Mich.) Oct. 12.—Earl Roop, a farmer, was arraigned today on a charge of murdering his daughters, Dorothy and Bernice, aged 3 and 2, respectively, whom he buried alive on his farm ten miles from here Monday, according to his reported confession to Sheriff Silbee. Preliminary hearing was set for tomorrow after Roop had stood mute, and a plea of not guilty had been entered by the court.

Despondency over financial matters and the failure of his crops, according to the Sheriff, was given by Roop as the reason for his alleged act. He was quoted as saying that he had been pondering the idea of taking the lives of his babies for nearly a year.

In a matter of fact manner, according to the Sheriff, Roop told of taking the children from his house on Monday, to a field through which ran the Red Cedar River. There, Roop said, he administered chloroform to the little girls, then sat about digging a hole in the soft earth near the river.

While he was thus engaged, Dorothy revived, Roop told the Sheriff, and walked over to him. He then carried Bernice to the river and placed both children in the hole, covering their bodies with mud, Silbee quoted him as saying.

Officers would not believe the man's story until they had gone with him to the spot and found the bodies of the babies this morning.

The mother of the girls is in a critical condition at her home, where six days ago she gave birth to a son. She has not been told of the fate of her other babies.

DISMISSING PROCEEDINGS IN KANSAS COURT ON CHARGE OF INCITING TO RIOT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LEAVENWORTH (Kan.) Oct. 12. Proceedings begun in the Kansas Federal Court to bring about the return to Arkansas of Robert Hill, negro, accused of being a leader in a series of race disorders in the vicinity of Helena, Ark., last fall, have been dismissed at the instance of Atty.-Gen. Palmer, according to a statement by Fred A. Robinson, United States District Attorney for Kansas, late today. In the rioting several white persons and an unknown number of negroes were killed. Hill's status is that of a free man, Federal officials said today. Federal troops were called out at the time of the disorders in Helena, Ark., last fall.

Anglo-French Loan Will be Paid Friday.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—It is understood that plans for payment of the Anglo-French $500,000,000 five-year, 5 per cent external loan, due next Friday, have been completed.

J. P. Morgan & Co. announced today that the bonds would be accepted prior to maturity and holders were asked to present them promptly.

Britain's half of the loan already is in hand and it is believed that France will pay a goodly part of her share out of the large imports which have recently come to this market from Paris.

GUNBOAT PROGRESSO AGROUND ON LEDGE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 12.—Word was received here in a radio message tonight that the Mexican gunboat Progresso, reported last night to be aground on the Lower California coast, was hard and fast on a rocky ledge on the Sacramento reef, Geronimo Island. The message was sent by Capt. Wright of the steamer Annette Rolph. It was said that there were 200 passengers aboard, and that these included the wife and other members of the family of the new Governor of Lower California, Manuel Balarezo.

Capt. Wright's message said that the Progresso had a large hole in her bow, that the Annette Rolph had stood by all this morning, and that he had offered to take off the passengers and crew but that the offer was declined. The steamer then supplied the stranded boat with all the provisions that the Annette Rolph could spare and proceeded toward San Francisco.

Sacramento reef is about thirty miles north of San Quintin, and about 230 miles from San Diego. The scene of the grounding is only a few miles from San Carlos Point, where the San Diego steamer Newark was destroyed a few weeks ago.

INCREASED DEMURRAGE CHARGES ATTACKED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12. — Railroad proposals to increase demurrage charges on freight cars detained by shippers were attacked today by the Institute of American Meat Packers in a brief filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission, where the question is pending. The packers asserted that much of the delay in moving freight equipment was due to the railways themselves, that increase in demurrage charges would not necessarily increase the efficiency of operation and would penalize shippers unnecessarily.

FATHER ASKS CUSTODY OF HIS DEAD CHILD.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MT. VERNON (Ill.) Oct. 12.—Asking the law to award him the custody of a dead child, W. H. Warner of Lyons county, Iowa, has sent summons here so that service in his suit for divorce may be had on his wife, Mrs. Ollie Warner of this city.

Sheriff Irwin called at a local boarding-house where the wife is employed and served the summons on her as directed by the Iowa court.

Papers in the case show that Warner petitions the court to allow him to exhume the body of the child and have it taken to Iowa for reburial.

Getting Things Done

The modern woman has a pretty busy time of it. Style shoes, strictly so, won't get her around gracefully these busy days. She has taken to the Princess Pat. It is a trim shoe of thin lines shaped naturally to the foot with a straight inside line and a medium toe. Walk-Over designers have perfected the outlines. They have made it a good-looking shoe with style. The heel is not too high, nor is it too low. It is just right. You'll be surprised how much easier it is to get things done in Princess Pats.

FIRST CONSECRATION OF EPISCOPAL BISHOP HERE.

Dr. Stevens is Elevated to High Office With Impressive Ceremonial Before Distinguished Crowd.

With impressive ceremonial and in the presence of one of the most distinguished religious gatherings ever assembled on the Pacific Coast, Rev. William Bertrand Stevens, Ph. D., was yesterday elevated to the highest office the American Episcopalian church has to bestow upon her distinguished sons. By virtue of this office Dr. Stevens became Coadjutor-Bishop of the Diocese of Los Angeles. He is the 309th American bishop of the Episcopal church.

The ceremony, which called ten bishops of the House of Bishops from the four corners of the country and one from far overseas; assembled practically every priest of the church in the diocese, and several from a distance, and which attracted thousands of eager laymen to the services where only hundreds could be accommodated, was held in St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral on Olive street beginning at 10 a.m. and continuing for nearly three hours. It was the first consecration of an Episcopal bishop ever held in Southern California, for the diocese of Los Angeles has never had but one bishop, the well-loved Rt. Rev. Joseph Horsfall Johnson, who received his consecration in Detroit nearly twenty-five years ago, and came West into what was then a far away and little known region where he has built one of the strongest and most powerful dioceses in the United States, exceeded only by two or three in the heart of the great population centers of the East.

ASSISTANT TO JOHNSON.

The growing diocese with its manifold interests, institutions, hospitals, schools and churches finally imposed a burden so great that Bishop Johnson asked to be relieved of some of the administrative cares, and on May 6 last Dr. Stevens, rector of St. Mark's Church, San Antonio, Tex., was unanimously elected coadjutor-bishop. He is one of the youngest bishops in the church, upon whose head high dignitaries have now laid their hands, and imposed the solemn obligation for the office. This does not mean, it is said, the retirement of Bishop Johnson, only that much of the executive and administration work, the thousands of miles of travel involved and the heat and burden of the day will be transferred to younger shoulders. A bishop is elected for life.

Promptly at 10 o'clock the processional formed in the parish house. From the great organ pealed the first sonorous notes of the hymn, "O God of God, O Light of Light;" the men and boys' vested choir burst into the melody and the march to the altar commenced.

Inside the church an audience that filled every nook and cranny of the edifice waited with reverent attention while the vested procession, the longest ever participating in a religious ceremony at old St. Paul's, wound its way between solid lines of humanity led by a crucifer who held aloft the emblem of Christianity, the cross of Christ.

THE PROCESSION.

The order of precedence was closely observed. First the choir of thirty-six; then the bearer of a magnificent American flag, for the church places the flag close to the cross; then came the lay readers, men licensed by the bishop to assist the parish priests in the conduct of the services of the church; then the lay members of the standing committee. This comprised the first section of the procession.

The second section, led by another priest crucifer, included Archdeacon J. Rockwood Jenkins of Arizona and Deacons Martin D. Kneeland of Los Angeles, Duncan Merwin of Pasadena and Flavel S. Luther, D.D., former president of Trinity College, Hartford, Ct.

Members of the standing committee, exclusive of those chosen to read canonical certificates, were William F. Knight of Pasadena, Henry E. Brett of Los Angeles, Dr. J. E. Cowles of Los Angeles, and C. D. Adams of Ontario.

Eighty-four priests in the inverse order of their ordination came next. Those in line, exclusive of the clergy taking an active part in the consecration, were: Rev. Ellis Bishop of Pasadena, Rev. Stanley Boggess of Los Angeles, Rev. Cyril Boddington of Los Angeles, Rev. Frank Coyle of Los Angeles, Rev. A. C. Dodd of Oceanside, Rev. M. C. Dotten, Ph. D., of Pasadena, Rev. A. J. G. Dowie of Los Angeles, Rev. J. A. Evans of Hollywood, Rev. E. E. Fairchild of Los Angeles, Rev. J. B. Farr of Los Angeles, Rev. Alfred Fletcher of Los Angeles, Rev. Alfred George of Huntington Park, Rev. Harry G. Gray of Los Angeles, Rev. Isaac Holgate of Alhambra, Rev. W. F. Hubbard of Hollywood, Rev. Harwood Huntington of Los Angeles, Rev. M. D. Kneeland of Los Angeles, Rev. D. F. MacKenzie of Los Angeles, Rev. T. F. Marsden of San Diego, Rev. Timon E. Owens of Los Angeles, Rev. Octavius Parker of Los Angeles, Rev. V. D. Ruggles of Los Angeles, Rev. W. G. W. Smith of Altadena, Rev. A. C. Stilson of Los Angeles, Rev. George E. Swan of South Pasadena, Rev. Edmund Walters of Los Angeles, Rev. S. H. Woodford of Los Angeles, Rev. W. L. H. Benton of Santa Ana, Rev. J. D. H. Browne of Santa Monica, Rev. F. V. Bugbee of Los Angeles, Rev. William A. Cash of San Bernardino, Rev. Mortimer Chester of Hemet, Rev. Stephen Cutter Clark of Pomona, Rev. W. T. Cleghorn of Los Angeles, Rev. H. E. Clowes of National City, Rev. G. H. Cornell, D. D., of Bishop Johnson, only that much of the executive and administration work, the thousands of miles of travel involved and the heat and burden of the day will be transferred to younger shoulders. A bishop is elected for life.

HONOR NINE EPISCOPAL BISHOPS.

Notable Reception Follows Consecration and Thousand Persons Greet Dr. Stevens.

A reception in honor of Bishop Johnson, Bishop Coadjutor Stevens and the visiting bishops, held in the spacious gardens of a West Adams street estate yesterday afternoon, marked the close of the consecration ceremonies for Dr. Stevens.

The reception took place at the residence of Mrs. Spencer H. Smith, 1109 West Adams street, and for two hours, from 3:30 to 5:30, the greatest assemblage of Episcopal bishops and priests that had ever gathered together in Los Angeles passed along the receiving line.

In that line were Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, bishop of Los Angeles; Mrs. Johnson; Rt. Rev. William Bertrand Stevens, newly consecrated bishop-coadjutor of Los Angeles; Mrs. Stevens; Rt. Rev. William Ford Nichols, bishop of California; Mrs. Nichols; Rev. Robert Lloyd Windsor, chaplain to Bishop

AUTOMOBILE HITS, KILLS LITTLE GIRL.

Small Playmate of Victim Only Bruised as Soldier's Car Runs Them Down.

Esther, the 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Stanley, Palmer avenue, Whittier, was instantly killed late yesterday afternoon, and her playmate, Wilma Davis, aged 7 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davis of Pasadena avenue, Whittier, was severely bruised when they were struck by an automobile driven by Bruce Harden, a soldier.

The accident occurred opposite the Methodist church at North Friends avenue and East Bailey street, just as the little ones came from a children's meeting at the church. The two girls started to run across the street, apparently not noting the approach of the car. The driver of the machine says the sun was playing upon the glass of his windshield in such a manner that he did not see the girls until he was upon them. Witnesses state that the automobile was going not to exceed fifteen miles an hour.

Harden is an enlisted man in the aviation branch of the Army and is stationed at March Field. He was in Whittier on leave to visit his mother, who resides at 709 East Philadelphia street in that city.

Both children were placed in the death car by witnesses of the accident and hurried to the Whittier Hospital, where it was found the Stanley child was dead and that the other had suffered only severe bruises.

WILL BURY WAR VICTIM.

Legion Members to March at Funeral of Man Gassed at Cambrai.

One hundred members of the American Legion and Overseas Club will today march in uniform at the funeral of Montey Brown Tallett, who died Sunday at the Crocker-street Hospital as a result of complications which resulted from being gassed at the great British drive at Cambrai in 1917.

Mr. Tallett enlisted in the Canadian army at the outbreak of the war in 1914, and was immediately sent to the trenches in France, where he served for three years. Many months after he was gassed at Cambrai he was sent to Arrowhead Hospital, but gradually failed. The Overseas Club will be in charge of the funeral services, which will be held a 2 o'clock this afternoon at Pierce Bros. chapel. Dean MacCormack at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral will preach the funeral sermon.

RICE GROWERS FACE MENACE.

Production Jumps as Japan Threatens Price Drop.

Points Need of Protective Tariff, Experts Declare.

See Hope for the Future in Election of Shortridge.

With California endeavoring to find an outlet for an overproduction of rice amounting to approximately 2,000,000 bushels, Japanese rice was selling yesterday in the local markets at 12½ cents per pound or at the same price as Sacramento Valley rice.

Experts declare that the rice industry, together with other important agricultural and horticultural industries of this State, can only be saved from disaster by adequate protective tariff such as is only to be secured through the election by California of a Republican Senator and a group of Republican Congressmen at the November election.

A strong indorsement of Samuel M. Shortridge for Senator was given by rice growers in many districts yesterday and their sentiment was echoed in a warning by Dr. George P. Clements, agricultural expert of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, who declared himself in favor of protective tariffs for practically all California products as quickly as they can be obtained.

"I am strongly in favor of a tariff

SEEKS MISSING COUSIN.

A. W. Rommel, 447 South Grand avenue, appealed to the police yesterday to assist him in locating his cousin, Hugh Flynn, son of Dr. J. P. Flynn of 1711 North Emerson avenue, Minneapolis, who left his home September 19, ostensibly for Los Angeles, and has not been seen since. He is 16 years of age, five feet and nine inches tall, weighs 150 pounds, and has brown hair and blue eyes.

CARS CRUSH LIFE OUT OF EX-OFFICER.

Squeezed Between Coaches, Former Lieutenant Dies as Ambulance Service Fails.

Caught and crushed between two street cars at Fifth and Hill streets late yesterday afternoon, R. R. Williamson, 26 years of age, 742 Beacon street, died while Receiving Hospital surgeons were trying to find an emergency ambulance to send for him. The fatality resulted from a "split switch." The rear trucks of an eastbound Southern Pacific Station trolley coach took the turn, causing the car to be jammed against a University car, westbound.

Little was known about Mr. Williamson at the Beacon-street house, beyond that he had been a lieutenant in the Army. He had lived there since last September 8.

As the police ambulances were in the repair shop, where an attempt was being made to get them into running condition, surgeons at the Receiving Hospital tried to get a police automobile to send for Mr. Williamson after the accident. After some delay the arrangement was made, but meantime the injured man had died.

LIFE SAVED BY TWO-BIT PIPE.

Judge Hewitt, Surrounded by Yaquis, Smokes Up.

Shabby Old Relic Venerated by Scalping Party.

Legend Says Powerful Chief of Old Days Owned It.

Judge Hewitt of the Superior Court bench is at peace with the world when he can light his pipe, puff out smoke like a dreadnaught under full speed ahead and read light fiction. For years he has read about talismans. References to them in all guises have appeared on the pages of many of his favorite novels, but for years he has possessed a talisman and did not know it until, when he was down in a wild part of Mexico, a bunch of Yaqui Indians surrounded him and registered signs that they wanted his scalp.

In order to cover his nervousness, or perhaps automatically, Judge Hewitt pulled out his old pipe, mechanically filled it from an old pouch, stuck the filled pipe in his mouth, struck a match and emitted huge clouds of smoke. This demonstrated to the Yaquis that he was cool, calm and collected, and had no intention of massacering them.

The effect of his coolness, as he thought, was marvelous. When he dug out the pipe, the Indians ceased their hostile demeanor. They crept nearer and peered at it. It was not an ordinary pipe. Judge Hewitt declares that nobody but himself could ever smoke it. It looks like a relic of the stone ages. As a matter of fact, Judge Hewitt bought it in Albuquerque one day when he had lost his own pipe. It cost him two bits, and fired beautifully.

But getting back to the Indians. They all in concert made a low obeisance, touching the earth with their heads, straightened up, waved significantly, as though to say, "The earth is young," jumped on their ponies and galloped away.

NOT LIKE GATLING GUN.

Judge Hewitt was amazed. The Indians certainly did not mistake his old pipe for a gatling gun. By the same token, they did not know he was a judge of the Superior Court bench, and entitled to be apprehended by the high sheriff only. It was mighty queer. When he returned to Albuquerque he related the incident to Col. Tom Grebeck, who knows Yaqui Indians backwards and forwards.

"Let's see that pipe," he remarked.

Judge Hewitt produced it and the colonel examined it.

"Come with me," he said.

He conducted Judge Hewitt to an outlying part of the city and said "Howdy" to a very old Indian sitting at the door of a cabin.

The colonel, speaking the Yaqui tongue, got off a few words that sounded like an old-time steam railroad conductor calling out way stations. The Indian grunted in reply. The pipe was handed to him and gravely received. The Indian grunted some more, and Col. Grebeck, interpreting, said:

"This is many years old. It was smoked by a big chief who, when he was very, very old, disappeared in the air, leaving only the pipe in his tepee. The pipe was kept by the Indians for many years and one day it disappeared. The legend is that no one but a big chief can smoke it. It won't draw for anyone else. You smoked it in the presence of the Yaquis, who recognized by legend the peculiar shape of the pipe. They knew you were a big chief.

"That's all there is to it, judge," concluded Col. Grebeck. "It's a talisman, and I'd advise you to stick to it, particularly if you travel among the Yaquis."

"Personally," says Judge Hewitt, "I think the colonel was kidding me, but it's a fact, nevertheless, that none of my friends can smoke the pipe. It's some little factory when I smoke it," he said meditatively. "I wonder if a big Yaqui chief did smoke it once, and if he did, why the dickens they didn't take it away from me?"

FORTUNE IN LIQUOR GOES FAST.

Inspectors Stop Creme de Menthe Auto Party, but One "Steps on Her."

Immigration Inspectors John F. Jack and D. W. Brewster of the local office nearly made an important capture of creme de menthe near San Juan Capistrano yesterday, according to telephone advices to Alfred Burnett, the inspector in charge.

Soon after daylight a big automobile was observed bowling along the road. It was stopped by the inspectors. At the steering wheel was a man who gave the name of A. W. Thompson and in the car was George A. Atwood, who said he conducted a cafe in Venice.

A search of the car, according to the two immigration men revealed sixty-five gallons of creme de menthe and a collection of Mexican beer. At present prices, the creme de menthe is worth about $26,000.

The inspectors were engaging Atwood in conversation when Thompson "stepped on her" and disappeared down the road with the machine and the liquor. Chase was given, but the big car soon got away from the flivver occupied by the inspectors. At last accounts Thompson was still going.

Atwood was held and taken to San Diego for arraignment before the United States Commissioner. He declared that they got the contraband from a certain dealer in wet goods in San Diego. That feature of the case is being investigated.

Forces of the offices of the sheriffs of Los Angeles, Orange and San Diego counties combined yesterday to aid the Federal prohibition enforcement officers in the arrest of Thompson. Deputy Sheriffs Couts, Bright, Dewar and Johnson joined in the chase from this county. Thompson is believed to have fled to the hills near Modjeska's home.

—Fig. B—Simplicity is, in itself, attractive. This is proved by the above frock of Duvet-de-Laine trimmed only with contrasting bands. Colors: Navy, Dryad, Twilight, Zanziber, Suchow. Sizes 16 to 42 —$55.00.

—Fig. C—A smart, low-waisted frock of Crepe Madelon has a graceful and charming trimming of ringed silk fringe—wee vest, collar and cuffs of tucked net and lace. Colors: Black, navy, brown, stone blue. Sizes, 16 to 42—$55.00.

—Fig. D—The sort of a frock that is made for dining or dancing is sedate in its color, but airy in the Spanish lace that makes the over dress for the slip of Crepe Madelon. Colors: Black, navy, brown. Sizes 16 to 42—$55.00.

—Fig. E—Much chic distinction can be on donning this tri Velvet frock. Little cles of bright embroider decorate wrist and ne hem. Colors: navy blue, brown, 16 to 42—$55.00.

"Shall We Go a-Gypsying—a-Gypsying in the Spring?"

Gypsy Wash Frocks, $7.9

inspire one to go anywhere, so long as one may wear a Gypsy Frock. there's seldom that anything comes to Bullock's quite so fetching, so in design, and withal so thoroughly pretty.

—The price, too, makes one feel so comfortable, for when a woman knows sees the neat workmanship, and the quality of them, she is quite that Bullock's has worked some magic to be able to sell them for $7.95.

—Yes, of course, they're made of crepe, which, besides coming in ful colors that stoutly resist even Old Sol's ardent rays, will wear and and wear.

—You just ought to see the color combinations, for words cannot their charm. Each little Gypsy Dress is a study in color-phrasing.

—Then the big pockets, and the posies outlined, and the fairy-like ness of their lines, and the odd quirks that everywhere appear, all make any woman quite determined to own one or two or three and to buy some for little sister, too, to see how charming she will them.

—Why, yes, many of the girls are wearing them to school, they're priate and so girlish, and their colors are so quiet—not a bit startling.

—The sizes are from 16 to 42.

—Women are using them for the street, for the house, for the afternoon in short, for just any moment when they wish to look as engaging as —You'll find them across the Bridgeway on Bullock's Third Floor.

New Wool Scarfs

Warm, Comfortable, Feminine and Becoming!

—It is true, they are all of those things, warm, comfortable, feminine and becoming.

Some imported; others of domestic weaving. Their lines are graceful and they lend themselves to the whim of the wearer; they are wholly feminine in their style motif—in the way they fall from the shoulder, in color-blendings.

This matter of color is worked out in the new scarfs at Bullock's in a manner exquisitely delightful. Soft browns and blues, tans, greens, heather mixtures, checks and plaids and plain colors.

Such demurely fetching materials, too; soft camel's hair or Angora yarns and brushed wool, with long fringed ends.

Various sizes and lengths.

The prices are the best of all, for they are so very reasonable—from $6.75 to $22.50.

Fourth Floor.

Old Age Deferred

BY DR. LEE H. SMITH.

Business men who must speed up the works and make business boom during these days—after the war—must recognize the necessity of keeping fit. When mind is befogged, when you have dull headaches or feel logy, when not "up to snuff," keep the bowels free with a mild laxative. In the morning take a tepid sponge bath (cold water may be used if it does not chill), follow with a brisk rub down; a sufficient "setting up" exercise in good air until you are in a warm glow. Have you tried it lately?

Don't let the poisons accumulate in the intestines either, but try a dose of castor oil the first thing on arising, or a pleasant laxative occasionally, such as one made up of May-apple, aloin and jalap, rolled into a tiny sugar-coated pill, and sold in every drug store as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Then a cup of hot water before breakfast, and you'll feel better than a king! If you continue in life thus, you can pass a Life Insurance examination at sixty.

If you wish to prevent old age coming on too soon, or if you want to increase your chances for a long life, you should drink plenty of soft (rain) or distilled water daily between meals. Then procure at the drug store Dr. Pierce's Anuric (anti-uric-acid). This "Anuric" drives the uric acid out and relieves backache and rheumatism, as well as other trouble. Anuric dissolves uric acid. Try it now!

SURF STRUGGLE FATAL TO GIRL.

Saved from Undertow, Venice Miss Fails to Rally.

Three Companions Got Ashore by Beach Life Guards.

Fifth Member of Party Wins Her Own Way to Land.

Sarah, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lane, 725 Broadway, Venice, died in the Emergency Hospital in the beach town early last night, several hours after she had been taken from the surf in an unconscious condition.

Ellen Crocker, George Rush and John Hannish, all of Venice, who, with Amelia Peterson, were companions of Miss Lane, were rescued after much difficulty.

The members of the party were bathing at the rear of the Venice bath-house and were carried to sea by a heavy undercurrent. Their screams attracted many persons on the pleasure pier and called to their aid Life Guards Charles Kirby and Stanley Townsend. Mr. Hannish was saved by a rope thrown from the pier, Miss Peterson fought her way to shore and Miss Crocker, Miss Lane and Mr. Rush were brought in in a boat by the guards. None of the party except Miss Lane was in a critical condition and all the others responded to emergency treatment.

No funeral arrangements have been announced.

WOMEN'S WORK, WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY MYRA NYE.

Woman's Press Club.

Answering questions that were asked him in quick succession by members of the Southern California Women's Press Club, many of whom are themselves short-story writers, Gouverneur Morris, novelist and master of the art of telling a tale in little, spoke lucidly and expertly yesterday at the club's initial meeting of the season in the Ebell clubhouse. The entire program was given over to the short story, with Mrs. Clara V. Winslow presiding.

Preliminary to the program Mrs. Georgina Townsend, the recently elected president of the club, gave the president's annual address. She spoke particularly of the influence of the writer in forming public opinion, citing an instance when her own point of view was completely changed by reading a short story of Mr. Morris's, the guest of the day.

After the session the afternoon was given over to the renewal of acquaintances in the club membership and to meeting those who had recently joined. Over the teacups the things dear to the hearts of women writers formed the chief topic of conversation.

Woman's Symphony Orchestra.

Organizing formally yesterday afternoon in Blanchard Studio, the Woman's Symphony Orchestra members met for their second rehearsal of the season. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Edna Foy Neher; vice-president, Miss Gertrude Barrett; secretary, Mrs. Ida Junguist; treasurer, Mrs. Adelaine Glidden; board of directors, Miss Mildred Stevenson, Miss Ethelwyn Cobrey, Miss Mae Marshall; librarian, Mrs. M. Manley, and director, Henry Schoenefeld.

This new club, composed entirely of artists, is giving its time to the uplift of music. It is the intention of the organization to present during the winter some truly worthwhile music, working together not only as an orchestra, but as a woman's club.

Republican Study Club.

With Dr. Jessie Russell, chairman of the program committee of the Republican Study Club, presiding at the opening of the meeting, the session yesterday was given over to the discussion of the Community Property Bill, with Mrs. Mabb Copeland speaking for the measure and members of the club against it. There was an unusually large attendance with many distinguished Republican women present who had come to the Republican rally in the morning.

Among those noted were Mrs. Frances Wyant of Sawtelle, aunt of Senator Harding; Mrs. Raymond Robins, Mrs. J. L. Matthews of Covina and almost the entire membership of the State and county Republican committees.

Friday Morning Club.

The entire day Friday will be given over to the Public Affairs Committee at the meeting of the Friday Morning Club, when Mrs. H. H. Koons, chairman of that department, will have charge of the program in the morning. The speakers on the measures appearing on the ballot are: George Burrows and C. C. Pierce for and against the alien law; Dr. John R. Haynes on the initiative; G. Gordan Whitnall and Dr. A. S. Lobingier for and against prohibiting compulsory vaccination; Dr. Monroe Deutsch for Amendment No. 12, which provides added funds for the State university; Mrs. Kemper B. Campbell for the Community Property Bill, and Anna De Mille for single tax.

The luncheon hour will be devoted exclusively to speakers for the Republican party.

OFF DIRECTORATE.

J. Monroe Flowers Out of United Auto Clubs, Says Official.

Apropos of the present trial of J. M. Flowers on a charge of obtaining money and property by false pretenses, Charles Thompson, a director of the United Auto Clubs of America, yesterday gave out a statement declaring that Flowers's connection with that body, of which he was formerly president, was terminated by action of the board of directors last September 27. Mrs. J. M. Flowers, wife of the former president, and Leo Flowers, their son, also were removed from participation in the club's affairs, said Mr. Thompson.

The club was incorporated last January with the intention of ousting Flowers, according to the statement of the director, and a new board of directors was named. It consists of S. P. Moore of Azusa, president; Severyn Fyan of this city, vice-president, and Mr. Thompson, attorney. W. E. Hummel of Pomona is manager. Debts of the organization have been paid by the new management, said Mr. Thompson. Offices are maintained at 125 South Broadway.

Pasadena Furniture Co. Ten Floors—In a Location That Enables Us to Sell for Less Pasadena Furniture Co.

Did Henry Ford Start Something?

—Without discussing any of the reasons that may prompt anyone to reduce prices, we want to say right here that we stand for honest values at all times.

—Merchandise that gets on our floors must first pass test as to quality and style, then the question is "how low can we price it?"—for we believe better values bring business and our belief is strengthened when we see people coming here from all over Southern California in response to our invitation to inspect our assortments and make comparisons.

—We're offering special values in nearly all lines this week just to prove that our location enables us to sell for less.

STRUCK BOTTOM.

The dispatches tell us that Uncle Joe Cannon sustained a bad fall and was hurt in his basement. We are glad that it wasn't in his dome.

BRIGHT BOY.

Paderewski says that Ervin Nyiveghazi, the 18-year-old Hungarian virtuoso, is destined to become the greatest pianist in the world. By that time some of us will be able to pronounce his name.

USEFUL DOGS.

The city veterinarian thinks that no dog is essential unless he has an occupation. Of course, hunting fleas can be considered as an occupation in the case of a dog. The animal has to be both a hunting and a watch dog to make a success of it.

A WET OCEAN.

The Norwegian Steamship line is dry, while the Swedish one is wet. Their vessels sail from New York to the same ports. The Norwegian ships are now running light, while those of the Swedish company have waiting lists for passengers. No wonder the United States Shipping Board cannot compete with England on the passenger business of the seas.

A GREAT SCHOOL.

The Los Angeles Polytechnic is the greatest high school in the United States. It has an enrollment that is surpassed by few colleges and is almost in a class by itself. It is a large problem for the schools of Southern California to keep pace with the growth in wealth and population, but they are doing nobly and in this way contribute to the fame and prestige of the southland.

BIG THINGS.

Likewise the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce with its 7000 members is the greatest business body in America. It surpasses anything in New York and exceeds the Chicago chamber by 300 members. The Los Angeles organization is virtually unanimous for the open shop, and its work and influence are upon the lines of the greatest good to the greatest number. It is strong for local patriotism, but far from being selfish.

THE OTHER FOOT.

The present armistice agreement between Poland and Russia especially declares that neither side shall concern itself with the internal affairs of the other. When the Bolshevists were overrunning the country they were not so considerate in their terms. They asserted a purpose to dictate the home affairs of Poland and wished to make that a Bolshevik government after their own kind. There is no fairness, justice or consideration of the rights of others in the tenets of Bolshevism.

FULL OF PRUNES.

Through a process by which small prunes may be easily and quickly pitted that fruit will now be placed beside the raisin in bakery products. Very small prunes have not been desired by anybody because there seemed nothing much to them except the pit. But with that out of the way they are really sweeter and more palatable than the large ones. For pies and for use in puddings and cakes they are fine. The prune men say that they can be sold much cheaper than the present price of raisins. In that connection it might be asked how much of a kick have they got? Bootleggers have been selling water and prune juice for whisky, but they never tried to put any punch in it. It was sold on its appearance. Possibly the prune has at least a 9 per cent tang to it if it is coaxed along. We must take care of our prunes.

HOT MILK FOR COLD.

New York is wrestling with the proposition of getting its milk supply by special trains of porcelain-lined tank cars in which the milk would be kept near the boiling point instead of being iced. It is figured that it can be shipped from points a thousand miles distant if heated. At present 300 miles is the limit for refrigerated shipments. The hot milk will keep longer than the iced and, according to the figures of experts, it can be handled at about one-third the cost of the refrigerated product. It is calculated that the freight and distribution represents eight cents a quart on the New York milk supply. By using pumps, tank cars or gravity distribution and shipping the milk hot instead of cold it is declared that this can be reduced to three cents. The milk supply for the big cities is quite a problem. Although the population of New York is now six millions, the city draws its milk from about the same field as it did a generation ago. By using tank cars and heating the milk with live steam from the locomotive a much wider territory would be available and substantial economies in distribution would be made possible. The special trains would all run to a central receiving station and the milk pass by gravity through the pasteurizing, cooling and bottling processes. It would then go by huge trucks to zone stations for distribution. There would be great saving all along the line. It would be possible to furnish baby's milk in the big town for three or four cents less on the quart than is being charged today. This would make a saving of millions in the course of a year.

"BOLSHEVIK" AND "SOVIET."

As the full extent of the Russian debacle in Poland becomes understood and the world witnesses sovietism tottering toward a fall there is a general demand to know just who the Bolsheviki are, on what the soviet government was founded, wherein it differs from Communistic government, what it sought to accomplish and why it failed. What is a Bolshevik? What is a soviet? Three years ago Bolshevist was a meaningless term to American readers and the word "soviet" was unknown to them. But since the fall of Kerensky and the advent of Lenine and Trotzky those two words have been intimately and poignantly associated with current history. The confusion in Russia under the revolution has been so great that correct information has been secured slowly and with extreme difficulty.

"Bolshevik" is the name of a political party in Russia that came into power through a revolution of violence in the fall of 1917 and the Bolsheviki are the members of that party. It numbers less than 5 per cent of the total population of Russia. Its officials rose to power by the right of the strongest and the cunning of the most perfidious. It claims to have organized a government of the working classes; but what it really represents is a government of charlatans and demagogues, who have never been workers themselves, but who are supported by groups of fanatical laborers, criminal elements and a predatory organization of Red guards representing the most cruel, ruthless and conscienceless among all classes.

II.

"SOVIET" means in Russian a labor union and the labor unions are the units of which the soviet government is composed. The labor unions in Russia, however, make no distinction between skilled and unskilled labor. There are peasants' unions and professional unions, also unions of soldiers. A soviet government is organized as follows: The unions of a municipality or county elect the city and county officials; suffrage is limited to members of the unions; no employer of labor can belong to a soviet, a farmer hiring a single hand is barred; the municipal and county officials elect members of the district council, similar to our State, the state officials elect the national soviet and the national soviet names the Premier and other national officials. It will be seen that the citizens vote only for members of the city and county councils. There is no direct vote for state or national officers; for the individual voter is supposed to know nothing about state or national affairs. A soviet government is about as far removed as possible from a democracy. It is representative government run mad. There is no such thing as a state or national referendum. Lenine is just as far from the average worker as was the Czar.

The nationalization of land and the buildings upon it, the abolishment of capital and the conscription of labor are all acts passed by the national soviet or decreed by the Premier. They are not necessarily a part of the soviet system, although they have been made so in Russia. The American Federation of Labor resembles closely the soviet government organization. If Congress were to be abolished, if no State and national elections were held and the American Federation of Labor were to be made the governing power of the nation we should have a soviet government in the United States. The only distinction would be that the State Federation of Labor would elect the delegates to the national federation and there would be no representation of individual unions.

The soviet government was modeled on the organization of the French General Council of Labor and the American and British federations of labor. Generally speaking, it is a government of the unions, for the unions and by the unions. All who are not members of unions are disfranchised.

III.

COMMUNISM differs from sovietism in that Communism is not based on a government of the labor unions, but takes in the whole body of the electorate. Many Communists hold to the theory of the total abolishment of private property and the nationalization of all forms of production. But that is a question of political belief and is not necessarily a part of the Communistic form of government. Communism proper represents a decentralization of power. Every city or county represents a unit independent of every other. Under Communism there would be neither national nor State legislative bodies. There would be a Federal body that could advise but not command. The United States would resolve itself into at least 50,000 little principalities, each independent of every other. Unity of action against a foreign foe would be impossible. Imagine trying to operate a transcontinental railroad under such conditions or to secure uniform action on questions relating to the liquor or opium traffic or uniform tariff and immigration laws.

The Confederation, which was the first government constituted in the American colonies after the Revolution, was abandoned because the decentralization existing under it made uniform and united action of the colonies impossible. It was a mild form of Communism.

That is one side of Communism. The other side would be to abolish all legislative bodies and have the people as a whole vote upon every proposed law. This form is pure democracy, and in this relation Communism and sovietism are at the opposite poles of governmental forms; the one is pure democracy, the other is representative government carried to excess. Direct legislation is the most approved form of Communism.

IV.

SOCIALISM is closely akin to sovietism. Karl Marx taught communities and states should be governed by those who work with their hands, that brain workers are just so much excess baggage carried by the community, that every man should be made to labor or starve. Socialism would have all forms of property, both real and personal, owned by the state and used for the supposed benefit of the workers. Socialism would use the forms of Communism in the election of officeholders. Scientists have pointed out that one of the baneful effects of Socialism would be that higher education would be abolished, intellectual development would cease and the human brain would deteriorate from generation to generation through lack of scientific development until it would reach the level of the brute. No function of the human body can survive lack of use. That is why we can no longer wiggle our ears.

Anarchy is the simplest to understand. It presupposes the abolishing of all forms of government. Each individual would act with utter disregard of the rights of every other. Every person would have the right to do what he had the might to do. There is no analogy for anarchy, even among the brutes; for all the species of animals have some form of organization in herds or flocks. Those that sought to lead individual existence long ago became extinct. The lion, the tiger and the eagle come perhaps the nearest to what might be termed an exception to this general rule.

To get the distinction between the Bolshevik and the soviet one has but to recall that the Bolshevik is a member of the Bolshevik party that constituted a soviet form of government in Russia; so, while all members of labor unions may not be Bolsheviki, a Bolshevik in Russia must be a member of a labor union.

The initiative and the referendum are forms of Communistic legislation. When we vote on the initiative and referendum measures on the State ballot in November we are de facto Communists. Mob rule is the only kind that would be possible in an anarchistic state. If the American Federation of Labor were to overthrow with a revolution of violence the Federal government, put Gompers in the White House, form a Congress of Foster, Lewis, et al., set Boss Murphy in Gov. Stephens's chair in Sacramento, make Curly Grow Mayor of Los Angeles and permit no one but members of labor unions to vote in any election we should have a soviet form of government in the United States.

Is it any wonder that such a form of government wrecked Russia? Is it likely that, in the light of the Russian experiment, it will be long maintained, either there or anywhere else?

DISCOVERY DAY.

Columbus never thought that Jim Cox would be a political boss in a town named after him, else he would never have hocked Isabella's diamonds for money enough to discover Ohio.

It may not be fame or glory, but it is at least notoriety to have put Ohio on the map. Even its capital is a bigger speck on the globe than is Genoa, the city where Columbus was born, or Palos, the port from whence he sailed on his great adventure.

Over in the Rhine provinces of Cincinnati the natives declare that it was not Columbus who discovered Ohio, but that Ohio discovered Columbus. They do not want to give Columbus credit for anything—not even for building the Hocking Valley Railroad. They say that Columbus didn't even name Ohio; that Ohio was there first and that Columbus is only a minor league place, anyhow, and not to be compared with pennant winners like Cleveland or Cincinnati.

They intimate that Ohio comes from the Digger Indian, "O! hi! O!, meaning "I am tired." Since then the Ohio dwellers have been too tired to work and so naturally sought refuge in politics. Their favorite sports are watching the ball game and running for President. In each of these lines the natives indicate a wonderful facility.

According to the Franklin country records it was in October, 1492, that Columbus came up the Scioto River in the mud-scow Lydia Pinkham and tied at the wharf opposite the Palace livery stable as he made the historic remark: "So this is Columbus?" There is a pleasant sensation when a man first beholds a place named after himself and this was reflected when Columbus ordered that all hands on board should have a flagon of hops. Ohio has been under suspicion of being moist territory ever since that day.

Of course, there are other versions, but this is the revised one. Some historians assert that Columbus never even got as far into this country as Palm Beach and that as a discoverer he was on a par with these wastrels who play with perpetual motion. They say that he touched his queen for her bracelets in order to get dough enough to float a yacht and then spent his time riding around looking for a good place to start a crap game.

But many historians are unjust. They have even gossiped about Catherine of Russia.

Anyhow, Columbus is sufficient a personage that the banks close on the anniversary of his sighting the San Salvador roller rink.

INDIAN IMMIGRANTS.

"Lo, the poor Indian whose untutored mind," of whom Pope sang, is evidently the Indian of the caveman age. The American Indian of the present generation is neither poor nor untutored. A recent list of American millionaires contained the names of fifty-two native Indians of unadulterated blood; and now come the Indians of Arizona demanding of the Governor of that State full rights, not alone to citizenship, but to public-school education.

Juan Pistola, a Yaqui Indian of high degree, who traces his lineage back seventeen generations, is recognized as the chieftain of more than 4000 Yaquis who have come over to Arizona, according to their chief, for the purpose of securing "the benefits of education and the rights of free citizens." For two hundred years the Yaquis have held their mountain lands in Mexico against the Mexican government. They have been hard and rude fighters, taking no prisoners and asking no quarter.

At times their bands were driven across the American border by the Mexican troops. Some of the tribesmen settled in the fertile Arizona valleys and established friendly relations with the white settlers. When they returned to their native mountains they carried back alluring tales of the life of peaceful industry led by the "pale faces north of the border." Little by little the Yaqui colonists expanded in Arizona until they now possess land and stock and have learned the customs of the white man and the rudiments of his education.

Chief Pistola has made a demand of the Governor of Arizona that public schools be established in all the Yaqui settlements. He asserts that the Indians pay the same taxes as their white neighbors and that they have the same rights in regard to public schools. All the Yaqui settlements in the State acknowledge Pistola as their chieftain. Whenever disputes arise, either with the local governments or with their tribes, they are submitted to Chief Pistola and his decree is as binding as though it were an order from the Supreme Court.

The Indians find they fare much better in Arizona than in Mexico. They say the American government demands only justice of them, while the officials of the Mexican government were always seeking tribute. Although there has been continuous warfare for more than a century between the Yaquis and the Federal forces in Mexico, the Yaquis of Arizona have always been law-abiding. They have developed a sense of honor to a degree that would shame many Americans, although it sometimes takes unique forms. A Yaqui will keep his promise to pay attested by his "mark," although he may be compelled to sell his wife or children to meet the obligation.

Teachers in the Indian schools report that the Yaquis are slow to learn, but that they possess remarkable memories. When an idea is once fully comprehended it is remembered for a lifetime. The most difficult thing for them to understand is the change in State laws. They are grounded in tradition and are slow to learn that what was permitted last year can be a misdemeanor or felony this year. Under the ancient Yaqui code the more venerable a dogma the more binding it becomes.

The progress made by the Yaqui Indians who have emigrated to Arizona compares favorably with that of a number of other peoples in different parts of the earth who continue to regard the red men as a decadent race. Chief Pistola says that his people seek "Americanization," although it is difficult to understand how that term can apply to the original Americans.

Have a purpose. Then plan and plug. Finally—plug still more.—[Forbes Magazine (N. Y.)

RIPPLING RHYMES.

YEARS AND WISDOM.

I've lived about a hundred years
And as I lived I looked around; and In the course of time, my dears, some chucks of wisdom I have found.
I've found that kindness always pays; it smoothes the path we have to tread, and takes much anguish from our days and lulls us when we go to bed. Speak kindly of the man next door; he'll hear the unkind things you've said, and they may make his spirit sore, so he will come and punch your head. Speak kindly of the grocer's clerk, who stung you when you bought some rice; he's wearied by his grinding work and so got balled up on the price. Speak kindly of all men who pass; they need kind words to make them glad; they're trying hard to cut their grass and hands are tried and hearts are sad. My life has been a joyride great, because I hate no man on earth, and in the cheapest kind of skate I try to find some signs of worth. I have about a million friends, who smile upon me when we meet, and when my little journey ends my funeral will be a treat.
The boys will boost me on that day, not for the silly rhymes I grind, not for my wreath of fragrant hay, but for the fact that I was kind.

WALT MASON.

HOOVER'S LEAGUE PROGRAM

BY HERBERT C. HOOVER.

I stand earnestly for "a" League of Nations to minimize war and, moreover, I stand for "the" League with alterations in the direction pointed by the Republican reservations. My reasons are as follows:

(1.) I have not forgotten the 50,000,000 human beings who have died because of this war, or the death roll which will stream from it for many years to come. I have not forgotten the social revolutions that have followed from the collapse of government, the dangers that they have presented and continue to present to our civilization. I have not forgotten that it is impossible, with our modern world communication, to maintain the isolation of the United States. I know that the march of dreadful invention during the past war and the addition of our genius to these inventions in the future will make the next great war a war of soldiers against civilians even to a greater extent than the latter part of the past war. I know that every social student realizes that another great war will further loosen social forces that will destroy our civilization and its foundation in individualism. It requires no demonstration that the world has a larger offensive armament today than before the war; that, for instance, the British navy now dominates the entire world, including the United States. The world, including ourselves, is groaning today under taxes imposed by these armaments. To at least try to lessen the dangers of these things we require co-operative international action—"a" League.

(2.) I consider the essential principle of such a League to be a continuous council of men representing the authority and confidence of their own countries in continuous service to mitigate the causes which give rise to war. Their objects must be the progressive disarmament of the world, the settlement of disputes by advice and conciliation, the establishment of international justice and arbitration, the maintenance of organization, procedure and of courts to this end, the creation of public opinion against acts of aggression. It needs no more powers than public opinion and upon approval of the different countries, the use of the most powerful weapon in modern civilization, that is, the economic boycott against countries who would disregard the decisions of international tribunals and start ventures that could involve the world in war. Furthermore, such a body can perform great and beneficent service to the world in the building up of international action concerned with the protection of life and private property at sea, the spread of contagious disease, the development of international communications. Together with many million other Americans, I care but little for the words in which such an agreement is expressed. It is immaterial to me what the name of the body is. The world has gotten used to "League," so there is no point in change.

(3.) I see no reason why such a body should have any power that leads to supergovernment or that in any way minimizes the very essential principle of nationalism upon which our patriotism and progress are founded. I do not believe that interest in the welfare of our neighborhood undermines our family life. On the contrary, I believe it strengthens it with a wider understanding. I do not consider that the question of the powers of such a body is a matter of principle, as has been contended by our Democratic friends; it is merely a matter of method. While to get peace I would have accepted Article X, subject to superauthority of Congress, I have always believed that such a body to call the ... undermines the institute ... any institution that ... on moral forces and ... will. The American's Creed—for you and me

NOBLESSE OBLIGE

By JOHN STRONG

The American Obligation, second.

You and I—our American obligation is to vote.

Noblesse Oblige is the impulse that impels us to reciprocate favors; to pay for what we buy; to give a full return for whatever we accept.

Yet, we accept American liberty, American rights, American privileges, American opportunity—and we fail to vote—to vote for the perpetuation of these good things of American life.

And that's why so many of these good things are turned into evil things—we let the evil do the voting.

You and I only by meeting our obligation can keep America first.

America IS first. To keep her first is your obligation and mine. Fine thoughts, words, phrases will not keep America first unless we put them into action.

It's what you and I DO; what we ARE; that will keep America first. What we think doesn't count unless we put it into acts. We owe it to America to DO our part. Noblesse Oblige.

GLOBE SIGHTS.

The modern girl doesn't blush enough.

A stingy woman can save twice as much as a stingy man.

Criticism is as easy as rolling down hill, and it gets you to the same place; mud at the bottom.

When a man reaches the age of 40 years he begins to wonder if he is still regarded as a "promising young man."

The woman who claims to have more sense than her husband may be right about it and still have nothing to boast of.

An Atchison man has four very nice grown sons. Asked how he reared them so well he replied: "I never nagged them—but once in a while I raised hell with them." Perhaps a little such hell-raising is what a lot of worthless, loafing, lounging boys and young men need.—[Atchison Globe.

Is Permissible.

Yes, it is permissible for a woman voter to scratch a candidate even though he is not her husband.—[Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

always believed that any power of such a body to call for military force undermines the intrinsic strength of any institution that must be based on moral forces and public good will. The power of economic boycott can be implemented without military force and the results to have neither communication nor business with a nation bent on aggression is a more potent weapon for good than any threat of military aggression. The world has come to a condition of economic dependence upon which no nation can morally or physically survive continued isolation. The privation, unemployment, economic difficulties that arise in any nation so isolated are such that no political element in that community can continue in control. I do not consider that such a council should have the right to command either actually or morally, any of the member nations without their considered vote.

(4.) I believe that the present covenant with alterations indicated by the Republican reservations entirely covers such an association as I describe. I favor building upon the present League as a matter of practical statesmanship. Thirty-nine nations representing 75 per cent of the people of the globe have accepted it. They are not going to consent to its destruction; they will accept alteration and improvement. The present League has functions connected with the execution of the Treaty of Versailles that make it an integral part of the stability of Europe, entirely aside from its functions in the prevention of war. The necessity of some reservoir for insolvable problems, such as Danzig and Constantinople, the present League is intertwined in the stability of Europe and cannot be torn down without again jeopardizing the world in war. The stability of Europe and its gradual recuperation are absolutely vital to every worthman and every farmer in the United States. I do not believe responsible or practical statesmanship will in one moment invite chaos by endeavoring to tear up the settlement which has been arrived at. The treaty is by no means perfect, but know of no human compromise to reach the area of perfection. So far as I have been able to observe, the other members of the League see no premium on the dotting of an "i" or the crossing of a "t" in regard to its purposes in mitigating the dangers of future war. They are perfectly willing for alteration that does not undermine the broad principle of international action of nations to minimize the danger of war and its spread.

(5.) I have found but few men and women in the United States who do not desire a League based upon the above broad principles. I do not believe the American people who have even a moral suggestion of the necessity to enter upon war as a method of prevention of war, that they want some secondary change in the covenant as to representation and better expressed protection of our traditional policies.

For one who ardently advocates a League, I have no faith in a pact that will delay the world's peace for over a year by obstinately refusing to meet the public demand on points of method that even they must appear to question by proposing some kind of reservations. I have confidence in the assurances of the Republican party to bring about an agreement to install the major purposes of a League, and that when President Harding we will have leaders of practical statesmanship who will quickly dispose of the problem in a large, broad-minded way, building upon the present structure—and then get to our other great job—economic reconstruction.

PEN POINTS

BY THE STAFF.

"Damaged Goods"—the banked situation.

Only three more weeks to do the welkin ringing.

So far nobody has seen the price of gasoline do the tail spin.

Almost time for a recrudescence of the "master-mind" talk in the Denton case.

Why not an all-the-year holiday, I mean? But the dealers are not getting the idea three cheers and a tiger.

Another way to solve the high cost of houses is to build more houses. This suggestion is not at all original.

A new instrument, the saxophone, has been introduced into the eastern bands. Wonder if Senator Harding can play it?

But three more weeks of the national campaign, and the Democrats are grabbing at straws. It is the open season for straw grabbing.

The voters of this country will pass judgment on the administration of President Wilson on November 2. That is the question before the American people.

Gov. Cox is always the "last word" and never the statesman hindered by approaching responsibilities. But possibly he knows that the Presidential responsibility is approaching.

The local machine boosting Senator Phelan for reelection is having its troubles. Phelan voted against Article X, declared to be the "heart of the Versailles pact" by President Wilson himself.

The campaign fund collectors are having their troubles in the Pelton Building. Clerks refuse to be shaken down for an assessment. They see no reason for throwing their good money away.

Gov. Cox says the adoption of the Wilson covenant would mean disarmament, although the Democratic administration has pledged the League with proposals to the largest peace army and navy in American history. But that is Cox's way.

THE BISHOP'S SECTION.

The first section of the impressive procession marched in the shadow of the cross, and was formed of those taking part in the ritual of the day, the Presiding Bishop, Rt.
Rev. Joseph Hardsell Johnson, D.D.,
Bishop of Los Angeles; Rt.
Rev. William Ford Nichols, D.D.,
Bishop of California; Rt. Rev. Edward Lambe Parsons, D.D., Coadjutor Bishop of California, consecrator.

The Rt. Rev. William Theodotus Carey, D.D., Bishop of West Texas,
Rt. Rev. Theodore Payne
Thurston, D.D., Bishop of Oklahoma; Rt. Rev. Arthur Wheelock
Moulton, D.D., of Utah, presenters.
The Rev. John McKim, D.D., Bishop of Nevada, San Juan; Rt. Rev. Julius W.
Atwood, D.D., Bishop of Arizona;
the Rev. Anson R. Graves, D.D., retired Bishop of Kearney, Neb.; Rt.
Rev. William H. Moreland, Bishop of Idaho; Rt. Rev. George Hunting, D.D., Bishop of Eastern Oregon.

Other presbyters were Rev.
Arthur P. Nichols, D.D., rector of Trinity Church, New York City, mother church Bishop Stevens held his first clerical call as curate, the Rev. George E. Norton, rector of St. Michael and All Angels' Church, St. Louis.

The Rev. C. Rankin Barnes, rector of St. James' Church, South Pasadena, a long-time friend of Bishop Johnson, was the master of ceremonies and responsible for the perfect working of an intricate ceremonial.

The work of the choir and the intoning music under the direction of Albert Douglas, organist at the Pro-Cathedral, were important aids to the beauty of the service.

SOLEMN LITURGY.

The solemn liturgy of the Order of Consecration, new to most of the congregation, and heard for the first time in a Los Angeles church, proceeded with fidelity to the order, which has undergone little deviation since Christianity was young. The bishop-elect, accompanied by his presenters, was stationed at the steps of the chancel vested in his robes.

At the close of the consecration prayer, which was delivered by Bishop Capers of West Texas, in which he blessed the new Bishop was led to the priest when called by the archdeacon to the high altar, the preacher turned to the bishop-elect, and in a voice in which deep emotion trembled directly addressed the candidate:

"I have no anxiety for you, Dr.
Stevens," he said. "You were my companion and right-hand man in a difficult field. I know your faith, and your unselfishness of heart. I bid you God-speed in the great work laid upon you. The custody of the gospel is entrusted to you. It is a power which transforms, handed down directly from St. Paul and the Apostles. The Los Angeles diocese may, perhaps, be compared to the Rome of these days.
Chaos is abroad in the land. People in every quarter of the world are out of every faith and every creed.
The church has the power to bring order out of this chaos, and you are the guardian of that faith. I bid you put your trust in the simple gospel of Jesus Christ and be not dismayed."

The bishop-elect then advanced to the chancel rail and was formerly presented by Presiding Bishop Johnson to Bishop Moulton of Oklahoma, Bishop Thurston of Utah in the words: "Reverend Father in God,
I present unto you this Godly and well learned man to be Ordained and Consecrated Bishop."

CERTIFICATES READ.

The presiding bishop then demanded if canonical testimonials, the certificate of election, were read by Rev. Arnold G.
Mitchell of Long Beach; the canonical testimonial by the chancellor of the diocese, Frederick C. Valentine; the certificate of ordinations by Dr. George Davidson of Los Angeles; the grounds for election by Rev. Lee E. Learned of Pasadena; the certificate of compliance by Bishop F. Weld of Montecito; the certificate of standing as presented by Rev. Milton C. Dotson, president of the Standing Committee of the diocese; certificate of the consecration of the bishop-elect by Rt.
Rev. Joseph H. Atwood, D. D., of Arizona, and the commission to consecrate by Very Rev. William Mac-Donald, D. D., dean of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, Los Angeles.

In a clear voice heard throughout the church the bishop-elect made answer to the questions of conformity, or what would be in secular life the oath of office.

"In the name of God, Amen. I,
Joseph Leonard Stevens, chosen
Bishop-Coadjutor of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the diocese of California, do promise conformity to the doctrine, discipline and worship in the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. So help me God, through Jesus Christ."

The Litany and special prayers preceded the public interrogation of the bishop-elect, to the end, in the quaint phraseology of the rubric,
"that the congregation present may have a trial and bear witness, how you are minded to behave yourself in the Church of God."

THE SOLEMN MOMENT.

All this had been leading up through cumulative steps to the most solemn moment of all; the moment when the bishops present assembled about the kneeling candidate to perform the most ancient of rites, and by the laying on of hands following the intoning of the Veni Creator Spiritus,

"Some Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire."

gave to the church a new leader.

While the bishop-elect bowed beneath the imposition of hands the presiding bishop pronounced the sentence of consecration:

"Receive the Holy Ghost for the office and work of a Bishop in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the imposition of our hands; in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.
And remember that thou stir up the Grace of God, which is given thee by this imposition of our hands; for God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power and love and soberness."

A Bible was then placed in the hands of the newly created Bishop with an admonition to "hold up the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken, bring again the outcasts, seek the lost."

In the meantime the attending presbyters invested the Bishop with the full robes and regalia of his office, and the service reverted to the regular order of Holy Communion preceded by the offertory anthem,
"Ho, Every One That Thirsteth."

An early Communion was celebrated so that only the bishops and members of the family of the Coadjutor Bishop received at this time. Bishop Johnson was the celebrant.

Bishop Capers of West Texas, who preached the consecration sermon took his text from St. Paul, II Romans, sixteenth verse: "I am not ashamed of the Gospel, for it is the Power of God unto every one that believeth."

LINE OF SUCCESSION.

He reviewed the history of the church from its inception, and showed how the line of succession was established. At first the gospel was preached by those who had been eye-witnesses to the life and works of Jesus. They in turn communicated their knowledge to the first bishops and so on down to the present day. He dwelt upon the establishment of the covenant of the bread and wine, the body and blood of Christ transmitted through the ages for the pardoning of sin and the setting up of His kingdom on earth.

"The cross," the preacher said,
"measures man's destiny; it is the symbol of the gospel and the gospel is the expression of the incarnation and the bishops witness the instruments establishing the continuity and upholding the integrity of the church."

The new coadjutor-bishop of Los Angeles is 46 years old. He is a graduate of Bates University in Maine, B.A. In 1911 he secured an M.A. at Columbia and in 1914 became a doctor of philosophy at the University of New York. He was trained for the priesthood in the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge, was ordained a deacon in 1910 by Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts and a priest by Bishop Greer of New York the following year. He will make his first confirmation in San Diego next Sunday.

The consecration ceremony which takes first rank in the services of the church is a present-day reminder that the Episcopal church, as its name indicates, possesses the apostolic succession. An interesting statistical fact in connection with the event is that Bishop Johnson, who was consecrated in 1896 is No.
179 in the American Episcopate, while Bishop Stevens is No. 309, an indication of the expansion of the church during the quarter of a century.

Ever since the second century the historic church has insisted on three bishops as being necessary for the consecration of another. This made great difficulty in our colonial days, when the American churches were treated as a mere mission by the Mother Church of England, and no bishop was sent over to care for them.

Soon after the Revolutionary War
Rev. Samuel Seabury was elected bishop of Connecticut by the churchmen of that State and was sent to England for consecration. As a loyal American he refused to take the oath of allegiance to the British King as required by the English bishops. He accordingly went to Scotland, where, in 1784 he was consecrated by the Scottish bishops, Kilgour, Petrie and Skinner, in the city of Aberdeen.

TRACE THEIR LINEAGE.

The authorities of the Church of England then relented and ceased to demand the oath of allegiance from American bishops-elect. Accordingly, in 1787, Rev. William White was consecrated as bishop of Pennsylvania, and the Rev. Samuel Prevoost, as bishop of New York.
The consecration occurred in Lambeth Palace, London, and was administered by the archbishop of Canterbury, the archbishop of York and Bishops Moss and Hinchcliffe.
The American Episcopal Church
then had sufficient headship to carry on its own succession, but its more than 300 bishops since then all trace their Episcopal lineage through these three.

The ancient Church of England had secured its original bishops from the continent of Europe, where bishops had in turn been secured from Asia Minor and from Palestine, the birthplace of the Christian church. These latter bishops were able to trace their line of consecration directly to the apostles. Therefore, it is explained, when the succession is spoken of today, it refers to the continuous line of Episcopal consecrations stretching back from the ceremonial of yesterday to that far-away day when St. Paul wrote:
"I am not ashamed of the gospel for it is the power of God unto every one who believeth."

Throughout the centuries the service of consecration of a bishop has been of a most solemn character, as befitting the highest office of the church. Though details of the service have varied in different countries, the essence of it has always been, as it was with the apostles, the laying on of hands by bishops only with a form of prayer that the holy spirit might empower the new bishop to the performance of his functions.

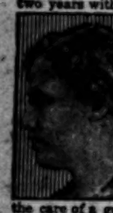
LIFE WAS A MISERY TO HER

Says this Woman Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound



Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring my sickness on. I was weak and languid, had no energy, and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to dozens of my friends and shall always recommend it."—LILLIAN T. THARP, 824 S. 6th St., Carrollton, Ky.

CHURCH SCORES PUBLIC DANCES.

Methodists of Pasadena Adopt Resolutions.

Prominent Altadena Resident Wanders from Home.

Crown City to Have More Letter Carriers.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Oct. 13.—The community dances held weekly during the summer and autumn at Tournament Park are deplored, and the City Commissioners and Drama Leaguers, who have been sponsors for them, are scored by local Methodists, according to resolutions adopted by the quarterly conference of the First Methodist Church of Pasadena.

The resolutions, which were made public today by church leaders, do not mention the community dances by that designation, but there is no mistaking the meaning of section 2 of the resolutions, which reads:

"That we deplore the action of our city authorities and others in establishing and maintaining at some expense to the city and to the great grief and serious embarrassment of many citizens, especially mothers, a wide open public dance, which is not only in itself demoralizing, but also furnishes ample opportunity for procurers and denizens of the underworld to ply their nefarious traffic."

The third section of the resolutions urges all the churches and affiliated bodies, the W.C.T.U. and others to join in a protest against the public dance, which the resolutions further describe as "one of the trio of evils—the saloon, the dance hall and the brothel."

Members of the Pasadena branch of the Drama League deny that any "denizens of the underworld" have plied their traffic at the Pasadena community dances. They uphold the community dances as supervised affairs which serve to keep young people out of mischief elsewhere. The leaguers supervise and conduct the dances, with the co-operation of the city.

ALTADENAN WANDERS OFF.

Police and Boy Scouts are searching tonight for R. W. Hoskins, an elderly resident of Altadena, who is missing from his home. He is 68 years old. Relatives believe that, suffering from an aberration of old age, he has wandered away. He has been gone since last evening. The missing man and his family are prominent members of the Altadena Methodist Church.

MORE LETTER CARRIERS.

Nine additional letter carriers will go into the service of the Pasadena postoffice, November 1, it was announced today by Postmaster Clark McLain. Five will relieve the crowded routes in Pasadena proper, two will go to Altadena and two to South Pasadena.

MAKING HEALTH SURVEY.

The joint health and nursing bureau of the municipality and the Pasadena school district is engaged in a health survey of the city. The work is under direction of Dr. J. Severy Hibben, City Health Officer, and Mrs. Nina Carson, head nurse of the city and school nurses. The welfare bureau of the schools is co-operating.

MANY IMMIGRANTS COMING.

Such a flood of immigrants from Europe is pouring through Ellis Island into the United States that New York today looks like a foreign city, said Courtenay Monsen, son of Frederick Monsen, the explorer, who returned today from an eastern trip.

HOME BREW STARTS FISH WORM FROLIC.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONG BEACH, Oct. 13.—George John Mitchell, who lives at the foot of Third street, in the harbor district, made a quantity of home brew recently for his personal use.

It did not turn out to his satisfaction, so he dumped it in the yard in the rear of his house. Now in this back yard there is a little pool which contains scores of angle worms, the owner being an ardent follower of Izaak Walton.

The brew ran into the pool and the next day the worms woke up with headaches and dark-brown tastes, it is declared. Some of the wigglers showed symptoms of joy by crawling out on the bank, where they performed acrobatic stunts and serpentine dances. Some, perhaps a little more affected than the rest, started to climb near-by vines and trees. Conditions were reported to be almost back to normal today.

MUST HAVE MORE ROOM IN SCHOOLS.

SCHOLARS CROWD BUILDINGS AT POMONA; OTHER NEWS NOTES.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

POMONA, Oct. 12.—That the present shortage of equipment and lack of space in the grammar schools in this city are acute and must be solved immediately was made emphatic today by Superintendent of Schools Guy V. Whaley, who issued a statement to the effect that the only remedy for this condition is new schools.

All grammar schools have waiting lists and the High School is cramped for space in which to conduct the physical education classes.

The Board of Education, which meets Wednesday, will have numerous important questions to solve and immediate action is necessary if the students are to be accommodated, according to the superintendent.

SPEEDER MAKES ESCAPE.

A speeding red automobile without lights struck William Malcome late last night as he was walking along North Garey avenue, near the Pomona Valley Hospital. A passing motorist found him lying in the road and with the help of two other men carried him to the hospital, where is was found he was seriously injured.

The local police are searching for the driver of the speeding machine.

NEED REGULATION.

Pomona, in the opinion of Chief of Police Leter, is fast approaching the time when some better system of traffic regulation must be adopted. He is seriously considering the placing of officers on the principal corners of the town to direct the ever-increasing flow of traffic during the rush hours of the afternoon. This is made necessary by the fact that motorists continually disregard arm signals and traffic laws.

This is expected to be decided at the next Council meeting.

Change Meeting Date.

Abraham Lincoln Fortress, No. 1, Daughters of the G.A.R., yesterday announced that meetings will be held hereafter on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month at 8 p.m. instead of the second and fourth Fridays. The meeting place is in Patriotic Hall.

WANTS LEAGUE MEET.

Santa Monica to Ask for the Next Convention.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA MONICA, Oct. 13.—When the California League of Municipalities meets at Chico November 11, the Santa Monica delegates, consisting of Mayor S. L. Barkley and Commissioners W. H. Carter and F. J. Townsend, will invite the league to come to Santa Monica next year.

The request will be especially urgent, in fact, as it is believed by the city that Santa Monica would gain as well as the visitors by the convention.

"Santa Monica is typical of the cities that are spending most of their energies toward growth," said Mayor Barkley today, "and it will be well to have demonstrations and experiences of other cities presented here, where thousands of Santa Monicans can see and hear them."

EXHIBIT DE LUXE.

Stock from Baldwin Ranch Comes to Riverside Fair.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 13.—The arrival of a special express train of five coaches containing the thoroughbred horses and other stock which Mrs. Anita Baldwin will exhibit at the Southern California Fair this week, caused a ripple of excitement to run through the tent city rising on the fair grounds today. The attendants, dressed in uniforms of spotless white, appear no whit less groomed than the stock of which they have charge.

The shipment includes the famous Holstein "King Korndyke Pontiac Acme," valued at $41,000, and the French Percheron, "Manon," regarded as one of the finest animals in the world. The Santa Anita ranch exhibit, with other notable entries, will be on view tomorrow, the opening day of the fair.

GOVERNOR ADDRESSES REPUBLICAN MEETING.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Oct. 13.—The big meeting of the campaign for Redlands, according to the present plans will be held on the evening of October 18, when Gov. William Stephens will be present to address the voters.

The Governor has always been popular here and especially so because of his decided stand on the Japanese question. The meeting will be held out of doors in the great amphitheater if possible and it is expected that 4000 or 5000 will hear the address.

The Republican organization is well under way and the slogan of the leaders is "the largest Republican vote Redlands has ever given." Redlands has never failed to return a big vote for the Republican candidates.

RIVERSIDE PACKER ACCIDENT VICTIM.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 13.—Robert W. Russell, manager of the Blue Ribbon Packing Company, was seriously injured at the Adams-street crossing of the Pacific Electric's Magnolia-avenue line today when he attempted to cross the track in his automobile. Motorman H. E. Stearns says he did not see the machine until it was upon the track. Russell suffered two fractured ribs and internal injuries.

PREVENT POOL PLAYING.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA MONICA, Oct. 13.—In an effort to enforce the law forbidding minors to frequent pool halls, the Santa Monica police have launched a campaign, and today arrested C. L. Beekman, proprietor of a pool hall on Marine street, on a charge of allowing boys under 18 years of age to play. He was placed under $50 cash bail.

He stated today that he will contest the case.

PIGEON RACE SUNDAY.

The Southern California Racing Pigeon Club will stage a 100-mile pigeon race from Fresno to Los Angeles next Sunday, it was announced yesterday. William Huber won the last race from Tipton to Los Angeles with 1036.22 yards per minute. J. McMillan was second, 1012.01 yards per minute.

EVERYBODY SPOKE WELL OF IT, SAYS SCOTT

"That Is Why I Began Taking Tanlac, But Now I Know from Personal Experience What It Will Do," States L. A. Man.

F. T. Scott, proprietor of Scott's Market in the Economy Public Market at the corner of Third and Main streets, Los Angeles, is one of the latest to testify to the remarkable reconstructive powers of Tanlac. Mr. Scott, or "Scotty," as he is familiarly known by all his friends and acquaintances, resides at 4425 North Griffin avenue. His full statement, regarding the benefits he has derived from Tanlac, follows:

"I took Tanlac because everybody spoke so well of it, but now I've tried it myself I know from personal experience what it will do.

"I had always enjoyed good health up until about a year ago when my stomach got out of order and since then I have been [illegible] and day out with an awful [illegible] indigestion. Los Angeles file clerks make fine showing

HOW fast can your file clerk produce a letter from your files?

If it takes her more than 6.3 seconds on the average, your filing system is slow, according to actual tests made in a number of Los Angeles offices equipped with the "Y and E" Direct Name Filing System.

Official tests made in hundreds of offices throughout the country averaged less than 10 seconds!

If filing is a sore spot in your office—if it takes your clerks minutes where it ought to take seconds to produce a given letter from your files, let us tell you more about the "Y and E" Direct Name Filing System.

The Dread Pyorrhea Begins With Bleeding Gums

Pyorrhea's infecting germs cause many ills. Medical science has proven this.

Diseased conditions, which not long ago doctors were unable to trace to a cause, are now known to be the result of Pyorrhea germs that breed in pockets about the teeth. Rheumatism, anaemia, nervous disorders and other diseases have been traced in many cases to this Pyorrhea infection.

Don't let Pyorrhea work its wicked will on your body. Visit your dentist frequently for tooth and gum inspection.

And watch your gums yourself. Pyorrhea, which afflicts four out of five people over forty, begins with tender and bleeding gums; then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of poisons generated at their base.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's firms the gums hard and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

SPORTS MOTORING FILMLAND DRAMA

WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP IS WON BY CLEVELAND.

Stanley Coveleskie Cinches Title and Achieves His Third Victory of the Big Series.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CLEVELAND (O.) Oct. 12.—Baseball champions of the world—the mighty American League club won the supreme title this afternoon when the Indians defeated the Brooklyn Nationals in the seventh and deciding game of the 1920 series, 5 to 1. Tonight Cleveland is celebrating and it is doubtful that a government proclamation announcing the election of this city as the new capital of the United States would create a ripple of interest among baseball fans.

THE DEMON POLE.

The shut-out victory was chiefly credited to Stanley Coveleskie, veteran hurler of the local team, aided by an air-tight defense on the part of his team-mates at the critical times. Coveleskie, a native of Shamokin, Pa., coal town, let the Robins down with five hits. Only two Brooklyn players reached second base and only five Brooklyn batsmen were left on bases. Coveleskie's fast in winning three of the five games necessary to win the championship for Cleveland will go down as one of the outstanding features of world's series history and one of the most prominent and praiseworthy factors in a series which has furnished more sensational incidents than any similar event in years.

JUST TWO RUNS.

The Brooklyn batters accumulated just two runs off the moistened slants of Coveleskie in twenty-seven innings. The Robins down with one run in the first contest at Brooklyn October 6, allowed them a second run on Saturday and shut them out again. It is doubtful that a more perfect exhibition of pitching has been staged before the fans in any world series since 1905, when Christy Mathewson, then at the zenith of his great career with the New York Giants, shut out the Philadelphia Athletics in three games.

Cleveland, as a team, grew more dangerous as the series progressed and their feat in winning four straight games from Brooklyn after losing away to an indifferent start reflects credit on the club one deserving of all the support and enthusiasm which Cleveland baseball fans have evoked in this city. They reached the apex of their baseball strength in Jamieson, Grimes, the National League star deliverer of this type of ball, for seven solid hits, clinched the game before the half-way mark was passed the play with several examples of baseball strategy.

A WILD SCENE.

The demonstration today, which followed the final put-out of Myers which gave the championship for baseball, surpassed any similar scenes of several seasons. Thousands of men, boys and women poured out of the bleachers and grandstand and engulfed the victorious players in a human avalanche. It was a veritable battle for the members of the team in the march to the clubhouse with scores of fans attempting to shake hands or pat them on the back.

Tris Speaker, sensing the coming outburst of enthusiasm, made a bee line from centerfield toward the grand stand, where his mother and other relatives occupied a lower tier box. His progress was slow but once he reached the rail, he vaulted over the iron front and into his mother's arms like a small schoolboy. For a moment there was a complete cessation of the cheering, but it broke out with treble vigor when Mrs. Speaker hugged, patted and kissed her gray-haired son and the latter responded in a manner which indicated that he regarded his mother's approval and petting far above any other rewards that might come to him as a result of the victory of his team in winning the greatest honor that can come to a professional baseball player.

DEMAND SPEECH.

When Speaker finally broke away from the cheering crowd to enter the club's dressing-rooms, the throng swept back to cheer and demand a speech from his mother.

Mrs. Speaker waved her hand and Owner J. C. Dunn of the club addressed them for her. During the height of the demonstration, Charles Ebbets of the Brooklyn club, crossed the field and congratulated the executive of the winning team. Then the throngs slowly dispersed to discuss at their leisure the successful climax of Cleveland's forty-year battle for a major league pennant and a world series banner.

Weather conditions were ideal for the closing game. Every seat and foot of standing room inside the park was occupied and trees, housetops, telegraph poles and advertising signs overlooking the park held men and boys, who clung to precarious perches throughout the game.

The paid attendance was 27,538 and the gate receipts $83,900, largest of the series.

UNUSUAL GAME.

That those who witnessed the closing contest saw a game of unusual standard is shown by the box score, but there were features which cannot be illuminated by cold figures. Despite the two errors charged to Shortstop Sewell, he made two plays which went far to eliminate his miscues. In the fifth inning he stopped Miller's smash back of second base, while on the dead run and got the batter with a fine throw to first. In the same inning Coveleskie was almost knocked down by a line drive from Grimes's bat, but chased the ball halfway to third and got his man at the initial bag.

In Cleveland's half of the fifth, Right Fielder Griffith made a thrilling try for Spencer's triple which scored Jamieson. After a long sprint he got his finger tips on the ball just as he crashed into the stands, but could not hold the hard-hit sphere. Second Baseman Kilduff also came in for a round of applause in the second session when he came in on the grass on a full sprint and scooped up Smith's bounder which had cleared Grimes's head by several feet and while off balance whipped the ball to Konetchy for the out.

COLIMA WINS THE FIGHT.

Young George Goes Four Rounds at Vernon, but Hardly Lands a Blow.

Eight thousand persons, almost a capacity crowd for Jack Doyle's new open-faced fight arena at Vernon, sat out under the stars last night and watched Bert Colima decisively outpoint Young George in the main event of a rousing card.

It was Colima's fight all the way. George hardly landed a blow. After the bout, the blond battler leaned over and whispered to the boys in the press row that he had been sick for almost a week. In justice to George it can be said that his actions in the ring just about proved his words.

Both boys were over-cautious throughout the fight, and for practically two rounds there was scarcely a solid blow landed. Colima slipped in one or two left hooks to the jaw, and that was his long suit all through the brawl. A vicious mix-up on the ropes toward the end of the third round furnished about the sole opportunity for the fans to yell. The decision was well received.

The semi-windup between Ernie Gooseman and Georgie Spencer ended with honors even. Gooseman had the first two rounds and Spencer the last two.

The scrap between Joe Fisher of the U.S.S. New Mexico and Henry Gastine was a humdinger, easily one of the best of the evening. Gastine almost ruined Fisher with a right-hand crack to the jaw in the first round, only to have Fisher upset him with a thump to the stomach in the same frame. The cool night air put a lot of ginger in the boys, and they fought furiously in the remaining three rounds, with honors pegging along on the same basis.

Kid Wagner, the funmaker, took his first knockdown since he has been fighting at Vernon, at the hands of Joe Rooney, in the second round of their set-to, but Rooney had to quit at the end of the session because of a kink in his heart.

Jack Doyle responded to the demand of the huge crowd for an extra bout and put on Louis Garcia and Eddie Burke. This, too, ended in the second round, when Garcia fouled Burke unintentionally. It was a low blow that crumpled up Burke on the canvas.

George Drew, the colored boy, bumped off Jack Oliver in the third round with a wicked right flush to the chin just as Oliver was uncovering a wild swing.

Game little Sailor Walter took a beating from Kid Layman and Tommye Harris and Johnny Woodruff boxed a draw.

TAKE IN IS OVER HALF A MILLION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CLEVELAND, Oct. 12.—The total attendance for the seven games of the world's series was 178,357, it was announced tonight. The total receipts were $564,788, of which $56,478.80 goes to the National Commission, $293,482.94 to the owners of the two clubs and $214,876.26 to the players.

THREE-YEAR-OLDS STAR.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LEXINGTON (Ky.) Oct. 12.—Establishment of a new world record of 2:02 3-4 for 3-year-old trotters by Sister Bertha in a race against time and a reduction of the record for 3-year-old pacing colts twice in the same event, first by Trampsafe to 2:02 3-4 and then by Frisco June to 2:01 1-4, were the features of today's grand circuit card.

The 3-year-old pacing colt record was set in the Tennessee, in which Frisco June took the last two heats in fast time after having finished last in the first mile. She was driven by W. W. Fleming.

Peter Manning, favorite, took the Castleton cup for 2:07 trotters in straight heats. Best time, 2:03 3-4.

The contest developed in the Tennessee was considered by horsemen to be the best ever paced by 3-year-old horses. The times for the three heats are the fastest on record for 3-year-old pacers. Breaks made Frisco June a loser in the first heat. Trampsafe went three-quarters of this heat in 1:30 1-4 and was pulled up at the wire. She was considered a sure winner of the next heat, but Frisco June displayed sensational speed and broke Trampsafe's new record.

Millie Irwin and Mightell scored easy victories in the 2:08 trot and second division of the 2:12 trot, respectively.

The Fleming brothers, W. W., W. R. and Vic, drove the winners in three of the four events.

ORIOLE GRADUATES SELDOM TURN THINGS UPSIDE DOWN IN WORLD SERIES BASEBALL.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

In recapitulation, Oriole-hatched managers have had eleven shots at the tall title and have brought it down only once, and yet baseball has produced no smarter men than McGraw, Robinson, Gleason and Jennings. Possibly proving that a jinx is more muscular than brains.

It is reported that the grand jury will start an investigation to try and find out whether any oblong packages changed hands in the Coast League last season.

People are wondering whether the investigation will lead to one of the brick yards or some filthy-lucre shop.

Many have felt that baseball was too highly commercialised already with paid ads painted on the inside of all the parks.

Dishonest money will be found at the root of many a razz-berry bush.

A ball player, like a woman, must not only be above suspicion, but prove that he is.

Baltimore's old Orioles were gobby with brains. They won pennants and graduated managers who won other pennants. But for some reason those holding Oriole diplomas are flivvers in the world series. McGraw is the only one in the celebrated bunch to cop in the fall derby, and his percentage isn't high.

SACRAMENTO PLANS MAILS WELCOME DAY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 12.—When Walter (Duster) Mails, Cleveland American League southpaw, and one of the brighter lights of the world series, returns to his home in Sacramento he will find awaiting him a rousing reception. The baseball committee of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce telegraphed today to learn the date of his home-coming.

Mails will be met at the railway station with a brass band and under automobile conveyance will be taken to a hotel where he will be guest of honor at a banquet, the committee announced.

MEETING OF THE BALL MOGULS SET.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

AUBURN (N. Y.) Oct. 12.—Notice of the twentieth annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues was sent out today by Secretary John Farrell. The convention will be held in Kansas City, commencing Tuesday, November 9. The National Board of Arbitration will hold daily sessions during the convention.

The annual drafting of players in the National Association was held today.

POLY VICTORIOUS IN SWIMMING MEET.

Polytechnic defeated the Central intermediate swimming school team at the Vignes-street city plunge by a score of 38 to 32 yesterday. The results follow:

50-yard dash—Mayer (Poly) first, May (Poly) second, Gorman (C.) third.

100-yard dash—Gorman (C.) first, Schleppe (C.) second, Mathay (Poly) third.

220-yard dash—Mathay (Poly) first, Chasty (Poly) second, Gorman (C.) third.

Diving—May (Poly) first, Schleppe (C.) second, Cusick (C.) third.

Breast stroke race—Mathay (Poly) first, Schleppe (C.) second, Cherry (C.) third.

Plunge for distance—Mills (Poly) first, Wilson (C.) second, Bell (C.) third.

Back stroke race—Chico (C.) first, H. Bruce (Poly) second, Mills (Poly) third.

Relay race—J. Gorman, S. Schleppe, L. Cusick and H. Cherry (C.) won.

NO GAME BETWEEN GIANTS AND SOX.

There will be no game the coming Sunday between the White Sox and Alexander Giants, rivals for baseball honors in the colored world. Joe Pirrone, the demon booker, announced yesterday. The Giants are all wrought up because the White Sox are importing five new men from the East and refuse to play in the presence of so much class.

CARPENTIER IS NOT SO ROTTEN.

In Fact Bat Levinsky Says He's Pretty Good.

Frenchman Knocks Our Hero for a Pretty Loop.

Georges is Now in Line for Dempsey Battle.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

JERSEY CITY (N. J.) Oct. 12.—Georges Carpentier, the European heavyweight champion, knocked out Battling Levinsky, holder of the American light heavyweight title, in the fourth round of a scheduled twelve-round bout tonight. Carpentier, who holds the light heavyweight championship title of Europe, thus becomes the world's title-holder in that division.

Early in 1918 Jack Dempsey, who won the world's heavyweight championship, knocked out Levinsky in three rounds at Philadelphia. Tonight Carpentier failed to equal Dempsey's time in finishing Levinsky, but he is the only one outside of the champion who has knocked out Levinsky since the latter became prominent as a fighter.

By his victory over Levinsky, Carpentier has earned the right to meet Dempsey for the world's championship.

IN GOOD SHAPE.

Levinsky was in splendid condition and so was Carpentier. From the middle of the first round, when the Frenchman began to cut loose, the outcome was inevitable. His blows were well delivered and effective, while Levinsky's plucky returns were too light to do much damage. Twice in the second round Carpentier sent Levinsky to the floor of the ring with hard right crosses. During the third session Carpentier slowed up a bit and seemed undecided as to what his next move should be. When he did start after his man, however, he used both hands powerfully and Levinsky, who always was credited with being able to absorb punishment, was visibly weakening.

In the final round Carpentier simply battered Levinsky into submission and when the Battler fell almost through the ropes in a neutral corner he was unable to get up while Referee Ertle counted him out.

Levinsky was badly punished, while Carpentier did not show a mark when he left the ring.

CONDITIONS GOOD.

Weather conditions were conducive to the comfort of the spectators, many of whom, however, took the precaution of bringing overcoats or wraps.

When the first of the preliminary bouts was called every seat in the ball park was occupied and a fringe of humanity lined the boundaries of the outfield.

MAN-O'-WAR IS CHAMPION NAG.

Has Eight-Length Lead Over the Second Best.

Sir Barton Leads at Start, but That's All.

Owner of Winner Retires Him from the Track.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WINDSOR (Ont.) Oct. 12.—The thoroughbred horse championship of the continent rests tonight on the American side of the border.

Man-o'-War, greatest 3-year-old of the year, galloped home with the equine honors of 1920 at Kenilworth Jockey Club track this afternoon a full eight lengths in front of Sir Barton, the great 4-year-old from Commander J. K. L. Ross's stables. The time was 2:03, more than a second faster than the old Canadian record for the distance.

Samuel D. Riddle of Philadelphia, owner of the victor, won a purse of $75,000 and a gold cup valued at $5000. The race was a mile and a quarter at weight for age, the winner carrying 120 pounds to the loser's 126. Between 29,000 and 30,000 persons paid to see the two great horses race, the attendance figures and gate receipts setting a new high mark in the history of Canadian racing.

The time, 2:03 flat, was more than a second slower than the record of both horses. Sir Barton has a mark of 2:01 4-5, which was later tied by Man-o'-War. The slow time was partly due to the fact that the victor was never in danger from the time he took the lead at the first sixteenth pole.

Sir Barton drew the rail and was away with a jump, but the lead was short-lived. Jockey Clarence Kummer sent Man-o'-War alongside and then ahead. When the stands were reached, at the end of the first quarter, the Riddle horse had a two-length lead. Frankie Keough, who had the mount on the Canadian horse, rode a hard race, but was unable to cut down that distance.

Kummer kept Man-o'-War in check to the three-quarter pole, then let out a wrap and the great 3-year-old responded with a burst of speed that left Sir Barton eight lengths behind before the stretch was reached. The last quarter-mile down the stretch was an easy gallop, with Kummer easing up his mount.

The result of the race was no surprise to track followers, who had held the American horse a heavy favorite, despite the fact that his racing experience is a year shorter than that of Sir Barton.

With today's purse and cup, his winnings total more than $250,000, as compared to the $159,550 won by Domino in three years. Man-o'-War was purchased by Mr. Riddle from Maj. August Belmont as a yearling for $5000. He has been beaten but once, Harry Payne Whitney's Upset taking the Sanford memorial from him at Saratoga last year.

Motor of Monarchs and Monarch of Motors

The Principle That Saves Principal

The principle involved in the design of the Willys-Knight Motor is so mechanically perfect that very little principal is involved in its maintenance.

It has no valves to grind, its carbon deposit is negligible, and continuous use simply puts it in finer trim, for it is a feature of the Knight Sleeve-Valve Motor that it actually improves with use.

It is a car of magnificent distances, cumulative power and ascending efficiency, whose assessments for maintenance are lighter than on any car not operated on the sleeve-valve principle.

THE GAME PLAY BY PLAY.

The play-by-play story of the seventh and final game in the world's series between Brooklyn and Cleveland follows:

FIRST INNING.

Brooklyn—Olson up. Olson popped to Gardner. Olson hitting the first ball pitched. Sheehan up. Ball 1. Strike 1. Ball 2. Strike 2. Sheehan fell down swinging at the ball and the crowd laughed. Sheehan flied out to Jamieson, who came in fast to make the catch. Griffith up. Strike 1. Johnston took Griffith's grounder and tossed to Coveleskie, who failed to touch the bag. It was an error for Coveleskie under the rules. Wheat up. Strike 1. Wheat sent a high fly to Wambsganss. NO RUNS, NO HITS, ONE ERROR.

Cleveland—Jamieson up. Strike 1. Jamieson went out at first to Konetchy, unassisted. Wambsganss up. Wambsganss flied to Wheat. Speaker up. Ball 1. Ball 2. Strike 1. Speaker forced out to Sheehan. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

SECOND INNING.

Brooklyn—Myers up. Strike 1. Strike 2. Ball 1. Foul. Sewell threw out Myers at first. Konetchy up. Strike 1. Foul, strike 2. Gardner threw out Konetchy at first. Kilduff up. Strike 1. Strike 2. Kilduff went out at first, Sewell to Johnston. Sewell made a nice stop and a pretty throw. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

Cleveland—Smith up. Ball 1. Ball 2. Strike 1. Kilduff threw out Smith at first on a pretty play, taking the ball behind the box and making a snap throw. Gardner up. Ball 1. Foul. Strike 1. Sheehan took Gardner's grounder and threw over Konetchy's head. Gardner held first, while the Clevelanders claimed he was entitled to go to second on the overthrow. Umpire O'Day allowed the claim and Gardner walked down to second. Johnston up. Ball 1. Ball 2. Ball 3. Strike 1. Strike 2. Johnston walked. Sewell up. Strike 1. Ball 1. Foul, strike 2. Foul. Ball 2. Sewell lined out to Griffith. Gardner held second. O'Neill up. Strike 1. Strike 2. Foul. Kilduff threw out O'Neill at first. NO RUNS, NO HITS, ONE ERROR.

THIRD INNING.

Brooklyn—Miller up. Ball 1. Strike 1. Strike 2. Ball 2. Miller fanned, his third strike being a drop ball which he failed to go after. Grimes up. Grimes got a Texas leaguer back of short. Olson up. Strike 1. Strike 2. Sewell zeroed up Olson's grounder and it went for an error. Sheehan up. Sheehan's grounder hit Olson on the leg and Olson was declared out. Sheehan is credited with a hit and Grimes was sent back to second base. Griffith up. Strike 1. Griffith flied out to Smith. NO RUNS, NO HITS, ONE ERROR.

Cleveland—Coveleskie up. Strike 1. Strike 2. Coveleskie struck out on three pitched balls. Jamieson up. Grimes took Jamieson's smash and threw him out at first. Grimes's hand was hurt in catching Jamieson's hot grounder, and play was suspended. The crowd applauded Grimes when he resumed pitching. Wambsganss up. Ball 1. Ball 2. Strike 1. Ball 3. Foul. Wambs scratched an infield hit. Speaker up. Strike 1. Foul, strike 2. Ball 1. Kilduff threw out Speaker at first. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

FOURTH INNING.

Brooklyn—Wheat up. Wheat got a hit up against the screen for a single, but went out at second, trying to stretch it, Smith to Wambsganss. Myers up. Gardner took Myers's bunt and threw him out. Konetchy up. Ball 1. Konetchy arched a fly to Jamieson. NO RUNS, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

Cleveland—Smith up. Smith went out to Konetchy, unassisted. Gardner up. Strike 1. Ball 1. Gardner got a hit past Kilduff. Johnston up. Ball 1. Johnston singled to right. Gardner went to third. It was a hit and run play. Sewell up. Foul, strike 1. Strike 2. Sewell flied to Wheat, Gardner holding third. O'Neill up. Strike 1. Ball 1. Gardner scored on a delayed steal on which Grimes, after intending the throw, threw wild to center-field. Foul. Strike 2. Ball 2. Ball 3. O'Neill flied out to Griffith. ONE RUN, TWO HITS, ONE ERROR.

FIFTH INNING.

Brooklyn—Kilduff up. Strike 1. Ball 1. Foul, strike 2. Ball 2. Kilduff lined out to Speaker. Miller up. Sewell took Miller's grounder behind the bag and got his man at first. Grimes up. CHAMPIONSHIP TO CLEVELAND.

in the fourth inning. After E. Smith had grounded out, Gardner beat out a hit past Kilduff and went to third on a hit-and-run play when W. Johnston singled to right. Sewell flied out and Johnston followed with a delayed steal. The ball was slippery and when Grimes threw to second after taking Miller's quick return, the ball went wild and Gardner scored.

The Indians annexed their next tally in the fifth inning. Coveleskie opened the inning by striking out, but Jamieson came through with a scratch infield hit. Wambsganss flied out and Jamieson stole second. Speaker followed with a hard drive against the newly erected stands in right center field and Jamieson crossed the plate.

FINAL TALLY.

The final run of the series came in the seventh. O'Neill started the inning with a double to left center, but was run down when Coveleskie grounded to Grimes. Coveleskie, however, managed to take second while O'Neill was being retired and he romped home when Jamieson drove the ball to right field for two bases.

It had been planned to send Rube Marquard against the Indians in an attempt to check the winning streak of Speaker's men, but owing to the court action today, in which the pitcher was charged with violating the exhibition ticket ordinance and fined $1 and costs, Manager Robinson switched to Grimes in a last forlorn hope.

Analysis of the pitching records today indicates that the superior control of Coveleskie was responsible for his victory, just as it was in the previous two games he won. The Cleveland hurler kept putting the ball over the plate and Brooklyn batters were forced to hit his first offerings.

FORCED TO THROW.

Coveleskie pitched only ninety times in the nine innings, while Grimes and Mamaux, the Brooklyn twirlers, were forced to throw 135 times. Only twenty-one of Coveleskie's efforts were called balls, 25 were strikes, 8 foul strikes and 3 fouls. He retired 12 men on flies and 16 sent out easy grounders. Five hits were made by Brooklyn. Coveleskie pitched only four times in the fourth inning.

The two Brooklyn pitchers sent over more strikes than Coveleskie but they also threw many more balls. Together in eight innings they pitched 51 balls, 25 strikes, 14 foul strikes, 7 fouls, put out 11 men on flies, 10 on rollers and allowed 7 hits.

ORIOLE SELDOM TURNS THINGS.

the Giants, has turned in something like six firsts and eight seconds, and yet in five flings at the world title he has copped but once. He won from the Athletics in 1905, but experienced defeat in its best-known form in 1911, 1912, 1913 and 1917.

Hughie Jennings, another manager cradled in an Oriole nest, won a whole squad of American League pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909, but each season shot under the mark in the October classic.

Now cometh Uncle Wilbert Robinson, another whilom Oriole, demonstrating that anything out of Baltimore seems to be a bloomer in the world play-off. When Uncle Wilbert parked himself under a horse blanket last night it was in the knowledge that he had failed in his second try at the large money.

Kid Gleason, another Oriole of bright plumage, lost in his one attempt, which was in 1919. True, the Kid probably would have won had he not been victimized by the wicked gamblers, and possibly might have changed the luck of the Baltimore brood.

Chauncey Olcott
Composer and America's Sweetest Singer of Irish Ballads, writes of the

Soloelle

The Tone-Coloring Solo Player Piano

"At last all lovers of Irish songs may enjoy the exquisite pleasure of playing these beautiful melodies for themselves on the Soloelle. With the marvelous Soloelle (that all can play) anyone can render these songs with all the sweetness, all the pathos and richness of melody and tone-color that make Irish songs so universally appealing. Try 'My Wild Irish Rose' or 'Mother Machree' on the Soloelle. You will be charmed."

Chauncey Olcott

The SOLOELLE is the one player piano that permits you yourself to feel and express your own musical thoughts and emotions.

Hear and play the SOLOELLE before buying any player piano.

First: The SOLOELLE stands alone in affording the operator the widest range of independent control of Tone Volume of Melody and Accompaniment separately.

SOLOELLE patents prevent successful imitation.

Second: The SOLOELLE stands alone in affording the operator the widest range of independent control of Tone Color of Melody and Accompaniment separately.

Again, SOLOELLE patents prevent successful imitation.

MIGHTY SLUGGER.

Pete Schneider has always been known as an erratic, but mighty slugger. He was one of the real heavers in the National League for several years when with the Cincinnati Reds. Later he went to the New York Yankees. Bill Essick got him from the Yankees.

He was tried here last spring on the mound for the Tigers, but was rather wild. Essick, finding he had enough good chuckers, sent Pete to Joe Mathes's Beaumont club in the Texas League. Joe, thinking that the hot weather would round Schneider into condition, used him for a while on the slab. Later he was sent to right field and he finished out a good season, especially with the willow.

Last week at Salt Lake, Pete hit a homer which many of the players there declared was the longest drive ever seen on the Mormon grounds. Schneider is a right hander and, like Babe Ruth, has a great pair of shoulders. The score:

ANGELS THROW IT INTO SACRAMENTO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 12.—Los Angeles scored five runs in the first three innings today and took the first game of the series from Sacramento, 5 to 2. McDonald hit a home run in the first inning, with Crandall on base, and Bassler secured another in the third after McDonald had been hit by a pitched ball. Brown held the Senators safely in the pinches. The score:

SALT LAKE WINS OPENING BATTLE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SALT LAKE, Oct. 12.—Griffith's single in the ninth inning, scoring Marty Krug, broke a seven-all tie today and enabled Salt Lake to take the first game of the series from Oakland, 8 to 7. The Oaks scored six runs in the first inning. Knight's homer with the bases loaded accounted for four of them. In the second, Salt Lake also scored six runs when both Krug and Sheely hit circuit drives. The bases were full when Krug got his. The score:

CONNOLLY HITS WINNING HOMER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—San Francisco won a pitchers' battle from Seattle today, 3 to 2, in ten innings, Connolly, the first man up for the Seals in the tenth, knocking the ball into the left-field bleachers for a home run. The Seals scored in the first inning, and Seattle evened matters in the fourth, when Bohne and Murphy worked a double steal in which Bohne crossed the plate for a tally. The score:

CARPENTIER IS NOT SO ROTTEN.

weight, had a shade of merit over his opponent, "Cupie" Collender of Minneapolis, in the six-round curtain raiser.

In the second bout, Frankie Burns, the veteran Jersey City featherweight, outfought and severely punished Patsy Johnson of Trenton, in every one of the six rounds.

Marcel Thomas, French welterweight champion, and Ted "Kid" Lewis, who claims to hold the British title, were the principles in the six-round semifinal. The weights were announced as 147 for Lewis and Thomas, 149½.

Thomas used a clever left hook effectively but was outclassed. Lewis caught him off balance with a hard left and almost put the Frenchman through the ropes as the gong sounded for the end of the second round. Lewis kept pounding him the last four rounds and Thomas was bleeding from the nose and mouth at the end of the sixth round, but had fought back pluckily throughout. It was Lewis's fight nearly all the way.

Carpentier, with his manager and seconds, entered the ring at 9:55 and received a welcome of hearty cheers, to which he responded by bowing gracefully several times.

SNAP PICTURES.

Levinsky followed two minutes later and then the men were formally introduced. Announcer Humphries stated that they were to fight twelve rounds for the light heavyweight championship of the world. A corps of photographers then began snapping pictures of the men as they stood together in a neutral corner of the ring.

Carpentier's weight was announced as 170½ pounds and Levinsky's, 175.

Harry Ertle of Jersey City, was the referee for the main bout.

First round: Carpentier led left and right landing lightly. Levinsky sent left and right to body at close quarters. Carpentier landed a hard right on the forehead and blocked a right cleanly. Carpentier sent right and left to body. Levinsky countered right to head. Carpentier crossed his right to face and hooked left to stomach. Both were very cool and sparring at bell. Carpentier's round.

Round four: Both fiddled for thirty seconds. Then Carpentier drove Levinsky across the ring landing lefts and rights at will, finally sending Levinsky down in a corner for the full count. Levinsky was not unconscious but he was tangled up in a corner on the ropes while he was counted out. Time of round 1:07.

WILBERT PRAISES TRIS'S BALL CLUB.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CLEVELAND, Oct. 12.—"Cleveland has a wonderful ball club and Tris Speaker and his men certainly deserve the splendid support they have received from the city," Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, said tonight after his club had lost the seventh and deciding contest in the world's series to the Cleveland Indians.

"It was a well-fought and honestly played series. We did our best, but we couldn't hit Cleveland's pitching. That's about all there is to say."

Manager Robinson denied rumors that he would manage the New York American League club next season.

"The owners of the Yankees aren't negotiating with me and I'm not negotiating with them," he said. "Reports that I am going to change my team are foolish and untrue. I expect to be right back in the National League next season, piloting Brooklyn to another pennant."

RUBE MARQUARD GETS THE GATE

Brooklyn Club Owner Tells What He Thinks.

Says Pitcher Can't be With Dodgers Next Year.

National League Official for Barring Him.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 12.—President Charles Ebbets of the Brooklyn National League Club tonight said that Rube Marquard, pitcher, who was fined $1 and costs today for violating the exhibition ticket ordinance, would never play with Brooklyn again.

"I'm through with him absolutely," said Mr. Ebbets. "He hasn't been released, however, and if anyone else wants him, they can have him. But Marquard will never again put on a Brooklyn uniform."

Mr. Heydler said he did not believe that Marquard would be in the National League next year.

"Marquard has hurt Brooklyn and he has hurt the National League by his action," said Mr. Heydler. "Baseball doesn't want men of his caliber and I don't think he will be back in the league next season, although I probably wont take any official action myself."

It was brought out during the testimony that Marquard had but twenty-four tickets for the Cleveland games and that when approached by a Brooklyn friend who asked him if he had any for sale, Marquard made a semijoking remark that he had, at a price several times their face value. Marquard's statement was overheard by a detective, who, when he saw the tickets in the hands of the pitcher, arrested him on the charge of speculating.

Marquard asked for a special hearing of his case, in view of the fact that he might participate in today's contest. Judge Silbert, after listening to testimony of the detective who arrested Marquard and the statement of the pitcher, said that he felt that Marquard had been sufficiently punished by the nation-wide publicity following the act and that he would fine him $1 and costs and dismiss the case.

Judge Silbert said that following the recent exposure of the baseball scandal, the good name of the game and from school.

had been injured and that it was a shame that a foolish action on the part of Marquard should have occurred at this time.

The National Commission took no action on Marquard at its meeting late today, B. B. Johnson, president of the American League, said tonight.

"I expected action' would be taken," Mr. Johnson said, "but Mr. Heydler declared it would not be necessary, saying: 'Marquard will be railroaded out of the National League. The National League can clean its own house without help from the commission.'"

When asked if he thought Marquard would be signed by an American League club Johnson replied: "Absolutely not."

BOXING LOOMS UP UNDER COACH EINZIG.

Boxing prospects at the University of California (southern branch) are appearing much brighter than last season. According to Coach Ben Einzig, who is in charge of the boxing classes, more than 100 men have turned out for the manly sport, including six of last year's tournament winners.

Boxing smokers are to be arranged once a month and by this method it is hoped that the men will receive plenty of bouts to fit them in good shape. At the next smoker De Witt Van Court will give a boxing exhibition, demonstrating all punches expected of good boxers.

Efforts will be made later on to stage a meet with the University of Southern California and Stanford. Irving Glasser, 105-pound amateur, is one of the many bright prospects entered in Coach Einzig's class.

Millions of Smiles

Now show beautiful teeth—this is why

Look at people's teeth when they smile. Many teeth are dingy and discolored. All one's attractions are marred by them.

Other teeth now glisten. For millions of people now brush teeth in a new way. Twice a day they fight the film which dulls them.

Your teeth are coated more or less if you brush them in old ways. See the difference when you brush them in the new way for a while. Ask for this ten-day test.

You must combat film

Brushing does not clean teeth if it leaves the film. It removes some debris, but it does not end the teeth's great enemy.

Millions find that well-brushed teeth still discolor and decay. Tooth troubles have been constantly increasing. Now modern dental science finds the reason in a film.

New film is viscous. You can feel it with your tongue. It clings to teeth, gets between the teeth and stays. Then, between your dental cleanings, it may do a ceaseless damage.

The ordinary tooth paste does not end film. A soapy tooth paste makes it more viscous. So brushing teeth in old ways has left much film intact. Its daily removal has in late years been a major dental problem.

How film ruins teeth

It is this film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Thus most tooth troubles are now traced to film, and very few escape them.

Dental science, after painstaking research, has found new ways to combat film. Able authorities have proved them by clinical and laboratory tests. Their efficiency is now beyond all question. These methods have with millions revolutionized teeth cleaning.

These new factors are combined in a dentifrice called Pepsodent—an ideal tooth paste which complies with all the new requirements. Leading dentists everywhere advise it. To prove it quickly to all careful people, a ten-day tube is being sent to everyone who asks.

Five quick effects

Pepsodent brings five desired effects with every application. Some are at once apparent, and all soon show their benefits to teeth.

One ingredient is pepsin. Another multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva to digest starch deposits that cling. Another instant result is multiplied alkalinity of the saliva to neutralize mouth acids.

Two factors directly attack the film. One of them keeps teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily adhere.

Thus with every application Pepsodent combats the teeth's great enemies in new and efficient ways. Both in Europe and America it is fast bringing a new era in teeth cleaning.

The way to know it is to try it. The first application reveals some new effects. A few-day test is most convincing. See these effects, read the reasons for them, and judge this new method for yourself.

If it brings you whiter, safer, cleaner teeth, tell others about it. There are few things more important.

FREE

A 10-Day Tube of Pepsodent. Send coupon. Make this simple, pleasant home test. See for yourself the results.

Film makes teeth dim and dingy

You may not realize it, but remove the film and see how teeth look then.

Compare your teeth now with the teeth you see after this ten-day test. It will be a revelation.

Every woman owes this to herself.

Few children escape

Children's teeth seem most susceptible to film-caused attacks. Very few young folks escape them. Dentists advise the use of Pepsodent from the day the first tooth appears.

Old methods have proved inadequate. See what the new way does. Right tooth protection in early years means much in years to come.

Men who smoke will also see conspicuous results. Their teeth are often much discolored, for tobacco stains the film.

Watch the change in a week

Send this coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears.

These effects mean much to you. Cut out the coupon now.

"L'ORACOLO" HAS FIRST HEARING.

San Francisco Chinatown is Locale for Opera.

Scotti Triumphs in Dark, Impressive Role.

"Pagliacci" is Also Feature on Double Bill.

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT.

California once again came into the golden circle of lights, melody and song as the locale of opera, with the presentation last night of "L'Oracolo," by Francisco Leoni, as the opening work on a double bill, of which the other member was that favored lyric tragedy, "I Pagliacci." This dual program of contrasted successes of the modern Italian school was offered at the second performance of the Scotti Grand Opera season at the Auditorium.

So much time elapses between the giving of new works in this city that the pulse of anticipation beats with a certain degree of fervor even over the appearance of a one-act opera, particularly one laid in San Francisco, and a production which, besides, has always been regarded as affording very especial opportunities to Antonio Scotti as an interpreter of dramatic roles. The audience last night vied in the quality of brilliance with that which attended the premier performance, and an enthusiastic ovation was given each person in the "L'Oracolo" cast at the conclusion of the single act.

Everything but a tong war happens in "L'Oracolo," and the initial reasons for one are planted during the lurid episodes, which range from a kidnaping to a strangling. Incidentally, one man is hit over the head with a hatchet, and several people are neatly bounced out of a hop shop.

But for all its carnival of crime, "L'Oracolo" is dramatically an effective work, and one of the situations of the closing, where Win Shee, to avoid being arrested, pretends to be talking to the dead Chim Fang on a bench, has really a neat — one might say, O. Henry twist.

Musically, Leoni appears to be a half-brother of Mascagni when that composer was in the "Iris" mood. There is much fine light tinting in the score, but a great deal of it is transparent in the prevailing dependence on the strings in the orchestra. Occasionally, in a gory moment on the stage, some pale red blood may be detected in the department of brasses. For all that there is a certain uniqueness about Leoni's method, and though his score is patchwork, it is generally pretty well sewed together.

SATURNINE ROLE.

Scotti's chances in the opera are those of the actor rather than singer. And if anybody has learned to die harder on the stage, or more pathologically, his name isn't yet in the hall of lyrico-dramatic fame. Mr. Scotti gave all the ghastly shivers necessary to the realism of his saturnine conception of Chim Fang, opium den keeper, hatchet man and kidnaper.

We found also much that was fascinating in the voices of Mario Chamlee, Leon Rothier and Marie Sundelius. The duet of Win San Luy and Ah-Yoe, one of the most lyrically beautiful hits in the Leoni opera, was rendered with great charm and fervor by Mr. Chamlee and Miss Sundelius. For one moment one felt that thrilling influence of beautiful vocalizing which brings the ovation that persists, despite the determination of the conductor to go right on with the music. Chamlee was accorded a hearty reception because of his former association with music here, and deserved all of this because of the excellence of voice and technique he evinced. Rothier is a basso, who deserves the description of superb, because his voice has such rare depth and volume and is used with such skill.

Conductor Carlo Peroni deserves special mention for his finesse in emphasizing details of a score that requires close following of the stage action. He also gave a very smooth and balanced interpretation of "I Pagliacci."

KINGSTON AS CANIO.

It is so many years since I have heard an English-speaking singer in the role of Canio that it becomes difficult to recall the Who's Who. I believe Joseph Sheehan was the last with the old Savage English Opera Company. Canios seem invariably to be Italian by instinct and inclination.

It was a joy, however, to hear Morgan Kingston render the "Vesti la Giubba" aria.

It only takes about a dozen tones to put over that famous number, but if you haven't those dozen tones you might as well go into the musical revues. Mr. Kingston has the notes and he delivered them in a stlye that really deserved a much greater ovation than he received, because he made the climax vibrantly beautiful and dramatic.

Millo Picco, who is not unknow to this city, presented a rather sombre meditative clown, different from the average conception, as Tonio. His voice did not seem to rise to the proper bigness in the prologue, but he shows a technical excellence in singing and a sincerity in acting that made his portrayal interesting if not entirely vivid.

The duet between Nedda and Silvio, a somewhat neglected affair as a rule, in "I' Pagliacci" gained a new attractiveness by virtue of the warmth which Anna Roselle and Mario Laurenti gave to it.

The chorus appeared to advantage in the Bell Song.

This afternoon "Madame Butterfly," will be given, and tonight "Il Trovatore" will be presented.

This is the second week of the enlarged, reorganised company at the Burbank, and the offering is just as good as the one of last week.

Dressed as a barefoot boy, with red hair, dirty face and all of the other trimmings of a real American boy, Clara Hanson is making a decided hit singing "Patches." No one would accuse this song of being new, but Miss Hanson and the chorus of seventy-five "baby dolls" were repeatedly encored.

Irene Brooks, always popular with Burbank audiences, scored a new success with "Sweetheart True." This song is particularly adapted to Miss Brooks.

George Banta sang "Typical Tipperary" and was well received.

The Orpheus Trio rendered several numbers as only they can sing them. The little miss who sings and dances so cleverly is again seen in a novelty act.

PARKER ROMANCE CONTINUES.

"Behold My Wife" is in the second week at Grauman's. The story is a screen adaptation of Sir Gilbert Parker's novel, "The Translation of a Savage," and the noted novelist saw the film for the first time as the guest of Sid Grauman early in the week. He praised the photo drama very highly. It relates of an aristocratic Englishman's marrying an Indian maid in a fit of malice. He sinks to the depths of degradation and then is regenerated by love for his wife and child.

FLASHES.

CIRCUIT LURES MARY.

MISS MACLAREN MAY BECOME FIRST NATIONAL STAR.

By Grace Kingsley.

There is every likelihood, according to what appear well-authenticated reports, that Mary MacLaren will become a First National star as soon as she finishes her current picture, "The Wild Goose," on which she is just beginning work.

Miss MacLaren, who is a sister of Katherine MacDonald, has been absent from the screen about a year. Previously she was a Universal star, having been discovered by Lois Weber. The young woman was a sensational hit in Miss Weber's picture, "Shoes," and retained her popularity.

Had a Wild Time.

Prohibition is duly having its effect. Take Jack Mulhall, for instance. He had a birthday lately, but did he spend it riotously? He did not. Viola Dana's leading man was over at Catalina with the company, and he passed the day with a certain learned archaeologist in the lively pursuit of digging up bones of Indians down on the Isthmus. But, after all, it seems the party wasn't as dry as it sounds, inasmuch as some saki enlivened the luncheon.

Jack went to sleep on the return boat trip to Avalon with his head pillowed on a heap of musty skulls.

Viola Dana made a bad pun when the expedition returned home. She said that Mulhall loved science for its own saki.

Sister Miriam MacDonald, Too.

And speaking of the MacDonalds, it now appears that Miriam MacDonald, sister of Katherine MacDonald and Mary MacLaren, is going to do a Natalie Talmadge and emerge as a regular actress all hand-painted and everything. Miss Miriam has been flirting with fate in the way of a picture career for some time, playing bits in her beautiful sister Katherine's productions, but it wasn't until recently that she decided to take her career seriously.

Miss MacDonald leaves the field of lovely heroines open to her sister, and is going in for character roles. She now has three offers from different companies to choose from, and announcement of her decision will be made later.

Charles Ray's Last.

The cast for Charles Ray's adaptation of James Whitcomb Riley's best known poem, "The Old Swimmin' Hole," which will be the popular star's fourth release through First National, includes Laura La Plante and Marjorie Prevost, both of whom have migrated from comedy into the dramatic fold. Charlotte Pearce will again be seen with Mr. Ray. This young lady played the pathetic sister of the star in "Peaceful Valley," a performance which gave her a niche in the hall of screen fame.

Lincoln Steadman is filling his third consecutive engagement with the Ray company, and impersonates a novel character, a fat boy with a mean disposition. Loan Poff and Blanche Rose will also be in the cast. Joseph De Grasse will direct.

Viola Dana Swims.

Gosh, but Viola Dana will insist on learning some new sport every few minutes. Now it's swimming that she is seeking to excel in, and the Metro star established a record of half a mile, done all at once, during her recent stay in Catalina.

Kathleen in Vaudeville.

By the way little Kathleen Clifford, who appeared in several productions at the Little Theater, has also returned to vaudeville. She is playing in St. Louis this week.

Mr. Beveridge will stay at the Alexandria, where he will meet a group of local Republican leaders in the afternoon.

The Phelan-for-Senator campaign headquarters yesterday announced the organization of the Phelan Non-partisan Club, composed of 100 Los Angeles citizens. Henry S. McKee is chairman; E. L. Doheny is vice-president, and Mrs. Marshall Stimson is secretary. The club has headquarters at 322 Merchants' National Bank Building.

The women's committee of the Phelan-for-Senator campaign will meet in the assembly room of the Alexandria next Saturday at 11 a.m. Mrs. Paul Ridley, president of the Ivy Club, will preside. There will be two addresses. Plans were arranged yesterday by this committee for a public reception in honor of Senator Phelan and his sister, Miss Mary Phelan of San Francisco, in the ballroom of the Alexandria on the afternoon of the 21st inst. The reception will be between 3:30 and 5 o'clock. Mrs. Isidore Dockweiler is chairman of the reception committee; Mrs. George J. Denis has charge of the decorations, and Miss Barbara Bledsoe of the ushers.

William P. Mansfield of Brawley, a widely known Imperial Valley rancher, who has just completed a trip through the Eastern States and South, yesterday declared the "solid South," upon which the Democratic party places a proverbial campaign dependence, will be shattered on November 2. Everywhere he went on this trip, Mr. Mansfield said, he found indications of a Harding and Coolidge landslide this election. There is much disgust in Texas over the Wilson administration, he added, and a feeling in Virginia that that State is by no means certain to go for Cox and Roosevelt. Referring to the California Senatorial situation, Mr. Mansfield said he believed the Imperial Valley's vote would be cast this year for Samuel M. Shortridge, who has won powerful support in the southern part of the State.

"I don't see how Senator Phelan can hope to win in California this year," declared Mr. Mansfield. "The entire State is suffering from the Democratic tariff. In the Imperial Valley cottonseed oil prices have been cut to pieces through competition with Japanese and oriental importations of soy bean and peanut oils, and through the importation of beans and peanuts that are afterward processed here. How Phelan can reconcile his Japanese exclusion campaign with the fact that he is a low tariff advocate is not understandable to me. He says he yearns to exclude the Japanese but seems willing to let all their products into the country free of duty."

James S. Edwards of Redlands, the Prohibition candidate for the United States Senate, was yesterday voted an indorsement and a promise of support in a resolution adopted at a meeting of the Los Angeles County W.C.T.U. held at the headquarters of the organization at Temple street and Broadway. C. A. Randall was indorsed for Congress from the Ninth District in the same resolution, and support was pledged to Miss Marie C. Brehm of Long Beach, candidate for the State Senate from the Thirty-third District.

Defense Silent Yet in Handley Estate Action.

Attorneys J. F. Imel and E. M. Swartz, who represent Mrs. Mary Lamb, named defendant in a suit by Mrs. Elizabeth A. Handley for possession of the Stratford and Murray apartments, stated yesterday that they had not been served with the papers in the case, and until that was done, they had nothing to say. The case will be fought out in court, they declared. The further statement was made that Mrs. Lamb owns a half interest in the apartments.

Mrs. Handley is the widow of Lorin A. Handley, prohibition director, who was killed near Lodi several weeks ago. As administratrix of his estate, she brought the suit against Mrs. Lamb. The estate consists of leasehold interests in the two apartment-houses.

MANY OBSERVE COLUMBUS DAY.

High Mass at Plaza Church is Dual Celebration.

Italians, K. of C. and Others Join in Programs.

Speakers Dwell on Fortitude of America's Finder.

Celebration of Columbus Day here began yesterday morning with high mass at the Plaza Church, at which Archbishop Guilfoy of Oaxaca officiated. The Knights of Columbus, numbering 250 members, and members of the Spanish and Mexican colonies attended. Added solemnity was lent the affair by the fact that it was the anniversary of the crowning of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

The main celebration was held by the Knights of Columbus at their auditorium, 612 South Flower street, last evening. The auditorium was filled by the members of the Knights of Columbus and friends. The meeting was in charge of Anthony Palethorpe. The orator was A. S. Maloney of San Bernardino, who eloquently recounted the great deed of Columbus, drawing therefrom a lesson in patience, endurance and tremendous courage.

Classic and folk dances were given by Mary Louise Larkin, 7 years old. Other numbers on the program were a reading by Bernard Cassidy of Joaquin Miller's "Sail On" and songs by Miss Ysabel Cram, a mezzo soprano. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Pauline Long. Grand Knight Leo M. Rosecrans gave a talk of an enlightening character.

The Committee on Arrangements included J. K. McAloon, J. S. Oberle, J. R. Kirby, J. E. Cooke, George Sweeney, Frank Sewins, William E. Clarke and Jules S. Penne.

On Sunday evening the Mexicans will give a program in the patio of the Plaza Church.

More than a dozen prominent Italian societies were represented at the Italian celebration of Columbus Day at 1500 South Figueroa street last evening. Dr. C. Monaco, chairman, made an address in eulogy of Columbus and what his voyage in 1492 meant to the world. Dr. Monaco also wrote the song, "My Broadway Carmen," which was sung by Louis Alberta, and an encore was demanded. Dancing and various other forms of amusement kept the young folk engaged.

WINNING DOG.

Miss Rose D. Sisson of Los Angeles, owner of David's Lucky Dictator, a bulldog, which won five cups in the Santa Barbara Kennel Club dog show last week has entered the prize-winner of the nonsporting class in the dog show at Riverside to be held Friday. In the Santa Barbara account of the kennel show, the bulldog was incorrectly listed as being exhibited by John David, who is kennelman for Miss Sisson.

LATE TAXES TO TAKE PENALTY.

Occupational Levy Soon to Fall Due; Licenses Are Now Delinquent.

Notice was given yesterday by the Police Department that a penalty of 10 per cent will be added to all unpaid occupational taxes at 5 o'clock on the 20th inst. There is $300,000 yet unpaid and the quarterly installment is now due.

On the 10th the monthly license became delinquent and 10 per cent penalty will be added. Prosecution of delinquents will be begun immediately.

SPINS YARN OF DARING CRIMES.

One of Sailor Pair in Jail Confesses Robberies.

Woman Helped in Hold-ups of Taxicabs, He Insists.

Record Will be Reviewed at Arraignment Today.

Numerous robberies in Los Angeles will be reviewed today when Harry A. Holt and Clarence R. Hasson, sailors on the U. S. S. Minneapolis, are arraigned before Judge Willis for sentence on charge of robbery.

A request of the sailors that they be returned to the Navy was opposed by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Powell, who asks that they be sent to San Quentin.

A confession made by Hasson details some of the operations of the sailors and a woman who was said to be with them at the time. Hasson said that he, Holt, Leona Hammond and a third man rented a taxicab on August 23 at Third and Spring streets. He said that near a local bathing pool to which the taxicab man was directed, the driver was held up and robbed of $4.05 and other articles. Afterwards, he said, the party met in a local cafe and later made a trip to Chinatown.

A estaurant proprietor on Los Angeles street, he said, was robbed of $8.50 and on August 26 another taxicab robbery was staged.

On this occasion, he said, Hasson stuck a revolver in the taxicab driver's back and told him to stop. Instead the driver pretened to drive the car into a street car and the occupants got out. They were shortly afterwards arrested.

BURGLAR GETS COIN HISTORY.

Collection Stolen Covered Time Since the Pilgrims; Roman Relics, Too.

Old coins valued at $3000 were stolen yesterday by a pass-key thief from the office of H. F. Vollman in the Trust and Savings Building. In the loot were coins valued at hundreds of dollars. The dates of some of them antedated that of the birth of Christ.

According to the report filed at the Police Station, many bags of coins were taken. From one box the history of American coinage was stolen in the form of a collection, including all types of money coined in this country since the landing of the Pilgrims. There were a number of Roman coins dated several hundred years before Christ.

DINNER TO PARENTS ON GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi S. Hayes were given a golden wedding anniversary reception in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Edna I. Holmes, at 4228 South Harvard Boulevard yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Hayes is an aunt of Mrs. Ogden Armour of Chicago.

The couple were married in Boston on Oct. 12, 1870, in a home built in revolutionary days, which is still a place of interest to the public, because it at one time was the headquarters for Gen. Washington.

"$175 of fun often rollicking and always delightful in 'Way Down East.'"—Phila. Record.

THIS work of the master genius of the silent drama, "Way Down East."

FOR C. WHITE MORTIMER

Only Members of Family and Acting Consul Present at Obsequies.

Funeral services for C. White Mortimer, long-time British Consul here, were conducted yesterday afternoon at the home, and the body cremated at Rosedale.

Only members of the immediate family, Mrs. Mortimer, her two daughters, Julie de Cerjat, and Geraldine Hope Mortimer, and the son, A. B. Mortimer, with E. L. Best, acting British Consul, were present beside Rev. Baker P. Lee, formerly rector of Christ Church, who officiated. The ashes will be eventually taken to Thornhill Cemetery, near Toronto, Can., for burial.

Mr. Mortimer died suddenly at his home Thursday morning as a result of an affection of the heart.

GUASTI ENTERTAINS.

Vineyard Company Head Has "Dry" and Other Officers as Guests.

Secondo Guasti, president and general manager of the Italian Vineyard Company, gave his annual banquet yesterday at Guasti, to Internal Revenue Collector Carter and the attaches of the local office.

Collector Carter, Chief Deputy White and Prohibition Enforcement Officer Krietz headed a delegation of about fifty who enjoyed the hospitality of President Guasti. At the dinner at noon, Collector Carter acted as toastmaster.

PLAN CARD PARTY TO HELP HOSPITAL ROOM.

The Los Angeles chapter of Psi Omega Fraternity will give a card party at the home of Capt. J. D. Fredericks, 559 South Ardmore avenue, at 2:30 p.m. next Saturday. Doris Fredericks will be hostess. Some time ago the chapter assumed responsibility for a room in the Maternity Cottage Hospital Building and is paying for it. The proceeds of the card party will go towards the cost of the room.

Over five million cans of the delicious new Maple Karo sold last year

Larger than the sale of any kind of maple syrup! Rich, delicious flavor and moderate price the reason. This interests you and your purse

The reward of quality is popularity.

When you taste the appetizing tang of maple in Maple Karo—remember that the flavor comes from the finest maple groves in Vermont and Canada.

The makers of Maple Karo are the world's largest users of the purest and best flavored maple sugar.

Over a thousand tons are bought annually to make Maple Karo.

The moderate price you pay for Maple Karo is quite as tempting as its flavor. Its economy permits you to serve it every day —at every meal.

Go to your grocer today and order a can of Maple Karo—in the Green Can.

Try it. If you are not entirely satisfied return it to the grocer and get your money back. No doubt you too will agree that it's the most delicious syrup you've ever tasted.

AN APPEAL TO AMERICAN JUSTICE

When Jewish people were oppressed and massacred, America protested and went to their rescue. Americans raged with indignation when Turkey committed unpardonable crimes upon defenseless Armenians.

America lavished billions of gold and untold human sacrifices to fight for justice in the late world war.

Justice is the Bulwark of America's Greatness, and Justice Alone Keeps America a Great Nation.

The Alien Land Law, Initiative Act No. 1, to be voted on November 2nd, proposes to deprive Japanese people of the right to rent or lease land absolutely. The law now in force prohibits Japanese ownership of land and permits a three-year lease.

IF PROPOSED ACT PASSED

1—It will deprive livelihood of thousands of Japanese farmers and work untold hardships to many more thousands of innocent wives and children of peaceful agriculturists.

2—It will deprive the State of California annually of more than One Hundred Millions of food products now grown by Japanese farmers.

3—It will paralyze the vegetable market and make vegetables things of luxury instead of daily necessities.

Let not anti-Japanese propaganda built on falsehood and fiction blind your sense of justice and beguile you to do an act of injustice and oppression to defenseless and peaceful people.

$100 Sincerity Pledge

Have your physical ailments proven a problem to your best advisers? If so, this message is meant for you and to all others who appreciate definite knowledge of the cause of ill health. The secret of your lost health lies within the spinal column. You know, by common knowledge, that the nerves control and maintain every function of the body. These nerves pass out in pairs through the openings between each vertebra of the spinal column. A vital question is, can a joint of the spine become misplaced sufficiently far enough to impinge the nerves? Let an X-Ray picture answer this question. You can thus examine your own spine. See-for-knowing.

"Nerve pressure," a product of a spinal misalignment, is the direct cause of 95 per cent of human ailments. If you suffer from a misplacement in your spine, to prove that my contention is correct an X-Ray picture will be taken, reproducing the spine. If this picture proves instead, that a misplacement is not present, a Sincerity Pledge of $100.00 will be given. This offer is to any man, woman or child who suffers and wants to get well. Make your appointment today. Examination and consultation free. X-Ray and Fluoroscopic Laboratory.

TWO COUNTIES PLEDGE VOTES.

Tulare and Kings Approve of Shortridge Program.

Candidate's Schedule Ruined by Immense Crowds.

Stand on Tariff and on Japs Told at County Fair.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

VISALIA, Oct. 12.—Lemon and olive growers, bankers, farmers and business men of Tulare and Kings counties pledged their support to Samuel M. Shortridge today when they heard the Republican Senatorial candidate promise to work for the repeal of the suicidal Underwood free trade law.

In every one of the seven cities of the citrus belt visited by Mr. Shortridge today he received sincere assurances from scores of voters of their indorsement of his stand on the tariff. So enthusiastic were Mr. Shortridge's admirers after every meeting that the day's schedule was wrecked and a large crowd waited nearly an hour at the Tulare county fair here for the arrival of the candidate.

Gov. Stephens and Mrs. Harry Kluegel, who is stumping the West for the Republican ticket, talked to the fair gathering before Mr. Shortridge's arrival.

J. H. Askin, chairman, and W. S. Hunsaeker, secretary of the Tulare County Republican Committee, had charge of the itinerary which included a morning speech at Tulare after Mr. Shortridge had motored from Bakersfield.

Charles A. Kimball presided at the noon meeting at Hanford, where Gov. Stephens also spoke. Mr. Shortridge held meetings at Dinuba and at Exeter, making plain in each place his determination to secure action for California from a Republican administration on the Japanese situation and promising "not to waste six years in idle words, while the Japanese come in ever-increasing droves."

Porterville's largest cinema theater was packed tonight to hear Mr. Shortridge, Gov. Stephens and Mrs. Kluegel. Returning to Visalia, Mr. Shortridge stopped at Lindsay to appear before the members of the Lindsay Board of Trade at the annual banquet. He will tour Fresno county tomorrow.

RECEPTION HONORS FAMOUS CHURCHMAN.

Johnson; Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, acting president of the women's auxiliary of the diocese of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Spencer H. Smith, the hostess.

The reception was arranged by the women's diocesan auxiliary.

Throughout the afternoon approximately 1000 persons passed along the receiving line. These guests included noted clergymen and their families from distant cities, descendants of bishops of pioneer days, and prominent members of society.

No set program had been arranged other than affording the hundreds of visitors the opportunity of greeting the new bishop coadjutor of Los Angeles and the nine visiting bishops from practically all the Western States.

During the afternoon refreshments were served on the lawn by groups of young women from the various Southern California parishes.

TO SAVE RICE INDUSTRY.

Growers of North Demand Election of Shortridge to Get Protection.

on all Asiatic products to the point of equality," declared Dr. Clements, who is an eminent authority on agricultural economics. "The tariff should be such that no rice could be brought here from the Far East and offered at a price lower than the cost of production in California, plus a reasonable profit. I am not a free trader, nor am I a high tariff advocate. My firm conviction is that all foreign importations should be so regulated as to impose duty that when imports are offered to the trade their price will be on a parity with the price asked for similar commodities grown in the United States. And in this opinion I do not wish to give out the impression that I stand for such regulation solely for the benefit of California. Our country is so big and its various agricultural and horticultural industries so inter-related that protective tariffs for the products of one State and the lack of protective tariffs for the crops of another State would be anything other than a satisfactory state of affairs."

The rice situation today is a complex one from the growers' standpoint at least, it was pointed out yesterday. Although Japan is experiencing a serious rice shortage she is shipping to this country every pound of rice on which she can lay her hands, the impulse of the Japanese people being to sell their rice and live on such stuff as dried fish which they cannot dispose of here to advantage. Japan is up against a stiff Chinese boycott and is suffering from a financial flurry due to price collapse following a period of overspeculation, and she is disposed to unload her salable stuff and get her hands on as much American money as possible. The chaotic condition of the Japanese silk market is another indication of this.

The California rice growers have brought to harvest another big rice crop—2,000,000 bushels larger than last year's production—and it cost more to grow it. They are offering rice at a price when is positively as low as they can sell it, it is declared, and get out whole on the cost of production, yet Japan, having produced rice at low cost, and having shipped it here in her own freighters, is getting the same price for it in California today as the California grower is getting for his rice. This, in part, is because Japan is paying no tariff and no duty. The Japanese rice farmers are getting richer in the rice business at American rice prices, a state of affairs which the growers say will utterly destroy the rice industry of this State in a short time, if the Democratic free-trade policy continues.

The absolute necessity for an adequate tariff on Asiatic importations which are now jeopardizing the agricultural interests of the State is apparent, it is pointed out, when one stops to consider that last year's California rice crop sold for nearly $25,000,000. Competing with the older rice industries of Louisiana and Texas, California is already running a poor third in the market place, and the growers insist that it is too much to expect them to compete with Japan.

GROWERS MEET.

So grave is the danger that the Japanese will drop the price of rice still lower that rice growers and millers are holding meetings in Butte, Sutter, Glenn, Yuba and Colusa counties, the leading rice districts of the State, in an effort to settle upon some policy, which may tide them over until a Republican Senator can be elected and an adequate tariff provided. Foreign competition is interfering with the sale of California rice to such an extent, it is declared, that the growers may be compelled to store their crop until such time as the Asiatic supply is exhausted and a suitable market for local rice is re-established. This will compel them to suffer severe financial losses.

The absolute need of some means of establishing a parity between rice grown in the United States and that which comes from the Far East is made evident further from government statistics, which show that the United States produced 41,459,000 bushels in 1919 and 52,153,000 in 1820. The difference in the size of the two crops is more than 11,000,000 bushels, which, in itself would seem to be sufficient reason, it is declared, for giving the American industry immediate protection against further free importations.

REGISTRATION SETS RECORD.

Total for City and County is Given by Registrar Lyons as Exceeding 380,000.

Breaking all records for any county in the State, the total registration of Los Angeles city and county was announced by D. B. Lyons, Registrar of Voters, as 386,966, divided as follows:

Republican — City, 133,425; county, 87,148; total, 220,573.

Progressive — City, 1265; county, 778; total, 2043.

Democrat — City, 43,785; county, 28,316; total, 72,101.

Socialist—City, 3596; county, 1877; total, 5473.

Society Brand Clothes

FOR YOUNG MEN AND MEN WHO STAY YOUNG

© A.D.C. 1920

To the man who has resolved to dress better

It isn't hard to do; it is one of the simplest things in the world. The way to get better clothes than you have been wearing is to go to the store that sells a better brand of clothes than you have been buying.

Men who wear Society Brand Clothes never have secret worries whether or not they are dressing up to their position.

They know, in the first place, that their clothes are of approved style. They know that the tailoring will stand the closest scrutiny, and that the fabrics of all-wool will give the clothes a wearing quality most unusual.

One more thing: When you have tried on a Society Brand Suit—when you like its looks, like its fit, and are secretly and pleasantly surprised at how stylish and well you can look in a really good suit—take your wife's advice and buy it.

Don't look around some more. Don't tell the merchant you'll come back later.

The way to get better clothes and be better dressed is to go to a better store and buy the better clothes and wear them.

It's that simple.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Goodyear Head Talks of Outlook; Hay Market; Arizona Banks, Cotton.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

The following statement made by F. A. Seiberling, president of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, and recently published in the Wall-street Journal will be of especial interest to the large number of California stockholders in the Goodyear Los Angeles properties.

"There is absolutely no foundation for the statement that we are having findncial difficulties," said Mr. Seiberling. "There is no truth in the report that Goodyear directors have held a special meeting this week. There is no truth to any of the reports which are being circulated in New York about our company. They are all tommyrot."

President Seiberling stated Goodyear is one of the strongest corporations ,with liquid assets, exceeding total liabilities more than $70,000,000. Its plant and equipment, which are entirely free from any incumbrances, are worth more than $50,000,000 and its total assest much more than three times liabilities, leaving surplus of net worth above $135,000,000. Company has been contemplating constructive financing to fund all its obligations, which it is in unusually good shape to do, having no funded indebtedness. Proposed financing is being taken up in ordinary course of business and its completion is simply a matter of agreement upon terms with bankers.

Goodyear business continues on an even keel, according to reports which show sales for the first twenty-six days of September in excess of $14,000,000. Sales of both casings and tubes are reported to have increased and to have exceeded production by several thousand each. Executives of the company assert retrenchment has reached rock-bottom and that with business picking up, the outlook is more hopeful than for several weeks.

HAY MARKET.

The following bulletin will be issued later in the week to members by the Alfalfa Growers of California:

While there was no advance in the price of alfalfa during the week, the market showed a healthy undertone and receipts were readily absorbed.

This shows the great intrinsic strength of the position of alfalfa, considering the state of the money market, and still more so considering that the already demoralized market for other feed and food products again suffered additional severe declines during the week, establishing new low records for wheat, corn, oats, etc., and bringing prices still further below cost of production.

So serious is the situation that in the case of wheat the Wheat Growers' Association of the United States has issued a proclamation urging its mempers not to sell any wheat after October 25, until the price of good wheat is $3 a bushel; it is now about $2 and corn, oats, etc., are quoted correspondingly low.

We doubt that the measure taken by the Wheat Growers' Association will bring the desired result, there being a large overproduction of wheat as well as corn, barley, etc., unless there is found a way to finance the exportation of the surplus to Europe, where it is all wanted, but mostly on long-time credit only, and the question is who can and will hold the bag?

The plan of the Wheat Growers' Association would have a better chance of success if used by the Alfalfa Growers of California in the marketing of their product, as we have no surplus this year, but rather a shortage.

There were approximately 750 tons of hay of all kinds received on the Los Angeles tracks the week ending October 9, and 660 held over as against 600 tons the week before. There were 1565 tons received in San Francisco the week ending October 9.

Southern prices quoted yesterday: Fancy dairy alfalfa, $37; No. 1 dairy alfalfa, $29; standard dairy, $25; stock hay, $22.

ARIZONA BANKS.

The total resources of Arizona's banks are $76,193,146, according to a report of State Auditor Boyce, the State banks having two-thirds the assets. The State banks have deposits of $52,667,479 and the national $25,693,222, a total of $78,360,701. The loans are: State banks, $41,825,935, and national, $21,187,473, a total of $63,013,457.

COTTON BUYING.

Los Angeles is reaching out after the cotton of Arizona. R. J. Armstrong & Co. of San Pedro offering 35 cents a pound advance on all long staple shipped to them at that point. The financing is understood to be through the Security Trust and Savings Bank of Los Angeles.

The statement is made that the cotton is wanted for export, there being market for it through English channels. It is understood that the Goodyear long-staple consumption in its Los Angeles factory is being supplied by its subsidiary corporation, the Southwest Cotton Company, which has large acreages of cotton in the Salt River Valley and which has gins and buying agencies also at Yuma and in the Imperial Valley.

ITS A POOR LAW.

"It is doubtful if there has ever been a law proposed in California so filled with flaws, ambiguities, and legal loop holes as the proposed Community Property Law which is an issue to be settled at the general election November 3. It will take the courts many years to determine just what the Legislature was driving at, and then they will probably guess wrong, because it is extremely unlikely that the Legislature itself knew."

This is the way J. H. Coverly, director of several Los Angeles financial institutions, views the situation. "The accompanying acts," he says, "which served in part to limit and define the Community property measure were vetoed by the Governor, and standing alone, Proposition No. 13 is a thing of shreds and patches. Without going into the merits of the law at all, although few lawyers can be found willing to admit that they have found any merit in it, the slipshod manner of its preparation and the doubtful legality of its signing are enough to condemn it.

"If the voters decide that they want this law the result will be to throw the whole probate machinery of the State into hopeless confusion. It will be a tragedy for the men and women whose small estates will suffer either because they will be forced to employ experts to lead them through the mazes of this amazing law or for those who fail to do anything about it and die without complying with the provision which requires all wills which bequeath anything to anyone other than the surviving spouse or lineal descendants to be approved in writing by the other spouse.

"This will throw thousands of estates into intestacy and constitute a great public wrong. The fair discrimination and good judment of the people of California make it imperative that a negative majority be returned against this measure which will appear upon the ballot as Proposition No. 13.

FIRM TONE PREVAILS ON PRODUCE MARKET.

PEACHES HIGHER ON ACCOUNT OF LIGHT SUPPLY; CABBAGE SLUMPS SHARPLY.

Moderate supplies and an active buying demand created a firmer tone for all lines of fruits and vegetables during the session on the local produce market yesterday, and many of the offerings were selling at a sharp premium over the preceding day's level. The only commodity to show a downward tendency was cabbage, which ruled 50 cents per crate lower for all grades, owing to the dull demand and slow movement of this commodity. Other lines remained unchanged or advanced sharply during the day. Peaches, which were very scarce, moved up 50 to 75 cents per lug box, according to the quality of the offerings, while some of the best stock was bringing as high as $2.75 per lug, a gain of $1 per box over Monday's prices.

All varieties of beans advanced under pressure of a brisk demand, although supplies were again heavy. String beans ruled about 2 cents per pound higher, while limas were selling at an advance of 1 cent per pound for all grades. Carrots were scarce, and prices were 10 to 20 cents per sack higher, with movement active at the higher level. White onions were weak and in poor demand, with practically no movement reported during the day.

Potatoes remained firm in price, although the undertone of the market was unsettled, on account of the liberal receipts of the past few days. The Chilean market for this commodity, according to reports received by the Local Bureau of Markets, is very weak, and a sharp decline in prices locally is anticipated in the near future. In the shipping market, tomatoes held steady at previous prices. A light movement of cauliflower toward the eastern markets is under way, but shipments have not become heavy enough to establish a market for this commodity.

Chicago Grain Market Observes Columbus Day.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Columbus Day was observed today by all the grain markets except that of Minneapolis, Duluth and Winnipeg. Wheat was under pressure early, hedges selling in all markets and increased country offerings were reported by Winnipeg.

Minneapolis declined 5¼ cents with December leading and closed with a rally of 2¼ cents showing net losses of ¼@¾ cents. Winnipeg futures were 5¾ cents lower. Duluth rallied early and closed ¼ cent lower. Duluth finished ¾ cent higher on December and reported Minneapolis buying choice durums there. Winnipeg selling all markets, the arrival of 1312 cars against 740 last year being the factor. Weather in the Canadian Northwest was generally fair.

The oats market was easier early and rallied. Minneapolis closed ¼@¾ cent lower, Winnipeg while Winnipeg lost ¼@¾ cent. Rye in Minneapolis was stronger and gained 1 cent while Duluth spot rye was in good demand at 8-cent premiums. Barley gained 1 cent.

SHARP GAINS MADE IN GRAIN MARKET.

Sharp gains were made by all shipments of milo and barley during the call on the local grain exchange yesterday, despite the fact that barley interest was limited, and few sales were made during the day. At the close of the session, track barley ruled about 82 per ton higher, the transit and twenty-day shipments were $1.22 per ton higher, and other near-by deliveries showed an advance of $1.50 per ton. Sharp advances were also made by the deferred deliveries. October barley closed at an advance of $1.50 per ton, first half of November and all December shipments were $1.25 per ton higher, and November moved up to the extent of $1 per ton. Sales of all December barley were made at $2.10 and $2.12½. The activity in milo was limited, but the ten-day and the December shipments advanced $1 per ton during the session.

A World-Encircling Industry

The Pan American Petroleum and Transport Company, through its subsidiary companies and business alliances, is a vast organization that is world-wide in its scope.

Through the Mexican Petroleum Company, Ltd., of Delaware, the Huasteca Petroleum Company and the British Mexican Petroleum Company and other ramifying interests, the Company controls extensive oil lands in California and marketing facilities in South America and Europe.

Since its organization, the Company has sold more than $17,000,000 of convertible securities, practically all of which have been converted into the Company's Common Stock.

The business of the Company has proved exceedingly profitable. The earnings available for interest in 1921 were $6,796,594. Based upon operations for first six months of 1922, net earnings for this year are conservatively estimated at more than $12,000,000.

The splendid prosperity of the Company is your assurance of a safe and profitable investment of your surplus funds in its $10,000,000 First Lien Ten-Year Marine Equipment 7% Convertible Gold Bonds.

We recommend this security because it is a direct and only finished addition of a great company whose business is sound and stable and whose earnings have been consistently large.

Price: 94½ and Interest; Yield 7.80%

If you have money to invest, you ought to investigate this security. You can do so, easily and without obligation, by simply asking for Circular T-1013.

—to pay for the improvement of the street in front of his property. If he does—his property is bonded for the amount of the cost of the improvement and the buyer of the bond (which is usually small compared to the value of the property) holds a first lien upon the property until the full amount is paid.

It is this that makes the Street Improvement Bond such a particularly desirable investment when legally issued for justified improvements.

For sixteen years we have specialized in these bonds, handling them in large volume for Los Angeles and other cities of California.

We provide for our clients a free collection service and because of our experience and buying power, we are in position at all times to offer the choicest issues.

Reliable Bonds

AN investment bond is a tremendously human thing. Like a man, a bond must be reliable, dependable, faithful to the trust imposed in it, through good times and bad. Much depends on the reliability of your bonds.

For thirty-eight years the first mortgage bonds safeguarded under the STRAUS PLAN have proved their reliability. Two wars and four financial panics have come and gone, and still theirs is an unblemished record—38 years without loss to an investor and with unvarying prompt payment of both principal and interest in cash.

If you want a truly reliable investment, free from worry and care and yielding an interest rate that is attractive, but not abnormal, investigate the Straus Plan. We have published a new booklet which explains how sums of $500 upward may be invested safely under our Plan. Call or write today, and ask for

If Everybody Saved Ten Cents a Day—

YOU have heard people say that they cannot save any money; but do you KNOW of anyone who could not save ten cents a day? With little or no sacrifice on their part could they not lay aside a much larger part of their daily earnings?

Ten cents a day amounts to more than $36 a year and there are many times when even that seemingly small amount could be used to great advantage.

If everyone in the United States saved ten cents a day, ten and one-half million dollars daily would be accumulated which, if deposited in banks, would become available for financing industrial enterprises, home-building and other important commercial uses.

TO SAVE IS THE PERSONAL, CIVIC AND NATIONAL DUTY OF EVERY CITIZEN.

For the convenience of our many depositors, this bank is OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

TRYING OUT WAYS TO MAKE BEANS BETTER.

VAN NUYS WOMEN BUSY WITH PREPARATIONS TO ENTER CONTEST ON FRIDAY.

Novel ways of cooking baby Lima beans are being worked out this week at Van Nuys in anticipation of the "Best Dish of Beans Contest," which is to be decided Friday at the Van Nuys civic dinner. Three cash prizes, $5, $3 and $2 have been offered, and each prize winner will also receive a formal certificate.

Conditions of the contest are that all of the ingredients used must be grown in the Van Nuys district or in the valley, and that the dish must be cooked by the person under whose name it is entered. Flavor and general attractiveness being equal, the recipe calling for the fewest number of ingredients will win first prize. Judges of the contest, which is backed by the Van Nuys Chamber of Commerce, will be famous chefs from Southern California hotels.

TO OPEN BATH-HOUSE.

Relief Association Will Dedicate New Duarte Building Sunday.

Formal opening and dedication of a new bath-house on the grounds of the Jewish Relief Consumptive Association's sanatorium at Duarte will take place Sunday afternoon.

The fund for this improvement was started three years ago by Mrs. A. E. Behlow of West Alhambra, who donated the first $1000 of the $6000 which the structure has cost. Busses for Duarte will leave the association's headquarters at 207 South Broadway Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and the return trip will be made early in the evening. Refreshments will be served on the grounds at the sanatorium.

SECURITY TRUST & SAVINGS BANK

TRUST DEPARTMENT

In New and Larger Quarters

WE ARE PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE the opening of the New TRUST DEPARTMENT ROOMS of this Bank.

To give suitable accommodations to this important department, the Bank leased the entire second floor of the Security Building at Fifth and Spring Streets. This has been opened through to the second floor of the Security Bank Building, adjoining.

The entire space has been remodeled and refinished, lined with white marble, furnished in mahogany. These are now unquestionably the largest, and the most completely furnished and appointed quarters occupied by any Trust Company or the Trust Department of any Bank, west of Chicago.

SEVEN ELEVATORS give access to this Trust Department. Two private elevators, one at each end of the Bank, connect the Trust Department with the Savings and the Commercial counting rooms. Five elevators in the lobby of the Security Building give quick service from the street.

AUGMENTED SERVICE With the increased space, the force of the Trust Department will be increased, and the facilities extended to include every service, of a Trust and Fiduciary Nature.

Customers of the Bank and the Public Generally are Cordially Invited to Inspect these New and Beautiful Banking Rooms, Open from 9 to 5

Over $3,000,000 Loaned—Twice As Much Needed

In twelve months ending September 30th, 1920, the STATE MUTUAL BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION loaned $3,142,750.00, mostly to be used in building houses. This looks big, but it isn't half as much as could safely be loaned and it doesn't go near far enough to relieve the serious shortage of houses.

This Association has all the machinery in perfect working order to assist thousands to build homes. Its only lack is sufficient funds to supply the demand. The borrowers offer ample and excellent security; the Association provides additional safeguards, assumes all responsibilities and offers 6% to those with money to invest where it will do the most good in relieving the housing situation.

The Association issues FULL PAID CERTIFICATES in denominations of $100 or any multiple thereof up to $10,000. The 6% is payable semi-annually by coupon and the principal can be withdrawn at any time after one year. They offer an absolutely safe, profitable investment and an opportunity to do some real good for yourself and the community.

Write or call for folder and financial statement.

SOUND CALL OF REPUBLICANISM.

Speakers' Bureau Member Talks to Women Here.

Says Hope of Nation Lies in Sweeping G.O.P. Victory.

Shortridge, Van de Water and Others Given Praise.

BY MYRA NYE.

"Throughout the last eight years, when the principles which are dear to the American heart were in danger, it has been Republican Senators and Congressmen who have intervened and saved the nation from perilous action," said Mrs. Raymond Robins, nationally-known Republican worker and member of the National Speakers' Bureau, to an audience of women in the Friday Morning clubhouse yesterday morning, at a meeting called by the State central committee women of the county. Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, president of the Women's Study Club, presided.

"When one of the paramount issues of the day is the rewinning of civil liberty," Mrs. Robins continued: "when there was never a time when the Constitution was so little regarded as now; when autocracy in the place of representative government is forced upon us, I am of the firm conviction that Senator Harding, the nominee of our party, who has said so powerfully that understanding is the need of the world today, who is so clear visioned, so clean in his life, so fine of judgment, is the man to lead the nation out of the darkness of misrule that has come upon it."

WOMEN'S AID ASKED.

Mrs. Robins ended with a stirring appeal for the Republican vote of women in the coming election.

Disappointment was felt and expressed among a great many women that Mrs. Robins gave the greater portion of her time to a discussion of the League of Nations instead of the industrial program of the Republican party, as she was expected to do; also, that in denouncing the Wilsonian League she at no time intimated that she was with Senator Harding in favoring a league or alliance of nations that would promote world-wide peace.

"What are you going to say to mothers who sent their sons to die for a league that would prevent future wars?" challenged Dr. Julia T. Hill-Crawford.

"This covenant makes for war," was Mrs. Robins's reply. "Poland is a member, but that does not prevent her marching upon Russia in warfare."

MRS. BURDETTE TALKS.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, who recently returned from a tour of the East, where she was effectively active for the Republican ticket, said: "I am here because I am a Republican. It is a Harding meeting. He has the constructive ability and fine spirit to meet the problems that confront us. As Herbert Hoover has said, 'One of the major issues is party responsibility.' Senator Harding said to me when I talked with him in Marion that I might tell the women of California that he was not for 'scrapping the League as though it was to be thrown in an ash barrel. What there is of good in it should be preserved,' he said. 'I cannot now say absolutely what I will do,' Senator Harding continued, 'because I do not believe in one-man rule. I shall be governed by Republican Senators and Congressmen, but you may be assured that all leagues or alliances will not be scrapped.'"

Mrs. Katherine P. Edson of the National Executive Committee of the Republican party told of the home life of Senator and Mrs. Harding as she saw it when visiting them in Marion; of their unostentatious manners, their charm, fidelity and wholesomeness.

"Senator Harding is thoroughly sympathetic with what women want to do for women and children," Mrs. Edson said. "He is a man of vision and ideals, and will lead us in safe paths through the perilous four years ahead of us."

VOICES SLOGAN.

"Harding, Coolidge, Shortridge and Van de Water is the slogan of this meeting," said Mrs. Porter, and Mrs. Sallie Richardson, in her words of greeting at the luncheon table, made an earnest plea to vote for the Republican Senator and Congressman.

"Senator Harding as President can do little without the help of his own party men behind him in the legislative body," she said.

Congressman Osborne and Charles F. Van de Water, Republican candidate for Congress in the Ninth District, were present as guests of honor to speak for their own candidacy, and Mrs. Alfred Bartlett, wife of the chairman of the Republican County Central Committee, gave the speech that of all women's speeches was best received, when she spoke for the candidacy of Samuel M. Shortridge for the United States Senate.

Joe Crail spoke for the burying of all factional feeling so that all might unite for the good of the party and the election of a straight Republican ticket in November.

Fully 300 women sat down to the well-appointed tables and Republican enthusiasm throughout the day was manifest.

OPPOSITION TO UNWISE LAW GAINS.

Dangers in the Community Property Proposal Pointed Out at Club Debate.

That the opposition to Proposition No. 13, the so-called community property law, is making headway was shown by a debate at the Ebell clubhouse yesterday between Senator Evans of Riverside and Senator Roseberry of Los Angeles.

Senator Roseberry forcefully showed that the proposition would be destructive of credit, would entail endless difficulties in the business world, is full of legal discrepancies, is a serious menace to family harmony and has no justification, as shown by an analysis of the working of the present law.

Today Judge Britt will address the Founders' and Merchants' Association, Norman S. Sterry will address the Parent-Teacher Association at the Gates-street school, and Attorney T. C. Job will speak at the First Congregational Church in Pomona. Attorney Frank S. Hutton will address the Women's Republican Club at 2:30 p.m. at the Y.W.C.A. auditorium, Third and Hill streets.

AUTO RACE DRIVERS TO BE GIVEN COLORS.

BOOSTERS AT THANKSGIVING EVENT HERE WILL HAVE FAVORITE'S PENNANT.

Many novel features are promised for the events to be held at the Los Angeles Speedway on Thanksgiving Day. The principal attraction will be the national championship auto races in which the world's greatest drivers will compete for cash prizes amounting to $25,000. In conjunction with this race there will be an aeronautical show and flying exhibition, when all of the stunts known to aviators will be performed by the Burt Barr Flying Circus.

Another novelty will be the color scheme which was suggested by Manager Dick Ferris after a conference with A. M. Young. Mr. Ferris suggested that every driver be given a color and race under it, in order to stimulate interest in the grand stand. Each person will be urged to carry the pennant of his favorite racing driver and offer him encouragement, as is done at college and university meets. The idea has been adopted by the Speedway Association and arrangements are now being made to distribute, through the various merchants in town, pennants bearing the name and chosen color of each driver.

One of these pennants will be given free to each person purchasing a ticket for the races.

GOING AFTER DRIVER.

Police will Ask Warrant for Man at Wheel when Four Were Hurt.

A warrant will be issued today for the arrest of H. W. Holmes on the charge of reckless driving, it was announced by the police last night. Holmes was driver of the car which overturned early yesterday morning at Vermont avenue and Sunset Boulevard, injuring the four occupants.

In the machine with Holmes were Mrs. John Kaufman of the Triangle Apartments, at Sunset and Hollywood Boulevards; Miss Dora Graham and Albert Rogill. The two women were taken to the Children's Hospital and the two men received medical attention from Dr. Jirah M. Downs. Mrs. Kaufman is in a dangerous condition. The others will recover.
